READY!

Our people are ready for a new move. Their enthusiasm over passing the quarter of a million dollar line is without a parallel in our history. Words of cheer and congratulation come from every source. They are ready for a new task. Nerved and heartened by the past year's phenomenal liberality they are willing to adopt a new slogan, or $300,000 for Foreign Missions by September 30th, 1906.

Even this advance step is by no means a measure of our ability. It is less than a general average of thirty cents per member. Some have suggested $500,000, others a million. No one has thought of less than $300,000 as a worthy and inspiring watchword. These suggestions indicate the trend of sentiment for larger things.

All ready! Sound out the new war-cry from every pulpit. The world is over-ripe for a great forward movement. All the crowning victories of the past, the majestic, providential movements of the present and the tokens of future blessings and conquests all combine to inspire us to plan as those who expected to see the world conquered for Christ.

Our nation is rich. Our churches are prosperous. Our work in all lands bears the unmistakable stamp of Divine approval. We are left without excuse. Anything short of $300,000 will not even approximate our duty.

All ready! Ready for agitation and education, ready for higher standards in every church, ready for a crusade that will insure another victory!

EDITORIAL.

Victory at last!

The receipts ran up to $255,922, a gain of $44,603.

Now ring out the new watch-word: $300,000 for Foreign Missions by September 30, 1906.

The victory of the past year has been an all-around one. Our brotherhood has never before been so stirred.

The argument made before the Convention for Foreign Missions is the argument to make before the local congregations.

Mrs. W. T. Moore sends $100 from the Christian College of Columbia, Missouri, for the Female Christian College, Tokio, Japan. We call this the fraternity of colleges. There is a wholesome missionary spirit about the institution over which Mrs. Moore presides with such efficiency and rare success.

Dr. Paul Wakefield and wife, of Springfield, Illinois, will sail for China on the good ship Siberia from San Francisco, November 4th. These splendid young people are well equipped for their life work. It has been their steadfast purpose for many years to give themselves to the mission field. We congratulate the friends, both in China and in America, upon this valuable increase to the working force in that needy field.

The time for Missionary Rallies is at hand again. The preachers and churches should be in preparation for them. These rallies have been a source of great inspiration and instruction. It will be our purpose to conduct even more this year than last. The greatest results can only be secured by the hearty co-operation of the preachers and church officers. The rallies have some advantages over National Conventions. Indeed, they are a National Convention in miniature.

In the future, the churches in Johnson County, Indiana, will support their own missionary on the foreign field. During the past year the churches and Sunday-schools in that county have almost doubled their offerings for Foreign Missions. Their war cry for the new year is "$1,000 for Foreign Missions," or a gain of $400. W. Grant Smith continues as missionary secretary of the county. If we had such a man in each county in Indiana we would soon have fifty Living-Link counties in that state instead of two.

The greatest and most pressing need of the Foreign Society at the present time is proper buildings on the mission fields. Fully $50,000 is required to meet this need. We are making an earnest appeal this year to personal friends for individual gifts to provide these buildings. During the past two years we have sent out about thirty-five new missionaries. They must be properly housed and equipped for their work. They can not do their best work without suitable homes and chapels. It requires about $2,500 to provide a proper home. We hope friends will come to our relief in this time of need. We can not take the money from the regular offerings. Every dollar of this is required to pay the regular salaries of the missionaries and the current expenses. Last year the personal gifts amounted to over $38,000; and we believe $50,000 is not too much to expect this year.

The San Francisco Convention was a decided success. The general feeling was that the Foreign Society never had a better day in its history. Other conventions have been larger than this, but none have been superior as Related to Missions;" Walter S. Goode, of Youngstown, Ohio, spoke on "Missing Links;" Hall Laurie Calhoun, of Lexington, Kentucky, spoke on "Missions, the Supreme Apologetic;" and Frank M. Dowling, of Pasadena, California, spoke on "A United Church and an Evangelized World." These addresses were of a very high order. Each speaker made to it in quality. This is very remarkable and very gratifying. No false note was struck. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of those present. It is significant that such a convention could be held on the Pacific Coast, so far from the center of the brotherhood. This shows what a large place the missionary enterprise has in the hearts of the people.

The speakers and topics were as follows: Edgar W. Allen, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, spoke on the "Purpose of God the amplest preparation. Each man honored his audience by giving the best of which he was capable, and the audience manifested its appreciation and honored the speakers in turn. There was only one opinion as to the character of these addresses.

There was rejoicing over the announcement that "victory is in sight." The raising of $250,000 this year was regarded as a real triumph. But is it so? Many of those who gave of their money did well; but what of the two-thirds of the membership who gave nothing at all? What is a quarter of a million among 1,250,000 Christian people? As a matter of fact, it is a pittance. This year the war-cry is "$300,000 for Foreign Missions." Is that too much to ask and to confidently expect? It is only twenty-five cents a member, or half a cent a week.* Is not such an amount easily within our ability?

The conference on the preparation for the March Offering was interesting and illuminating. The speakers were as follows: G. A. Miller, I. J. Spencer, G. C. Ritchey, A. C. Smither, R. P. Shepherd, W. A. Moore, J. H. Mohorter, C. W. Dick, M. D. Clubb, W. G. Conley, W. E. Crabtree, and R. L. Cartwright. Each man spoke three minutes. These men showed how much can be packed into such narrow limits. Each speech was a gem. Each seemed to be the best in the series. These speeches were heard with manifestations of delight. They will be published as a leaflet and sent out to the ministers and to others as they may be called for.

The California brethren did what they could to make the convention a success. No convention in our history was better prepared for or handled better. Nothing that loving thought could devise was left undone. W. M. White and Frank S. Ford and the good men and women who were associated with them have every reason to be proud of their work. They are deserving of special mention and honor. They will have their reward. They said that the convention would do more for our cause on the Coast than twenty-five years' preaching and working. The papers gave generous space. The work and the men who are doing it were advertised as never before. The people of San Francisco and all along the Coast got some adequate conception of the strength of our people and of what we are trying to do in the world.

The Late Thos. E. Bondurant,
Of DeLand, Ill., who left the Foreign Society more than $50,000 by bequest, to be paid in ten years.

During the convention the missionaries were the guests of the San Francisco committee. They were assigned quarters at one of the best hotels in the city. At the close of the convention a number of families claimed the privilege of entertaining them till the date of sailing. The hosts felt that they were signally blessed for the sake of their guests. Some of them said that the aftermath was worth more to them than the convention, great as that was. They learned more about the work and about the workers than they ever knew before. The churches around the Bay sent the missionaries off with prayer and song and great rejoicing.

One matter of great importance was presented to the convention. It is proposed to buy or erect a home for the children of our missionaries. In this home the children can be cared for and educated while their parents are on the field. It will be located near some one of our colleges. The need of this home is evident to all who are conversant with missionary affairs. At the present time M. D. Adams and G. L. Wharton are in India; their wives and children are in Hiram. Had the Society such a home, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Wharton might be with their husbands in India. Such a home will cost from ten to twenty-five thousand dollars. In fact, two homes will be necessary, one for boys and one for girls. It may be that some family will feel impelled to give the money as a memorial of some loved one who has entered into the life that is life indeed.

The most thrilling event of the convention was the introduction of the missionaries. This time there was an unusually large number of new missionaries present. Miss Oldham and Miss Rioch, both of Tokio, Japan, and P. M. Snodgrass, of Honolulu, represented the fields. The new people are as follows: B. L. Kershner and wife, who go to Manila, in the Philippines; H. C. Saum and wife and Herbert Saum, D. O. Cunningham and wife and Miss Olive Griffith, who go to India; J. C. Ogden and wife, who go to Tibet; and Miss Stella Lewis, who goes to Japan. As one after another arose and spoke a few simple words, the hearts of all present grew tender and the eyes of many filled with tears. The presentation of Herbert Saum, a lad of five years, was the climax. The missionaries represent the heroic element of Christianity. They are the messengers of the churches and the glory of Christ. No finer body of missionaries ever stood before one of our conventions. The people were impressed with their evident ability and culture and devotion.

ENTHUSIASM OVER THE NEW WATCH-WORD.

Our editorial, "A New Era," and the announcement of a new watch-word, "$300,000 for Foreign Missions by September 30, 1906, in the October number of the Missionary Intelligencer, has met with a far more enthusiastic reception than we anticipated. We are in the full light of a new day. What wondrous changes in a decade! We can hardly believe our eyes. To reach $300,000 this year ought to be an easier task than $255,922 last year. The gain last year was $44,603, or over 20 per cent; the gain proposed this year is $44,078, or about 17 per cent. We believe the following expressions of interest fairly represent the sentiment and purpose of the whole brotherhood. Read their ringing words and catch their lofty enthusiasm.

With all my heart I indorse the watch-word, "$300,000 for Foreign Missions in 1906." Up with it! Nail it to the mast! A long pull, a hard pull, a pull all together.—J. Murray Taylor, Washington, D. C.

Our numbers, our prosperity, our cause, all demand that we should raise the standard of giving. For a great and vigorous people like the Disciples to give less than $300,000 to evangelize the heathen, is to sin—to give vastly more is only to do right. May God help us to seize our opportunity!—S. Boyd White, Falmouth, Ky.

Of course you must aim at $300,000. Growth is the genius of life. Every thing must have a beginning, but how pitiful and inadequate have been our efforts to preach the gospel to every creature. We must constantly work up to our Lord's requirement and the world's need.—T. S. Buckingham, Burkesville, Ky.

In the light of the appalling need, in the light of our peculiar opportunity, in the light of our ability, in the light of our rapidly growing membership, $300,000 is the smallest sum which we can afford to undertake to raise this year. We ought to make it more. We dare not plan for less. Yours for larger things.—Geo. A. Ragan.

I should like to see $300,000 raised for Foreign Missions this year. The time has come when missionary offerings should not have a gradual, natural growth, but a growth by leaps and bounds instead. I am in sympathy with an effort of this kind, and will put my hands to the plow to attain such a glorious undertaking.—Albert Nichols, Winfield, Kan.

Three hundred thousand dollars for Foreign Missions by September 30, 1906, is the smallest amount we can afford to ask. We must go forward. The day of opportunity is upon us. There is every reason why we should give more, and not one why we should be satisfied with past achievements. May the Lord help us to quit ourselves like men.—E. B. Barnes, Noblesville, Ind.

What are so few dollars among so many people! Three hundred thousand dollars for 1,233,000 members to contribute. A pittance for each to give. What are so few dollars among so many people! Three hundred thousand dollars for 800,000,000 perishing, lost ones. We ought to ask at least one dollar per member. We will do our part. Yours for $300,000.—S. A. Nesbit, Napa, Cal.

Unquestionably our country stands before the world to-day "A light unto the nations." This is true industrially, commercially, intellectually, and in a large measure politically. Shall we let the church cast a shadow? Surely this is a day of opportunity and we must go forward heroically. Three hundred thousand dollars for Foreign Missions this year will shine. A smaller amount will shade.—Oliver Cook, Columbus, Kan.

We can not overestimate the importance of this undertaking to raise $300,000 for Foreign Missions by September 30, 1906. I regard it as a call from the Master to which we must all respond heartily and cheerfully. It means the deepening of our spiritual life; a new emphasis on the real mission of the church; a new meaning to world-wide missionary effort, and helps us to place a true value upon the prosperity of our times.—Thos. J. Shuey, Abingdon, Ill.

The demand for $300,000 for Foreign Missions by September 30, 1906, is one of the surest indications that we are in a healthy condition. Our vision is being broadened so that we see Jesus more clearly, and this means to see the world as He sees it. With our growth has come increased responsibility. So great are the needs this year that $300, 000 seems small. Great gifts from a great brotherhood for holy interests should be our program this year.—F. L. Moffett, Centerville, Iowa.

Most certainly do I plead for an enlargement in our Foreign Missionary work. Three hundred thousand dollars by October 1, 1906! It is an inspiring note. Let it go forth as a trumpet call to larger things. Three hundred thousand dollars is not a great sum for a million and a half of disciples of Christ to raise. O, if only all would give! Let the preachers preach missions in every sermon. Let them work and plan and pray and the money will be raised.—Walter Scott Priest, Columbus, O.

We must raise $300,000 for Foreign Missions next year by all means. Not only do the fields abroad need that amount, but the churches at home are in need of the blessings that will come to them as a result of the gift. I hardly know which need is the greater. The church that makes a worthy offering for Foreign Missions enriches herself quite as much as it does the community where it preaches the Gospel by the offering made. Yours truly,—L. E. Chase, Arming-ton, Ill.

The standard "three hundred thousand dollars for Foreign Missions by September 30, 1906," is too small considering our numbers and the blessings we receive from doing large things for the Lord. The only way to have a spirit filled, and a mission filled congregation is to preach and do great things for foreign missions. The more we do and teach for this cause the more prosperous will be the work at home. May great success attend our efforts.—J. T. Stone, Dixon, Ill.

While we are all rejoicing over the increased efforts put forth in the last missionary year, yet the fact remains that as a people we have only been skirting the shore of our responsibility; the command comes to "launch out in the deep." God help us this year to pull down our little standards of duty and build greater. May those churches who have helped in this work do better, and those who have not, swing into line. Yours for $300,000 for Foreign Missions in 1906.—Geo. W. Brewster, Healdsburg.

Our possibilities are limitless because the Kingdom of God is within us. We have not yet "stretched" forward in the "Go" of Jesus. Three hundred thousand dollars for Foreign Missions by September 30, 1906, is the least possible sum in keeping with our dignity, and the place we occupy in the world's evangelism. Our resources and responsibilities demand more. I am with you in the race. The goal is possible. Let every Disciple of Christ measure himself in the advance. God is leading. Victory is sure.—LeGrand Pace, Onawa, Iowa.

God has called us to manhood and manly duties, and let us hasten to "put away childish things," such as trifling with the most urgent appeal of the New Testament. The question of giving $300,000 for Foreign Missions in 1906 is not one of possibility so much as desirability on the part of the church members. We can—we must. Let us blush, asking God's pardon for offering so little, rather than stand hesitant with questionings, surmisings, and fear at such a possible undertaking. Yours for $300,000 for Foreign Missions in 1906.—F. W. Sumner, Greensburg, Ind.

1. Three hundred thousand dollars in 1906 would be the natural and expected increase above the present happy, successful year. 2. It is possible through the growing gifts of individuals and churches. "Each year a little more," is absolutely essential to the health and happiness of our souls. 3. The supreme consideration to me is that nothing less will please God. We, as a people, have always been, and always must be, responsive to the will of God. "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" is no better for the "first principles of the gospel," than for "going on to perfection."—T. S. Tinsley, Louisville, Ky.

Your editorial "A New Era," in the October number has taken me to the Mount of Transfiguration. Under the spell of its glorious news my conception of the missionary enterprise is enlarged. Three hundred thousand dollars in 1906! Too large do you say? Verily when we regard the height to which this work has been brought, the past is too glorious for little things now. Such an undertaking impresses us that "we are doing a great work," and the Saballats of indifference and opposition can not entice us to the plain of Ono. Nor can we estimate the mighty advance given to the kingdom of our Lord in all the world. A great people ought to do great things for a great King.—Howard J. Brazelton, Earlington, Ky.

The logical, reasonable and necessary thing to do this missionary year is to put $300,000 at the command of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society. It is logical because it is "the next thing;" to do otherwise would be taking a backward step. It is reasonable because we are so abundantly able to do it. The Lord has intrusted much of his substance to us. It is necessary because the harvest is waiting, and the "Go ye" of the Master is sounding in our ears. If we had three hundred thousand disciples completely dominated by the love of their Lord, three times three hundred thousand dollars would be sent up, and our leaders in this work would have the thrilling experience of crying, "It is enough!"—W. N. Briney, Broadway Christian Church, Louisville, Ky.

We have come to expect growth and enlargement in our Foreign Missionary work, and we expect it every year. We would be disappointed if it was not attained. If our people are to feel the flow and movement of responsibility we must set before them such a task as will command effort and sacrifice by them. I am with you most heartily in the effort for $300,000 in 1906. We are glad to have a new watchword. The old one is too much worn to be renewed, and brethren, let us spend only one year on this one. Do not say "We ought to raise $300,000," that will mean another "renewal." But if we say "It must be done, the needs of the work demand it, the development of the churches demands it, love impels us to do it, we will do it." Then it will be done. It will be done.—G. B. Van Arsdall, Cedar Rapids, Ia.

GREAT REJOICING.

The following are a few expressions of congratulations and rejoicing we have received over passing the quarter of a million dollar mark:

I rejoice with you in the "Victory" for Foreign Missions.—M. E. Genge, Charles-town, Ind.

That was a glorious note of "Victory" you sounded. I rejoice with you and heartily congratulate you. Yours for $300,000 this year.—W. C. Prewitt, Wellsville, O.

A thousand congratulations upon your well-earned "Victory." The Lord is with us and will be more and more with us if we will only be more with Him.—J. H. Garrison.

I must say a word about our increase in Foreign Missions. I am very, very thankful for all the agencies which have entered into this advance. That $300,000 must be sought with heavenly diligence. Send more information to the people through the mail. Tie them on to the office in Cincinnati. Tie them on to the work and workers through your personal correspondence. You should use the preachers same as ever, though. The Lord grant you wisdom and grace and strength.—Wm. Ross Lloyd, Bloomington, Ill.

You have my congratulations upon the splendid record of last year.—J. A. Joyce, Pittsburg, Pa.

I congratulate you on raising the $250,000 for 1904-05. Go ahead.—W. J. Hudspeth, Hopkinsville, Ky.

I congratulate you upon your splendid year. May your largest hopes be realized.—M. E. Harlan, Brooklyn, N. Y.

I congratulate you upon the success of the work of the past year and wish for the continued prosperity of the Foreign Society.—President C. C. Rowleson, Hiram, O.

The announcement of your great victory reached me on the last mail. I congratulate you heartily upon leading our people into such great things.—Herbert Moninger, Steubenville, O.

I think the reaching of the $250,000 is the most magnificent victory in the whole history of our brotherhood. But we must do better. How may I help you?—G. W. Knepper, Somerset, Pa.

I greatly rejoice with you and all whose hearts are glad for the splendid report for the year. I join in prayer and effort to realize the new goal of $300,000.—E. Lynwood Crystal, Baton Rouge, La.

Congratulations on the great success of the year in the Foreign Society's work. May God continue his richest blessing in the months to come, and may the generosity of our great brotherhood continue to grow.—John P. Sala, Elyria, Ohio.

I want to congratulate you on your splendid achievement in reaching the quarter of a million for the Foreign Society. I believe you can easily reach $300,000 next year, which is a very small sum for our people to give for world-wide missions.—G. W. Muckley, Kansas City, Mo.

I greatly rejoice with you in the victory of the past year—$250,000 for Foreign Missions—and I bow humbly before the great Giver and say, "Praise ye the Lord." The new watchword is O. K., and I will do what I can to have the Badger State do her just share of the work of raising the sum.—H. F. Barstow, Ladysmith, Wis.

Your letter bearing the inspiring news of $255,922 raised for Foreign Missions just received. How grateful we should be over such a victory and yet how thoughtful we should act in the light of the great responsibility resting upon each disciple as respects the future possibility of our plea. Could we only measure up to our ability in the evangelization of the world.—Ernest O. Mobley, Weatherford, Tex.

The good news printed on our second page, under the title "Victory," will gladden the host of friends and supporters of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society who have been praying and hoping that the quarter of a million mark should be reached before the close of the missionary year. Their prayers are answered, and their suspense relieved. The total receipts for the year ending September 30th, were $255,922.51, a handsome passing of the goal. The call for $300,000 is no extravagant rally-cry, and requires an increase of only a little over 17 per cent.—Christian Standard.

Your announcement of victory in this week's papers is certainly inspiring. The profound thankfulness, the ringing enthusiasm, and the genuine optimism of that note will live forever in the hearts of your readers. Breathes there a man with soul so dead that he can not be stirred with the triumphant notes of this victory, and the glorious prophecy and promise of still greater triumphs? The dawn of the day of great things is past; the noon-day splendor of that day is upon us. Three hundred thousand dollars by September 30, 1906! By all means. The vision of the Christless millions, the enthusiasm of our noble secretaries, and, above all, "God working with us," will bring about that glorious result. Yes, we shall surpass that, for the momentum of this victory will carry us far beyond that mark. This victory proves that great things, undertaken in faith, and supported by prayer, can be done. By this victory faith has been rewarded, unselfishness justified, and thousands of hearts cheered. This is the highest summit of missionary liberality that we have reached, but, thank God, it is not the highest to be reached. This time next year we shall stand higher than we do to-day. May God help us to do greater things each year.—Cecil J. Armstrong, Winchester, Ky.

The report of Committee on Africa was read by T. J. Legg, and is as follows:

Our African mission is located in that portion of the western equatorial region known as the Congo Free State. It includes the great basin of the Congo River, and has an estimated area of more than one million square miles, i. e., it is about one-third the size of the United States, or about twenty-five times the size of the State of Indiana. The Congo River is the second longest river in the world, being about 3,000 miles in length and very wide. It is navigable for ocean steamers about one hundred miles from its mouth, and for smaller steamers about seventy miles further. Then there is a section about 240 miles in length that is not navigable at all because of numerous cataracts. Above this point, which is known as Stanley Pool, it is again navigable for about one thousand miles. It has numerous tributaries, which are also serviceable as highways of travel and commerce. Nearly all kinds of tropical fruits grow in abundance. Besides these, the country affords numerous articles of commerce.

The population is estimated to be about forty million. The people belong to what is called the Bantu race. They are a happy, inoffensive people naturally, not so dark as the Fan or Ethiopian. They are split up into numerous tribal communities, each speaking a different dialect of what appears to be a common language, which, however, has never been committed to writing, save in recent years at the hands of the missionaries. Their religion is mainly fetichism.

When Stanley stood at the mouth of the Congo in 1879, ready to begin his work of treaty-making, on behalf of the International African Association, he wrote the following declaration of purpose, "to ascend the river with the noble mission of sowing along its banks, civilize the settlements, to peacefully conquer and subdue it, to remold it in harmony with modern ideas, into national states, within those limits the European merchant shall go hand in hand with the dark African trader, and justice, law, and order shall prevail, and murder and lawlessness, and the cruel barter of slaves shall forever cease." This was the dream of the Christian explorer. Recently the British consul, Mr. Roger Casement, after visiting the country, wrote, "I must confess with pain and astonishment, I felt that I was visiting a penal settlement."

It is encouraging to know that efforts are being made to correct these wrongs. The British Parliament has taken the matter up and asked for the intervention of the Powers signatory to the Berlin agreement. The attention of the President and Congress of the United States has been called to the situation and a memorial has been presented. The Congo Reform Association, with headquarters in Boston, is organized for the express purpose of awakening public sentiment and arousing our government to lend its aid toward correcting these barbarous outrages.

Following immediately in the wake of Stanley's discoveries, missionaries penetrated the Congo Districts. In 1890 there were four societies prosecuting active work in Central Africa. The American Baptists, The English Baptists, the Swedish Society, and the Congo Balolo Society. In a short time the American Presbyterians, the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the International Missionary Alliance entered the field. The Roman Catholics have opened six stations. Thus, it may be said the work of evangelizing the country had been inaugurated before the Disciples entered it at all; but there was plenty of room still left, and an urgent demand for many more workers. And so, in 1897, the Foreign Christian Missionary Society decided to send out some representatives to this field. Mr. E. E. Faris and Dr. Harry N. Biddle were appointed to undertake the difficult task of planting the mission. More than a year was consumed in an effort to locate a station. In the course of the year Dr. Biddle died, but Mr. Faris, undaunted, pursued his task alone. At last, a station was obtained from the Baptists, they transferring the same with all its property to the Foreign Christian Missionary Society for less than half cost. It is located at Bolengi, on the upper Congo, about seven hundred miles from the mouth of the river, directly on the Equator. The town itself is not important, having a population of only about 450; but it is the center of a district where about 10,000 people reside and where no other missionaries are at work. The nearest out-station is some fifty miles above; and one could travel 2,000 miles into the interior without meeting a single missionary. Most of the towns of the district had never been visited when Mr. Faris began work there. As soon as possible after the death of Dr. Biddle, the Society sent out Dr. and Mrs. Royal J. Dye.

In 1901, Dr. and Mrs. Layton were sent out to have charge of the medical work during the time that Dr. and Mrs. Dye were home on furlough. Mr. Faris has also been home since he went to the field, but returned with his bride in the spring of 1902. The following autumn, Mr. R. R. Eldred and his wife went out to have special charge of the industrial department. The work is divided into four departments, viz.: Evangelistic, educational, medical, and industrial. A church has been organized, every member of which has been a tithe-giver from the first. Evangelistic work is carried on both by the missionaries and by native evangelists; and extended trips into the regions around are regularly made. The gospel is cordially welcomed, and the missionaries are entreated to remain in the villages which they visit. The school is a most encouraging feature of the work, and is maintained by the assistance of the women of the station, all of whom are competent and efficient teachers. The medical department has from the beginning proven invaluable, both as a means of spreading the gospel and preserving the lives and health of the missionaries. A free daily clinic has been maintained from the time of the arrival of Dr. Dye. It is attended by a great many people, and their various diseases are treated successfully. Being a simple and superstitious people, they often regard the cures wrought by the missionaries as miracles, and report them far and wide.

The industrial department is indispensable. It is no small task to keep the buildings in repair. The natives have to be taught the use of tools. Mr. Eldred, who has charge of this work, has proven himself to be especially adapted to it. He maintains a regular force of native workmen. He keeps the buildings in repair and builds new ones. He has invented a machine for making brick, and at last report had made ten thousand. Under his supervision, the gardens are cared for, and the grass kept mown, which is a great gain to the health of the missionaries. But this is by no means all that he does. He teaches his men who work for him and preaches the gospel to them. He has made several extended evangelistic trips into distant villages, and everywhere his message was received with delight. He is able to attend the daily clinic and administer medicines when Dr. Dye is prevented from attending to it himself. During four and a half months after Dr. Layton left the station, and before Dr. Dye returned, Mr. Eldred treated 2,073 cases successfully. He does not pretend to be a doctor, but possesses a knowledge of medicine which is sufficient to treat such cases as come to him.

The work grows steadily. During the past year the material equipment has been considerably improved. The activity of the native church is very gratifying. There are ten native evangelists at work. They visited the villages along the Bosira River, and returning at the end of ten weeks, reported an increasing interest on the part of the people in the things taught. The tribal chiefs were notably anxious to learn. The Commissaire of the district said that he had been up the Bosira River for ninety hours in a steamer, and that on all this river and its branches, some of which are navigable, there is not a single Protestant mission station. This is not the only opening presented to our missionaries in the Congo country, but it is the largest. The station is sadly in need of reinforcements. Dr. Layton, as you know, did not return to Africa. Mr. Faris and his wife have been compelled to return to this country, and Mr. and Mrs. Eldred are entitled to a furlough next year. To maintain the work already begun, and to enter the open doors that present themselves on ever side, some new workers should be sent to this benighted country. Your committee therefore urge the careful consideration of the needs of this field and as soon as possible the sending of at least one man to have special charge of the evangelistic department.

We also recommend the establishment of a new station on the Bosira River, at the earliest practicable moment. Also that, if feasible, in the judgment of the Foreign Board, an unmarried lady be sent to supplement or assist the wives of the missionaries in the educational work in the station already established. The report of Committee on Missionary Intelligencer.

Your Committee on "The Missionary Intelligencer," the magazine issued monthly by the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, feels that the time has come for pastors and church leaders to urge a more general and generous support of this monthly, for the following reasons:

1. The churches need pertinent and definite information to arouse and sustain missionary interest. In the magazine of our Foreign Society, we read the discussion of problems by our own brethren fresh from the conflict, we become acquainted with their names, their stations, and fields; month by month through its personal letters from missionaries on the field we note the progress, hard won, by our home companies.

2. While there are those who will read widely, most of our members will read brief articles with attractive headlines, comparative statements, and turn to find their church's standing in the financial column. The Missionary Intelligencer is admirably adapted for this larger circle of readers, and many thus interested, will seek more extended information.

3. The literary and mechanical features of our periodical and its size compare favorably with those of magazines issued by leading denominations.

4. The offer of the Foreign Board to furnish this monthly to individual addresses for the nominal price of fifty cents a year, should be a challenge to every pastor to co-operate with them in an earnest effort to place the Missionary Intelligencer in thousands of our homes.

Let the value of this magazine be set before the church by the minister, and a thorough canvass for subscriptions be inaugurated.

THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

A peculiar interest centers in the Thirtieth Annual Report of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society. Three decades of uninterrupted growth of our work in the regions beyond must have a deep significance for all our people. We can hardly appreciate the present magnitude, it has grown so rapidly.

The past year has been by far the greatest in all our history. The reports from the mission fields, the large number of new missionaries sent forth, and the phenomenal increase in the receipts, all combine to make the year memorable.

Not only have the receipts gone far beyond former years, but the percentage of increase has been surprisingly large. The increase has been larger than the total receipts in 1885, or twenty years ago. The total receipts reached $255,922.51, or a gain of $44,603.91, more than 20 per cent.

Income.—The following table shows the sources of income and the total receipts for the year ending September 30th, 1905, as compared with the preceding year:

FINANCIAL EXHIBIT FOR THE YEAR.

	1904.	1905.	Gain
Number of Contributing Churches.....	2,915	2,834	*81
Number of Contributing Sunday-schools....	3,532	3,552	20

Number of Individual Offerings.....	943	1,561	618
Amount	$211,318 60	$255,922 51	$44,603 91

* Loss.

Comparing the receipts from different sources shows the following:

	1904.	1905.	Gain
Churches	$89,545 01	$95,500 84	$5,955 83
Sunday-schools	56,832 47	61,817 60	4,985 13
C. E. Societies.....	9,368 24	10,873 08	1,504 84
Individual Offerings.....	16,154 28	38,387 54	22,233 26
Miscellaneous	13,443 39	19,018 32	5,574 93
Annuities	24,886 62	25,225 50	338 88
Bequests	1,088 59	5,099 63	4,011 04

Gain in regular receipts, $40,253.99; gain in annuities, $338.88; gain in bequests, $4,011.04.

What is especially gratifying is the large increase in the regular receipts.

Regular Offerings.—The gifts from the churches, Sunday-schools, Endeavor Societies, and individuals we denominate regular offerings. These are our regular reliance for the support of the work. They show a very decided advance during the year just past. The total number of offerings from these sources is 8,747, an increase of 1,619, or more than 18 per cent.

Church Offerings.—The study of the financial exhibit will reveal the following facts: The churches gave $95,500.84, an increase of $5,955.83, or 6½ per cent. The churches averaged $33.69, an increase of $2.87 per church. An ever-increasing number take a just pride in reaching their apportionment. Last year 912 churches reached the Roll of Honor, that is, raised the amount suggested. This is a gain over the previous year of fifty.

Let us bear constantly in mind that missions is the primary work of every true Church of Christ. This is not something desirable to do nor an expediency, but it is the chief and most important duty. Indeed it is the reason for the church's very existence. For this purpose the church was organized, and for this purpose the Holy Spirit was sent. Participation in this world-wide enterprise is a mark of true discipleship. We must do this work not only for our own sakes, but for the sake of our faith. Perpetual propagation is the test of the genuineness of Christianity. We need to study afresh the New Testament as it relates to this subject, and our duty will stand out in a new and stronger light. And above all, we need a new vision of God and the world's lost condition. We should remind ourselves that a lack of the missionary spirit in our churches will prove the death of the special plea we make.

GROWTH ILLUSTRATED.

The following diagram illustrates the growth of the receipts of the Foreign Society during its thirty years' history.

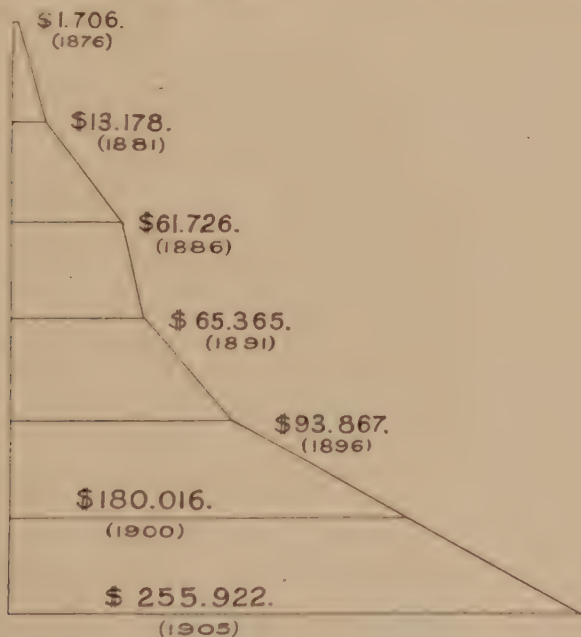

Diagram showing gains in receipts from the first.

The Children and Missions.—Our Sunday-school hosts can always be relied upon to do a creditable part. Their offerings this year have exceeded all that have gone before. It will be noted they gave $61,817.60, an increase over the year before of $4,985.13. The schools that observed Children's Day did well indeed. They are to be congratulated. The number on the Roll of Honor this year is 1,265. The Roll of Honor schools embrace those that raised their full apportionment. The One Dollar League continues to grow in interest and in numbers. The number of children that raised one dollar or more is about 12,000. A large number also gave or raised five dollars each. A Five Dollar League has been organized in some schools, and they promise a large advance for Children's Day in 1906. We renew the effort this year to reach $75,000 from the Sunday-schools on Children's Day. This ought to be done. It must be done if we even approximate our duty. And it will require at least this amount from the children if we raise $300,000. We now set our mark at an increase of 500 contributing schools this year. This is a reasonable increase in view of the opportunities before us. The Children's Day Exercise will again be prepared by Prof. P. H. Duncan, and the title is, "Arise, Shine." It will be ready in good time. The prospects are bright for large things in the Sunday-schools.

Christian Endeavor Societies.—Our young people did well to give $10,873.08, an increase of $1,504.84. The orphanage work at Damoh, India, appeals to them with great force. This is one of the strongest agencies we have for the redemption of India. We ask our societies for $15,000 during the year before us. They are able to give this amount. We believe they will heartily undertake the task. During the year unusual interest was taken in the Mission Study Classes. About 100 such classes were organized. They have done much to spread information and awaken a larger interest. No society should be without this valuable means of systematic mission study.

College in Japan.—Early in the year, R. A. Long, of Kansas City, Mo., proposed to give $5,000 for a Female Christian College in Tokio, Japan, upon the condition that $15,000 additional was secured. Through his generous offer a widespread interest was generated. The whole amount secured is $23,243. Japan has long been calling for this institution. We are glad to report that work is in progress at last. The school has been opened in rented buildings. Real estate has been secured and proper buildings will be erected at an early date.

Individual Offerings.—The individual offerings surpassed our most sanguine expectations. The magnificent sum of $38,387.54, a gain of $22,223.26, or 137½ per cent, was received. A special effort was made during the year to secure personal gifts and the good results are most gratifying. We had set our mark at $25,000 from this source. It will be seen this sum was exceeded by $13,387.54. We hope to secure $50,000 from this source this year. The number of personal gifts is 1,561, a gain of 618, or 41 per cent. The average gifts this year were $24.59. Let it be remembered that while the first Sunday in February is Christian Endeavor Day, and the first Sunday in March is the time for the churches to make their offerings, and the first Sunday in June is Children's Day, that every day in the year is the time for personal gifts. We ask the co-operation of friends in reaching $50,000 this year in personal offerings.

Average Offerings.—The following is a statement of comparative average offerings.

	1904.	1905.	Gain.
Average Offering of the Churches.....	$30 82	$33 69	$2 87
Average Offering of the Sunday-schools.....	16 09	17 40	1 31
Average Offering of the Endeavor Societies.....	13 75	13 59	* 16
Average Offering of Personal Friends.....	17 13	24 59	7 46

* Loss.

Bequests.—During the year the following amounts have been received from bequests:

Estate of Eunice T. Harrison, Painesville, O.....	$45 99
Estate of Maria A. Wright, Greeley, Ia.....	200 00
Estate of R. B. Cole, Mesquite, Tex.....	100 00
Estate of B. L. Woodruff, Waynesburg, Pa.....	1,000 00
Estate of Bella Sinclair, Guelph, Ont.....	100 00
Estate of Mrs. T. Rosser, Alpin, Ont.....	50 00
Estate of Melvina Martin, Chase, Kans.....	218 48
Estate of Mrs. S. E. Johnston, Dallas, Tex.....	3,343 76
Estate of Sarah H. Campbell, Teegarden, O.....	26 40
Estate of Althea C. Weaver, Croton, O.....	15 00
Total	$5,099 63

We do not receive enough from this source. A larger number of Christian people should remember this cause in their last will and testament. Our ministers can do much to awaken interest along this line. We hope they will call attention to the subject from their pulpits at least once each year. During the past thirty years the Foreign Society has received only $125,048.70 from bequests. We ought to receive at least this much every year from this source.

Living-Links.—There has been an unprecedented interest in the Living-Link plan during the year. We are glad to report twenty-four new Living-Links. These churches, with the combined offering of the Sunday-schools and Endeavor Societies, support a missionary on the foreign field by giving $600. It will be remembered their gifts go to support a particular missionary, with whom they correspond and from whom they may receive reports. Such missionaries constitute a living-link between the church at home and the great heathen field. Sometimes a group of churches in a given county combine their gifts in the support of a missionary. The following is a list of the Living-Links that have been enrolled during the past year, together with the name of the missionary supported on the field:

Annuities.—Our Annuity Fund continues to grow. During the year $25,225.50 has been added to this fund. This makes a total of $225,935.62 received for this fund since it was started in 1897. Of this amount, $163,005.49 has been invested in lands and buildings on the foreign field, and $24,930.13 is now safely invested; and the remaining $38,000 has been transferred to the General Fund. When annuitants die, the amount relieved from further interest is transferred to the General Fund. The following statement gives the receipts and expenses of the Annuity Fund for the year ending September 30th, 1905:

Interest Received on Annuity Funds Invested.....	$1,308 83
Amount Given Back by Annuitants.....	2,355 46

Amount paid annuitants, less interest on amount invested in lands and buildings on the mission fields.....	884 94

Profits of the Fund.....	$6,479 35
--------------------------	------------

It can readily be seen that this fund is a great auxiliary of our work. We earnestly hope that our preachers and other leaders will aid us in presenting its advantages to hundreds who are in a position to use it to their advantage as well as for the advancement of the Lord's cause. One of our most pressing needs now is real estate in the different mission fields. Real estate is advancing in value everywhere. What we can now secure at a reasonable figure will soon be worth much more. The Annuity Fund helps us in acquiring property.

Stephen J. Corey.

A New Secretary.—Stephen J. Corey has been engaged as Secretary. He began his services July 1st. This important step has been unanimously recommended by the National Convention more than once. He has been in the service of the New York Christian Missionary Society since 1903. For some years friends of the Foreign Society have felt that the growth of its work demands more force. More than one-half of our membership is yet asleep. All must be aroused. Mr. Corey has a consuming missionary enthusiasm. He is scholarly, a clear and forceful writer, a strong and popular speaker, a hard worker, and his characteristic good judgment and poise make him especially fitted for his new duties. We congratulate the churches upon their good fortune in securing his services.

A New Era.—The past history of the Society is glorious. The work has grown so constantly and rapidly that we hardly appreciate its present magnitude. But we have come to a new era. Our people are restless for larger things. They will undertake greater things for the future. Hundreds of churches and individuals will soon be supporting a missionary each. The preachers and church officers as leaders will set high standards. Men of wealth will rise up and give their hundreds where they now give tens, and thousands where they now give hundreds. More parents will give their children to the mission fields. Colleges will take a larger interest. And we face a new period on the mission fields of the world. In less than a decade the missionary geography everywhere has been changed. No greater changes for good have been seen in the world's history. We are in a new fullness of time. The new claims made upon us are doubly strong.

New Missionaries.—Sixteen new workers have been added to the force in the fields. H. C. Saum and wife, D. O. Cunningham and wife, and Miss Olive Griffith have gone to India; C. T. Paul and wife and Alexander Paul and wife have gone to China; Bruce L. Kershner and wife have gone to the Philippines; J. C. Ogden and wife have gone to Tibet; Miss Stella Lewis to Japan; Mark S. Peckham to Cuba; and A. F. Hensey to Africa. These workers are well equipped for the service. Those who know them best certify to their ability, education, and devotion. It is gratifying to be able to send so large a number in one year; but in view of the needs of the fields and the urgent calls, we may well ask, "What are these among so many?" If we could have sent ten times as many we would not have filled the places where the need is greatest.

Changes in the Force.—Miss Mildred Franklin resigned on account of poor health and came home. Miss Carme Hostetter was married to a man not in our mission and resigned. Although she will not work any longer under the auspices of the Society, she will use her influence for the advancement of the Lord's cause in the Sunrise Kingdom. The Committee is distressed when any missionary finds it necessary to give up the work in the field, but does not despair. Each year sees a net increase in the number of missionaries. Each year new fields are entered. The work grows like a banyan tree, whose branches take roots and spread forth constantly. Individuals come and go, but the Lord lives and reigns and makes all things work according to the counsel of his own will.

Missionary Intelligence.—The Executive Committee has carried on a vigorous campaign of education. The Missionary Intelligencer and The Missionary Voice have been published regularly and widely circulated. Special pains have been taken to make these publications as interesting and as helpful as possible. A copy of Mr. John R. Mott's great book entitled, "The Pastor and Modern Missions," was sent to three thousand ministers of the gospel. Fifteen hundred copies of "Sunrise in the Sunrise Kingdom" were sold. Missionary classes were organized and missionary libraries were introduced. Leaflets without number were sent out. Missionary rallies were held in many important centers. The officers of the Society have visited conventions and churches and have done what they could to press the claims of this cause home to the hearts and consciences of the brethren everywhere.

Enlargement.—The Lathrop Cooley Bible College in Jubbulpore, India, has increased its attendance. Six stations are represented in the student body. A Mission Press has been installed in Jubbulpore. This was paid for by Lathrop

Lathrop Cooley,

Who gave $5,000 for the work in India; and in other years gave $5,000 for the work in Honolulu and $5,000 for the work in the Philippines.

Cooley and bears his honored name. A ten-page weekly paper is published in Hindi. The purpose of this paper is to inform the churches and the public concerning the progress of the work, and to bind the Christians together in closer and stronger ties. A building that is to serve as a school and chapel has been erected in Hatta. Two new stations have been opened in China; one in Tung Cheo, and the other in Po Chow. The Science Hall of the College in Nanking has been finished and dedicated. The main building of Drake College in Tokio, Japan, has been completed. This building has been pronounced the finest college building in the Orient. The Woman's College has been opened in rented rooms. The Mission is arranging to buy land and is also planning to build. Two chapels have been built in Japan in the year; one in Sendai, and one in Fukushima. Dr. Shelton and Dr. Rijnhart have opened a dispensary, a hospital, and a school on the borders of Tibet. They preach the gospel to all who are willing to hear, and observe the Lord's Supper every week. A new station has been opened at Vigan, in the Philippines. Two schools have begun work in Cuba; one in Havana, and one in Matanzas. In Honolulu a chapel has been erected for the Lathrop Cooley Mission. The missionary in charge did most of the carpenter work with his own hands. Ten evangelists are supported by the church in Bolengi, Africa. They go up and down the river and along its navigable affluents and preach the gospel of God's love and grace to people that have been living all their lives in ignorance and sin.

Open Doors.—China is willing to hear as never before. The authorities have changed their attitude towards the Christian propaganda. The Empress Dowager has contributed liberally to the mission hospital in Peking and to the Red Cross Society. The people are eager for Western learning. They can not get that without at the same time getting a pretty thorough knowledge of the Christian religion. The war between Russia and Japan has fallen out for the furtherance of the gospel. The sympathy of the English-speaking peoples with the Japanese in their struggle for national existence, has already wrought wonders. What has been done is a prophecy of larger and better things in the future. More than once the missionaries were told that when the war was over they could have whatever they wished. In Japan and in Korea and in Manchuria missionary opportunities are beyond all precedent. There is no limit to the need in India. The calls for men and means are numerous and urgent. Ethiopia is stretching out her hands towards God. As the missionaries go about on their evangelistic tours the people say to them, "Come and live with us and teach us the words of God." They offer to give them land and to erect buildings for them, if only they will live among them and teach them. The Filipinos are willing to hear and to accept the gospel of the glory of the blessed God. The magnificent prophecy of the olden time is being fulfilled. "Every valley shall be filled, every mountain and hill shall be brought low; the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places smooth, and all flesh shall see the salvation of our God, for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

Growing Interest.—There are unmistakable evidences of a growing interest in this department of the Lord's work. The colleges are placing Missions in the regular courses of study. The attention of every student is being directed to this subject. The papers are giving more space to Missions in their columns. The editors are constantly putting more emphasis on this Divine enterprise. More books are bought and read and studied. Hundreds of churches are ambitious to support their own workers on the field. The average offering is larger than ever before. More churches are giving a thousand dollars each than gave a hundred dollars twenty-five years ago. The interest in Missions is extending itself in ever-deepening and ever-widening circles. Even now there is no cause for boasting or for satisfaction. Out of eleven thousand churches only three thousand have any fellowship with Christ in his efforts to give the gospel to the non-Christian nations. We shall not be able to say that we are doing our whole duty till every church and every member of every church shall give in proportion to the ability that God has given. While there is no room for boasting, still less is there for discouragement. We are surely living in the dawn of a better day. It is for us to take heart and hope and make our influence felt in every corner of this round globe. If every minister and elder among us had the missionary passion in his own heart, this would soon be the case.

The Supreme Need.—The greatest need of the Society is the need of suitable men. Now, as in our Lord's time, "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few." Volunteers who are thoroughly equipped for the service are very scarce. The Society has been looking for medical men for India and for China for three years. Thus far these vacancies have not been filled. Several evangelists are needed. The harvest was never before so plenteous and so ripe. The need before was never so great. We are taught to pray the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest. It may be that the dearth of suitable men is the direct result of our failure to offer this prayer. We pray for almost everything else, and we lose sight of this the one specific thing for which we are taught to pray. If the churches will agree in asking for suitable men in sufficient numbers, their prayer will be heard and answered, and the men needed will be forthcoming.

Nothing so Costly as Success.—The friends and supporters of the work should know and remember that nothing is so costly as success. A work that is dying or dead needs but little. In any case it calls for no increase in expenditures on its behalf. But a work that is alive and growing makes incessant and importunate demands. Every new station opened requires men and buildings and other equipment. These new demands should not be ignored; they should not be heard with regret on our part. They should be music in our ears. They indicate that the Lord's cause is flourishing, and that he needs some of his own silver and gold to defray the necessary expenses. These new demands should be joyfully and liberally met. Otherwise the work will suffer, and we will suffer because of our refusal to do what we are well able to do.

Answers to Prayer Calls to Sacrifice.—We have been beseeching God to show us our duty. We have been asking that the doors so long closed might be opened. We have been praying for the success of the work in which we are engaged. He has answered these petitions. He has shown us what our duty is. Our attention has been called to the great commission. We know that this gospel of the kingdom is to be preached in the whole world, for a testimony to all the nations. We know that those who have been saved are to be the heralds of salvation. Great and effectual doors are open on all sides. Around every station there is work enough for a score of agents. The cause we represent has been abundantly prospered. We are not rolling a stone up a hill to have it roll back again upon us. We are not engaged in an impossible enterprise. The Lord has rewarded our efforts and has thus encouraged us to enlarge the place of our tent, to lengthen our cords, and to strengthen our stakes. These answers to believing prayer are calls to sacrifice. He has done for us far more than we dared to ask or even hope. It is for us to show ourselves worthy of the confidence reposed in us. Thus far it can hardly be said that we have made any sacrifice for the support of world-wide evangelism. It may be that a few churches and a few individuals have given till their giving amounted to sacrifice, but this can not be affirmed of the great majority. The average offering in the United States for Foreign Missions is twenty-nine cents a year. As long as we are giving twenty-nine cents or less it can hardly be claimed that we are making sacrifices for the sake of the gospel.

The Lord Working with Us.—This is his work, and he is doing it. His method is to do it through his people. Christ alone saves the world; but Christ can not save the world alone. He intended that the church, which he purchased with his own blood, should be a light to the nations, that it might be for his salvation to all the ends of the earth. The means used are supplied by him. He gives the increase. If we will do our part success is assured. If we sow bountifully, we shall reap also bountifully. He is able to make all grace abound unto us, that we always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound unto every good work.

The Dead.—The following have been called to higher scenes and nobler activities: Thomas E. Bondurant, of Illinois; Howard Cale, John Dalman, and Mrs. Jemima E. Scott, of Indiana; Mrs. Levi Marshall, of Missouri; A. J. Marvin, J. B. Knowles, F. H. Simpson, H. U. White, Mrs. J. F. Davis, James Leslie, and Henry C. White, of Ohio; and John Kirkpatrick, of Pennsylvania. These were all ardent friends of the Society and deeply interested in its work. James Leslie was one of the charter members, and for many years served on the Executive Committee. Howard Cale was the President of the Board of Ministerial Relief, but his large heart embraced the whole wide world. Thomas E. Bondurant manifested his interest by leaving a large share of his estate to the Society. Year by year the active supporters enter into the life that is life indeed. Others must take their places and bear their burdens; else the Lord's work will be hindered. It may be that others equally deserving of mention have died in the year, but if so their names have not been reported to the Society.

The Growth of the Society's Work.—The first year twenty churches contributed to the Society's funds. It was not till the second year that any Sunday-school made an offering for this purpose. The receipts for the first year amounted to only $1,706. Large offerings were not expected. Seven years after the Society was organized there was only one church giving as much as one hundred dollars. Now the contributing churches number nearly three thousand, and the contributing Sunday-schools number over three thousand five hundred. Thirty years ago we were not represented in any part of the world outside the United States and the British Empire. We are at work now in all parts of the world. We have flourishing stations in all the great mission fields. Our influence for good is felt in every corner of the habitable globe. There is a very widespread conviction that we are as yet in the initial stage of our missionary undertakings. We shall see far greater things than we have ever seen or dared to imagine. This year we are asking for three hundred thousand dollars. There is a feeling that we must raise half a million by the Centennial celebration in 1909. This is entirely feasible. Last year we made the greatest stride in advance in our history. It was done so easily that all are confident we can make a longer stride in advance this year. This not only can be done; it must be done. All around us there are similar gains. The colleges are increasing their endowments; other missionary organizations are receiving and expending larger amounts than ever before. The whole long line is advancing.

CHU CHEO.

W. R. Hunt.—The mission work has been steady, continuous, and encouraging. Never before were men and women so eager to know the truth. There seems to be an actual breaking away from idolatry. The splendid opportunities to preach Christ have been unceasingly utilized. In city, town, village, and hamlet our faithful evangelists have done loyal service. At the city church, Pastor Chen has done good work. The members trust him and admire him. He honors God in his life and ministry. The preachers studied well with me. Fourteen were added during the year and $119.44 was raised for all purposes.

Kwan Wei.—Evangelist Shi was sent to Po Chow to aid in opening the work. Evangelists Chao, Chen, and Tai will alternately minister at Kwan Wei while Shi is away. The church is prosperous and fruitful. The village work is encouraging. The members take part in evangelizing. The homes of the Christians are cleaner. Their children are happier. Church land and properties are rented to deserving Christians. Mrs. Shi has done a fine work telling the sweet gospel story in the villages.

Woo-Ee.—In this Mohammedan town much preaching has been done. Two men were baptized in the river before a large and orderly crowd. There has been daily preaching by Evangelist Tai. On market days the chapel is crowded. Many of the people confess that the idols are useless and want to know the new religion. During the big heathen carnival the evangelist prayed for rain, and the deluge came and scattered the processions. Many are ready for careful instruction here.

Chang-Bah-Ling.—This is the most hostile of all our out-stations. This Celestial Samaria is a wicked town. Its mandarins are vile. Some dozen believers live in the villages. Evangelist Woo-li-kwan is a consecrated man and does good service. The opposition is being gradually overcome. When these deluded people come to give as much homage to Jesus as they do to the pagan deities there will be some surprises.

In daily preaching, lantern lectures, conferences, meetings with the preachers, interchange of visits to stations, acts of kindness and deeds of heroism performed by the believers, and the practical demonstration of the real superiority of the Christian home over the low and debased life of the heathen, the light has been turned on to the darkness, and while revealing the utter failure of heathenism, has lifted up the living, loving, life-giving Christ and caused many to ask, "Is not this the Redeemer, the expected one?"

Dr. Elliott I. Osgood.—The dispensary has answered 2,800 calls for treatment. There have been over 100 in-patients, and thirty-eight operations. Opium breakers have followed one another in rapid succession. By saving the life of one boy who had contracted blood poisoning, we have led the family to a belief in Christ, and have the boy in our day school. Another with hip joint disease has become a believer. A third who has been treated for over a year is now a Christian. I prepared and read a paper before the Medical Missionary Association in Shanghai and prepared another for the Educational Conference.

The Tswein Dziao out-station has been steadily cared for. One month in the fall was spent with A. E. Cory itinerating through northern Anhwei and Honan. We found a large and needy field awaiting laborers. Our day school has been placed in charge of our personal teacher, who is now a Christian. There are twelve pupils. The school for young men opened last year has eight students. In addition to the Western studies they daily read and discuss the Scriptures. Each Sunday one hour is spent in papers prepared by them on religious topics. We have gained a decided influence in the new Western schools for children that are being opened through this region. In one of the best we do some teaching twice a week. This line of work has opened many new homes to Christian influence.

LU CHEO FU.

Dr. James Butchart.—First visits, 7,236; return visits, 7,686; total, 14,949; in-patients, 229; outcalls, 29; opium suicides, 57; received from fees and collections on the field, $1,443.71; spent for incidental running expenses, $1,489.72. The clinics this year show a small increase over last in the amount of money collected. The increase is largely due to the amount received for testing eyes. There have been no additions to the church from the hospital, though two of the patients are inquirers. Morning services and work in the wards have been kept up through the year. Sometimes the feeling of opposition was strong and there were many passive resisters, though many became willing, if not interested, hearers. In some instances the patients in the ward who were too sick to leave the room would turn their faces to the wall and pretend to be asleep. Political affairs of the world outside affect us here very markedly. First it was the report that America and England had consented to the division of China. Now it is the proposed boycotting of everything American to force a more liberal treaty than the present one based on the Exclusion Act. This year we have come somewhat in touch with many of the student classes through the testing of their eyes for glasses, the need of which they are just commencing to realize. The average attendance in the Sunday-school which was held in connection with Mr. Titus' work is about eighty. We have had valuable aid from Miss Favors, and look forward to the time when her period of study is over, when she can enter regularly upon the work. In thinking over the work of the year, steady hard work seems the only thing that is fixed in my mind. The one regret is the amount of work I did not get done. We pray for wisdom and strength to do better the work we have, and to see every new opportunity.

Mrs. Nellie D. Butchart.—The girl who was staying with me last year continued until March of this year, when she married and moved away from the city. I was sorry to lose her before she became a Christian, but I am praying that she will still study the Scriptures and strengthen her faith in the true God. I am now teaching four smaller girls from the same family, at the request of the mother. The eldest studies the Bible, and the three smaller ones are learning to sing simple songs. Another family has urged me to come often and tell them about the gospel. I have made many visits there. I have made a number of social calls, both upon ladies, and in the homes of the common people. Some two or three hundred women have called at our home, many out of curiosity to see the new house. To some it was useless to try to preach, while others would sit quietly and listen to the gospel stories. Up to the middle of May I made daily visits among the women patients of the hospital, talking with them and teaching. The Bible woman employed for this work is very faithful. The prayer meeting organized this year for the Christian women has been very helpful, as they did not attend the general prayer meeting before, and would have taken no part anyhow. Now they take part in leading, in exhortation, and in prayer. Since Mrs. Titus' departure, I have had charge of the Sunday meeting for women. Two or three Chinese Christian women and Mrs. McGinnis, a foreign resident here who is not connected with any mission, have helped me in this service. One woman by attending has become interested and wishes to become a Christian. I am now teaching her in private in order to help her better to understand the truths of the gospel.

Miss Alma Favors.—My principal work this year has been the study of the language. I am beginning to be able to speak. In the spring I attended a number of feasts and visited with Mrs. Butchart in the homes quite often, thus coming in touch with the people. This also has been a great help to me in the language. I had the privilege of making my first public effort to tell the dear old story to the women in our women's meeting last February. Since then I have spoken to them once again and have led Chinese prayers. During Mr. Titus' absence, the day school (now twelve boys) has been left in my charge. We have a daily morning service, besides the daily study of the Life of Christ. I have followed Mrs. Titus' custom of entertaining the children after their monthly examinations. We need a school for girls in Lu Cheo fu. We have so many bright, intelligent girls around us, willing and anxious to learn, and no one to teach them. The mothers often ask us to open a girls' school. We tell them of our Nankin girls' school, and ask them to send their daughters there. They generally reply, "If you would only open a school here we would give you our daughters. Nankin is too far away." I shall begin some regular work in the hospital this fall. This year I have had the oversight of the hospital during Dr. Butchart's absence from the station. I have assisted quite a little in the clinic and in the operating room. We have had some very interesting and successful operations. In my efforts to talk with the women in the ward, they have been sympathetic, kind, and helpful. The prospects for the new year are bright. This has been one of the most blessed years of my life.

Justin E. Brown.—I reached Nankin October 22, 1904, and met with a most cordial reception at the hands of our missionaries. I had hoped for much in my first acquaintance with China, and those hopes were more than realized. I spent two months in Nankin studying the language. Then an unexpected change in the plans of our mission led to my being sent at once to Lu Cheo fu, my permanent station, as I hope. Here again I was more than pleased with the place and the workers. This impressed me as a magnificent, though not an easy field. The people appear to be above the average in industry and intelligence and general character. They show more friendliness also. We are in touch with the best classes. My work has been mostly, of course, the study of the language. This was somewhat broken up by my moving to this place and by my being without any teacher for five weeks at the Chinese New Year season. Notwithstanding, I have had six months of hard study and work and am making progress slowly. Since the departure of C. B. Titus, I have had the work of treasurer of the church and of looking after the literature sold at the East Gate chapel. I have also gone irregularly with our Chinese evangelist to the daily services at that place. It has been my privilege to mingle with the athletic sports of the boys of the Lu Cheo fu College. I have had during the spring a Bible class among the English-speaking teachers, and have helped organize and conduct a Literary Society attended by students, teachers, and a number of progressive young men of the city. I am much pleased with the work thus far, and with the outlook for the future. I am grateful to our Lord for the privilege of being here.

C. B. Titus.—The day school is now taught by Tsiang Ting Yuen, a cousin of the former teacher, Tsiang Ting Pan, who has been advanced to the position of evangelist. Sixteen pupils are enrolled, and they paid 1,600 cash in tuition the first month. Miss Favors was selected by the station to superintend the school work in our absence. One pupil of last year, whose father is a Christian, was sent to Nanking Christian College this year. The school building continues to be used by Mrs. Titus for the women's meetings on Lord's Day afternoon, and special meetings during the Chinese New Year season. These meetings are growing in interest and regular attendance each year.

The street chapel work has been changeable, as to helpers, four different ones being tried in turn; but continuous as to preaching and selling tracts and Gospels. Now with Evangelist Tsiang to preach daily and gatekeeper Chang, a Christian, to assist in the book selling, the work should go on uninterruptedly. The encouragement of book-selling is that of intelligent purchasers. They now ask for the particular books they want to buy as Genesis, cloth bound New Testament, map of the world, tract on how to break opium, and one showing the so-called "god of thunder" manifestations to be electricity. We are glad to see this awakening desire for knowledge and light. The day preaching reaches the country people and others passing on the street, while the evening service is attended mostly by clerks and others of the immediate locality. The money for remodeling the old Chinese buildings and wall, $500 gold, is coming, but too late for me to have the work done. In an emergency case, we rented the back row of buildings to our neighbor on the east, the proprietor of a drug store. The widow Li, who rented him the store, wanted part of it to celebrate in proper style the marriage of her eldest daughter, and compelled the proprietor to remove his stock of drugs therefrom on short notice. This rental of five months netted us $34.72, and can be applied on furnishing the remodelled street chapel.

Itinerations.—Last fall I made a thorough book selling and preaching tour of all the market towns within a day's ride of the city. On these trips I noticed that the people are getting to see more clearly the difference between the Protestants and the Catholics. Mrs. Titus accompanied me on one long trip, during which we preached in twenty-two towns and villages, and sold 365 calendars besides Gospels and tracts. In all, I have put in circulation the past six months, 3,500 calendars, 2,200 Gospels, and 650 copies of Genesis, Exodus, Psalms, and Proverbs, and hundreds of Scripture tracts.

The Church.—Two were received and two dismissed by letter, and one baptized, making a total of seventeen members. A Christian marriage was solemnized in the church March 15, 1905. The bridegroom was a Christian of one year's standing, and the bride, a girl of sixteen, said she fully believed in the Jesus doctrine. Besides the seventeen members, there are five from other places who regularly attend, and twelve from other communions irregular in attendance. These latter are employed in the Li government college, the Li dispensary, the Chinese Imperial post office, and city school of western learning. They represent "The New China." The church contributions to February 1, 1905, amounted to $49.70, besides $17.27 sent to the F. C. M. S., $13.71 to the native convention, and $16 Christmas gift to the poor; a total of $96.68 Mexican, of which $48.10 was given by the Chinese. The mid-week prayer meeting has kept up its noteworthy attendance. Dr. Butchart superintends the Sunday-school.

Our personal teacher, at one time was about to break away from the old ways and turn to the new, from the darkness of Confucianism to the light, as it is in Christ Jesus, but his people were too powerful to withstand, and he turned back after having made a public profession. Pray for him. A bright young man who has served the McGinnises as tailor for nearly a year, came to us for instruction the few days before we left, and we have hopes of him. Our old horseman who often listened to the gospel as he acted the part of usher at the street chapel and as he accompanied us on many itinerations, says he wants to become a disciple of Jesus. He now knows the idols are false, and has stopped burning incense to them. An elderly widow, formerly connected with a temple, has become interested in the gospel and asked to become a member of the Christian church. She can read, and has bought from us bound copies of the Bible and a hymn book.

The most encouraging sign of the times is the late work of the young literati in tearing down their temple idols to make room for establishing schools of western learning. Their hearts are not yet turned to Christianity, but we know that the springtime is coming when the noise of the melting of the ice-bound snow comes from the mountain side.

Mrs. Eunice C. Titus.—The regular women's meeting was kept up very successfully during the year. The women did not come to the guest room in crowds as formerly, but those who did come, we thought were more interested in hearing the gospel. After I returned from Kuling last fall, a prayer meeting was started for the Christian women, which greatly strengthened their faith and spirituality. I could see this in their increased earnestness in taking part, and in interesting themselves in others. The meetings were held every Friday afternoon at my home. The women's work was greatly aided by Mrs. Butchart, and we are glad to leave it in her hands.

During the Chinese New Year season, we held daily meetings for two weeks. The eagerness of the women to hear the gospel was quite marked. One Lord's Day, we were obliged to hold two overflow meetings besides the regular service, on account of the number who came, and their insistence on getting in where they could hear. Two meetings were held in the school building in succession, and one simultaneous with the last in our yard. Three of the women whom I knew personally professed faith in Jesus, and we encouraged them to continue on to know the Lord their Savior. One was our servant woman, whom I have given a good deal of teaching, trying to lead her to Christ. We have left her to help Miss Lyon and get further Christian instruction. Another is the wife of our cook. We left her at Wuhu with Mrs. Shaw, and she can also attend Miss Dale's class. The third was a little widow formerly connected with a temple, and she can attend the meetings in charge of Mrs. Butchart.

Mrs. Huang is so sympathetic in conversation with the women, and preaches so feelingly whenever we call upon her. We had Miss Kelly speak to the women on Lord's Day when she was visiting the station. Mrs. McGinnis has also helped in the meetings.

I have continued to give the day school pupils a good time at games in the yard and house after their monthly examinations. This affords a good opportunity to mould their characters in regard to speaking the truth and being honest.

This year we sent another little girl to Miss Lyon's school, the daughter of a former servant woman named Hsu.

Of the feasts given, the one enjoyed most was the one I gave to the daughters-in-law. Having bound feet, they seldom get outside their compound. It was a real pleasure to see how much they learned from, and appreciated the cleanliness and conveniences of a foreign house. I also gave a feast to the very poor neighbor women. The Bible woman was always present, and either before or after, we made it a point to explain the gospel at some opportune time. Our hope is to keep in touch with all classes. By mixing with them socially and in other ways, we want to feed their souls on the bread of life.

We feel that hearts are gradually awakening to the realization of a true God and Savior. Many tell us that they are not now binding their daughters' feet; that they desire to have them educated. We know that the children who accompany their mothers at the meetings are learning something, too, for their mothers tell us about their singing "Jesus Loves Me" and other hymns at home, and how they ask questions about what was preached at the meetings. Pray for these mothers and children that at no distant day they may yield themselves wholly to Jesus as their Lord and Savior.

NANKIN.

F. E. Meigs.—During the first half of the year our school was conducted in the old buildings only. By the opening of the new year the new building was in readiness. We have occupied it with much satisfaction. We have found it all that it should be as to capacity and convenience. We were able to add twenty new students at the beginning of the year, so that we now number sixty-three. The advance in rates makes it a little more difficult to add to our numbers. We could take ten or twelve more. I believe we have hit upon the proper policy of charging a reasonable equivalent for what the school affords. The course of study has been revised. We now offer to thoroughly prepare young men for any of the walks of life in China. The Bible department under the direction of A. E. Cory was carried on with enthusiasm and with satisfactory results. The other departments under my personal direction, aided by an efficient corps of Chinese teachers, have been fully up to the standard. The examinations show that good work has been done. Mrs. Cory, my daughter Ruth, and Mr. Settlemyer have all taught a part of the year in the department of English, thus helping on in the work very materially. The industrial department with the additional equipment has been greatly increased in efficiency. We hope for great things for it in the coming year. Fourteen students were baptized. The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. P. S. C. E. are both in a flourishing condition. A number of the students do regular evangelistic work on Sundays. The majority of the students are members of the church. We are trying to purchase land adjoining the compound. When this has been accomplished we shall proceed with the erection of our main college building.

Frank Garrett.—Returning from a very helpful year's furlough, we arrived in China the 22nd of last October. Since that time I have had charge, as formerly, of the evangelistic work in and about Nanking. The field is broad and divided by the Yangste River. In order to bring the stations into closer touch and more united effort, I have established quarterly conferences. We have held three. The attendance has been good and the results satisfactory. At Tan Tswein a new chapel has been opened, the rent of which is half paid locally, half by the conference. At the west gate of Pukeo a chapel has been opened where all the rent is provided locally. Other places are desirous of opening chapels, but there are reasons why the step should be delayed for a time. The school in Pukeo is much more prosperous than ever before. It is taught by one of the graduates from the Nanking Christian College, Mr. Woo, who with his school is having a splendid influence upon the town and surrounding country. He is making it pay also. A majority of the twenty boys and young men enrolled pay one dollar each a month. Mr. Woo also preaches on Sunday and has oversight of the evangelistic work of the district. During the year I have made one trip to Tungchow with Brothers Dannenberg and Johnson to assist in securing residence property for them. I also made a trip to Bo Chow to oversee preparations of a house for occupancy of those who are going to open up work there. I was one month on this trip and did much preaching in new fields and sold large quantities of scriptures and other literature. There have been eleven baptisms from the college during the year, and sixteen others, making a total of twenty-seven.

Mrs. Ethel Brown Garrett.—This year has been a busy one, though I can not report as much time given directly to the work as I should like. My mornings from nine until twelve were occupied in teaching the children at home and helping as I could other busy mothers in teaching their children. From 2 to 4 P. M. I taught in the Girls' Boarding School, had charge of the day school at the Gate, one class in English, one in Bible geography, and the entire school in drawing for a short time each day. As far as I can tell the work done was quite good. This work has been the greatest pleasure to me, and I thank the Father for giving me time and opportunity to do it. In Miss Lyon's absence, I stayed at the school two weeks and assisted in the general oversight of the work. I tried to call on all the mothers of the day school children as opportunity afforded, and once a month held a mother's meeting for the Christian women. The women took part most freely in these meetings and I believe were strengthened spiritually by them.

Miss Emma Lyon.—The Girls' Boarding School has continued to grow. The graduating of the first class was one of the important events of the year. Both girls are doing good work as teachers. I think we have had more visitors to inquire about the school the past year than during all other years since the school opened. It has taken time to receive these people. The Christian girls have helped in this work, and also in the meetings at Kuleo chapel and Miss Kelly's meetings at the South Gate. The experiment of receiving the high class girls has not been a failure. They have been very much interested in the Bible. Two of them have said that they wanted to become Christians. Some of their mothers have come to the meetings. One lady came and stayed two weeks for me to unbind her feet. She, too, wants to be a Christian. We have had in all fifty pupils during the year. Some left before the close. At the request of some of the mothers, I opened a little kindergarten after the Chinese New Year. Since the boarding school closed I have had charge of the day school at the Gate and overseeing the repairs on the school building. I have continued the Sunday afternoon women's meetings and have been translating a book for use in the school. I am glad that Mrs. Garrett has been able to help in the school since she returned from home, and that Miss Clark is here studying the language that she may help in the work.

Miss Mary Kelly.—The first part of my report has to do with the work in the city. The Hsia Kwan and Drum Tower women's work have been about as usual. The South Gate work has been better than ever before. From the first of April to the first of July we had four meetings a week. There were never less than twenty-five in attendance, and usually from sixty to eighty and sometimes more than a hundred. Many come regularly three or four times a week. Of these some show their longing to become Christians every time the subject is pressed home. They are women of influence, officials' and merchants' wives and daughters, and only they themselves and God know how much it would cost them to take a stand for Christ. Mrs. Jan was baptized in June. She was the first fruit of many efforts and the women's work at the South Gate. The two day schools under my charge have become pay schools without decreasing the number of pupils.

The other part of my report relates to the work in the country. I have visited all of Dr. Macklin's out-stations once and some of them twice, besides other villages. This work is south of the Yangste River. At Pukeo we have kept up the regularly monthly meetings. Two women from there have been baptized. We have made one trip to Luhoh and two to Go-tan-tseh and vicinity. These three places are north of the river. Three times a year I have gone to the seven out-stations lying in an irregular circle. We stopped at the intervening villages and hamlets also. On one of these trips of eight days we spoke to forty-seven different groups of people, ranging in number from eight or ten to a few hundred. In all the places that we visited there is a growing interest and the women give a more intelligent hearing to the Word. I have tried to faithfully sow the seed and believe that the tears of the sower and the song of the reaper will mingle together in joy, by and by.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cory.—I have continued my work in Nankin College this year with the exception of two months and a half spent in the opening of Po Chow. I have carried more work than last year. The Bible studies have been under my care. Evening Bible lessons for the schools have been directed when in Nankin. A meeting was conducted in which eleven boys accepted Christ. During the first of the year I went one or two days each week to country places and during the latter part I have helped in the work at the South Gate.

I had charge of the Bible Institute again this year. The entire mission have assisted in this work. We feel that the work both at the stations and in the Institute was much in advance of last year. The plans for the coming year are fully made.

In the language I have prepared a tract on the "Rich Man and Lazarus," of which over ten thousand copies have been printed. I have also prepared "Coulter's Bible Chart" for publication.

Two trips have been made to Po Chow in company with Frank Garrett and Drs. Layton and Osgood. Over a month has been spent in Po Chow itself. Property has been rented and Evangelist Shi is in charge, preaching to large crowds daily.

Mrs. Cory taught for six months in the English department of the college, and when able has studied Chinese and assisted occasionally in the evangelistic work for women in Nankin.

Although there have been a few hard places, we think of the year's work with joy. We thank God He has allowed us to serve Him and that He has blessed us so richly in that service.

Charles S. Settlemyer.—To have come, to have seen, and to have lived here these few months has determined me more firmly than ever to spend my life among and for these people, the people whose lives seem so hopeless and so destitute of true religion and joy. Of course, I have not been able to do much real missionary work on account of giving most of my time to the study of the language. However, I have found opportunities to study the habits, customs, and traditions of the people, and the methods of work followed by the older missionaries. Itinerating with an experienced worker is not simply a pleasure, but to the observing eye, a fruitful source of knowledge. Beginning in March, I have had charge of two classes in English and the gymnasium work in the boys' school. This takes an hour and a quarter each day. It brings me into touch with all the boys, whom I have learned to take an interest in, and on whom I hope to have a good influence.

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Layton.—In coming to China, we were assigned to the medical work at Nanking during the absence, on furlough, of Dr. Macklin. Arriving in October, 1904, we found the hospital and dispensaries closed and conditions not favorable for one without any of the language to do acceptable work. In fact, the committee on the field had already advised that the hospital remain closed and that I accept only the minimum amount of dispensary practice, but give my chief attention the first year to the study of the Chinese language. This was a most agreeable arrangement.

The foreign community, however, at Nanking could not be neglected. During most of the year I was the only foreign physician there. I served as medical officer to the Customs Staff and answered the calls of four Missions beside our own.

We have therefore studied the language quite regularly, and, as opportunity offered, aimed to get acquainted with the new environment. Advantage was taken of the holidays at the Chinese New Year to attend the conference of the China Medical Missionary Association at Shanghai, which was very helpful to a newcomer.

At the last convention we were appointed to go this fall to the new station at Po Chow. In April, in company with our colleague, Mr. Cory, I went to Po Chow to arrange for our residence there. Chinese dwellings have been rented. That city with its large population and unoccupied territory round about is a splendid place, it seems to me, for the employment of the healing art as a pioneer agency in preaching the gospel. Before another year we hope to have entered more largely into active work.

SHANGHAI.

W. P. Bentley.—Evangelistic.—Nine baptisms and a goodly number of inquirers indicate that church interest is improving. There have been 103 baptized at the Institute since it was opened in 1898. There is a church of some seventy-five members. The C. E. Society was recently reorganized with forty-five members.

Educational.—So far this year eighty boys have been enrolled with a daily attendance of over sixty-five. Five have joined the C. E. Society and others will do so. At their own request three teachers have had the morning chapel exercises moved from 9 to 8.30 A. M., in order to give them more time for recitations. A college in Shanghai is the greatest opening in the China field. The man that founds it will do more for China and our cause than anything that was ever done in the empire.

Literary.—I am at work on several subjects. The next book out will be "New Testament Doctrine in New Testament Language."

General.—The International Missionary Organization, the China Missionary Alliance, has just chosen me as its secretary. The work will not require much of my time. I am also treasurer of the mission. I am on the Executive Committees of the American Association, China Tract Society, and the Educational Association of China. I superintend five colporteurs, who give all their time to Bible selling.

James Ware.—This makes the twenty-fifth anniversary of my arrival in China. For continuance of health and increasing assurance of the ultimate triumph of the gospel in the world, I give thanks to God. The Christians have given much evidence of their sincerity by bringing their friends to the services, and by contributing generously to the church expenses. Our Yangste-poo congregation is rapidly outgrowing their building. I have paid several visits to our out-stations, which gave me much encouragement. Tung Chow has been made a resident station, and will soon be occupied by two families. At Tseao-sau a young Christian has opened his home in the city for preaching. Numerous inquiries and applicants for baptism evidence the growth of our work at Tsung-ming. Sixty-seven scholars, boys and girls, have passed through our day schools. As many of them are sent to work very young, I make it a point to give them personal instruction in the Scriptures.

By consent of the Executive Committee, W. P. Bentley kindly relieved me of the mission treasurership. Every department of the work is flourishing. The women's work has been faithfully cared for by Miss Tonkin and Mrs. Ware, and, with a Bible woman as efficient assistant, has borne fruit. Altogether I have baptized thirty-two persons, besides two of my own children, and a Presbyterian missionary of the China Inland Mission. In addition to my regular missionary work, I had charge of the treasury until December. I have also examined several manuscripts for the China Tract Society and continued regular work on the Bible Translation Committee. I had the pleasure of delivering a course of lectures at the Nankin Institute. The total amount in cash contributed by the native Christians was $104.35.

Miss Rosa L. Tonkin.—All my plans for the year were set aside by the sickness of our Bible woman. On this account four of the best months of the year for going out into the country districts had to be given mostly to study and visiting nearer home. Still we did a fair amount of visiting, and in every place had a welcome and were invited to come again. We had seven baptisms during the year, and many of these learned portions of Scripture by heart. They also committed several hymns, which they learned to sing very well, and the Lord's prayer. One evening when calling on our only foreign lady resident, the Inspector of Police's wife, I heard them singing those sweet old gospel hymns. My friend told me they could be heard almost every night. As the songs floated out on the air, the people on the street stood and listened. So they preached in song the sweet message of love to all mankind. Quite a good part of our Christians live on the top flats of these houses, so it is convenient for them so to gather. As we see the change taking place in their ways, homes, and general appearance, our hearts are cheered and encouraged, for we know that our work is not in vain in the Lord. The way has been made clear for us to secure a better accommodation for our women's work. Three vacant shops have been secured adjoining our mission property. We were surprised and cheered by this also, as it had been quite a problem for some time, there being no suitable buildings near that we could get. We need the prayers of God's people everywhere for grace and strength to enter the open doors. We need also the Holy Spirit's teaching and guidance.

TUNG CHOW.

D. E. Dannenberg.—Language study has been our most continuous employment since reaching Nankin. Since that time, in company with John Johnson, I have made three trips to Tung Chow, where we expect to locate next fall. Assisted by the older missionaries, we have rented and partly repaired our temporary homes in that place. I have visited our station in Chu Cheo, and, in company with Mrs. Dannenberg, have visited our station in Wuhu.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson.—Since our arrival in China in October last, our time and strength have been devoted to the study of the people and their language. We began the study of the latter five days after our arrival, and have, with some interruptions, spent about five hours a day with a native teacher. Though we can not yet boast that we know the language, we are glad to be able to at least partially understand and make ourselves understood. Before our arrival in the country the brethren on the field had decided upon us for the proposed new station at Tung Chow. According to the good hand of our God upon us, matters with regard to that new station have progressed much more rapidly than we had anticipated. Mr. and Mrs. Dannenberg have been appointed to accompany us. We have paid three visits to the station and secured excellent temporary missionary premises at a very reasonable rent, have made some necessary alterations and improvements, and expect to be in residence in less than twelve months from the time of our arrival in the country. Tung Chow is the center of an extensive and rich wheat and grain growing district, thickly populated, and not occupied by any other Protestant Mission. It would be difficult to exaggerate its importance as a mission point. We bespeak the prayers of the brotherhood that the Lord may mightily use us for the extension of his kingdom in that unevangelized region.

WUHU.

T. J. Arnold.—Our chief aim in the past year has been to build up the church by nourishing into robust life the spiritual desires and tendencies of the Christians. In pastoral work I have sought to bring Christian influences to bear upon some phases of home life where heathen influences have altogether too large a place at present; such, for instance, as the disposal of girl babies, the future career of boys by being brought up to purely heathen trades, the cleansing of the betrothal and marriage customs. Along such lines much vigilance and tact are needed, but herein lies the hope of future Christian society. Several delinquents were disciplined. These difficulties have militated against the financial progress of the church. Hence a poor showing. The decline, however, is not in principle, and now that the underlying causes are removed, there will be a steady and permanent advancement in this matter. Seven men and two women have confessed their faith in Christ and have been baptized and are active members of the church. The Sunday-school record is very gratifying. The average attendance is one hundred. We have studied with evident profit the International Lessons. The Sunday-school is a valuable factor in the growth of Christians in spiritual knowledge. We hope for still better results in the future. Notwithstanding many drawbacks, we are greatly cheered by the outlook. The church is healthy and is growing. Our opportunities are great. There is more than enough work for all the workers. As to the helpers, we have much yet to realize. The lion's share of the work and its responsibilities has fallen on my shoulders. With an efficient helper the burden could be considerably lightened.

The statistics for the year are as follows: The membership last year was 122; lost by death, 1; added during the year, 10; present membership, 131. Day school scholars, 35; average attendance, 30. Sunday-school scholars, 100. Contributions of the Chinese Christians, $59.14; contributions of foreigners, $48. Expenses of the local church, $59.14.

Miss Edna P. Dale.—During the year nine women and two girls have been baptized. Some have done well. Others have manifested very little growth in grace and knowledge. One of the girls has entered Miss Lyon's school, and a happier child it would be hard to find. We have made strenuous efforts to secure the same privilege for the other girl, but her father withholds his consent. One, an old lady near sixty years of age, first came to the chapel just after the death of a grandchild. On her forehead was a bruised, callous place, caused by bumping her head on the ground before the idols, pleading for the child's life. But he died and her faith was shattered. The sweet message of a true and living God was indeed balm to her wounded heart. She told me one day that her heart had been full of sorrow and anxiety, but that now it was "anxious only to hear God's message." She has been a most earnest and eager learner.

I had hoped to teach my Christian women to read the Romanized Bible this year, that there might be some foundation upon which to build in "teaching them to observe all things" of the gospel. A beginning has been made. I now have a class of eight who are making good progress.

We have recently purchased a piece of land for my home. It is just outside the city wall, convenient to the people and the chapel. It seems almost an ideal location, and I am very happy over it. I hope to be in the house next year.

The year has brought some disappointments and a fuller realization of the degradation and sinfulness of these people. But our hope is in God, and these things do not discourage; they make more real the awful need and spur us to greater zeal in making known the power of God unto salvation.

H. P. Shaw.—Feeling that we could not do our best work and remain in Lu Cheo fu, we asked to be transferred to Wuhu, where there seemed to be an opening. I have kept up my study of the language, have taught a Sunday-school class of boys during our residence in Wuhu, and upon several occasions have led the prayer meetings and communion services during Brother Arnold's absence.

INTRODUCTORY.

G. W. Brown, Secretary of the Mission.—The past year has been one of growth and progress in all our stations.—growth and progress of such a nature as to be most encouraging to the missionaries engaged. There has been no sudden boom, but a steady advance. Perhaps the greatest thing now being accomplished in the mission is a better and more perfect organization, which enables the missionaries to accomplish more work. In no past year in the history of the mission has the Gospel been so widely preached as it has during the year just closed. Next in importance, perhaps, has been the opening of our new station, Jubbulpore, and the establishment there of our Bible College and Printing Press. The Bible School, as at present carried on, was established three years ago in Harda, but during the past year removed to Jubbulpore. Already its students have begun to go forth to spread abroad the Word, and there is promise that this institution will soon become the most important single factor in our work in India. The establishment of the Press enables us to furnish our growing Christian community with a literature without which they can not grow as they should.

Our growth has not been confined to any one particular station, as an examination of the statistical table will reveal. While the total increase in numbers has not been quite as great as in the preceding year, the net increase has been very good, being about eighteen per cent. A growth which can not be revealed by figures, that of the moral and spiritual natures, has been most marked. This was clear to the Secretary of the Mission in his annual visit to the several stations. Work in three of the stations was interfered with by plague, but God has again blessed us and we have been spared as by a miracle. For all these blessings we devoutly thank Him.

BILASPUR.

M. D. Adams.—The membership of the church is now 239. There were twenty-seven additions during the year. The work, as usually carried on, was seriously hindered, for one-half of the year, by the presence of plague. By it our community was scattered and the work of the missionaries greatly increased. While it disturbed our ordinary plans of work yet I believe that even this time of sorrow and anxiety was not without the touch of the tender hands of blessing. The power of sympathy was more strongly felt, because of this fellowship of suffering and sorrow; and men often thought and said, "Here we have no continuing city." Since all things temporal quickly pass, it is no doubt good for men, who are apt to become strongly attached to things of this world, to have such a strong demonstration of the inexorable nature of death, as is had from the presence of plague.

I have visited, with regularity, the two schools and two out-stations in the villages. There are no Christians in the villages of Birkona and Masturi, where we have two boys' schools, but at Dorki and Nipania there are places of worship and Christian communities. The place of worship at Dorki was put up during the year. The church and Sunday-school at Bilaspur have had my persistent effort to make known the gospel of Christ, and while I have not seen all of my heart's desire, there is much for encouragement. In forming a judgment of the results of the work, a consideration of the difficulties of the field should be taken into account. The soil is that of an ancient system of heathenism and virulent Mohammedanism. In the days of Paul, Athens could not have been less promising, or in denser darkness of idolatry, or stronger bonds of wickedness. If the gospel has accomplished anything here, it is a great victory for the kingdom of Christ, and enables us to speak with the enemies in the gate, and to say among the heathen, "The Lord has accomplished great things for us." That churches have been planted and communities of believers raised up is beyond question. That these churches keep the ordinances of the Lord's house and are growing in grace and knowledge and numbers, are facts of our history. To those who require a sign, we hold up these facts as a manifestation of the power of Jesus.

The Sunday-school held in the church at Bilaspur, has been as satisfactory as ever; and it bears a large share in whatever success has been accomplished here. The attendance on the Sunday just past was 218. More children than ever have this year taken the All India Sunday-school Examination. The results are unknown, but we are confident that nearly all will pass. The Sunday-schools in connection with the village day schools, have been less regular, owing to confusion of the work from plague at the time when such work was possible.

In connection with a committee of fellow-workers, I have given considerable attention to compiling a Hindi Hymn Book for the use of the mission. We believe that when this book is published it will meet a long felt want, in supplying a collection of hymns and bhajans that will be predominantly Hindi.

The day schools have gone on with as much regularity as was possible, considering the interruption from pestilence. The Government grants have been larger than before.

We are grateful to God for the privilege of another year of work in India. My family is in Hiram Ohio, and it is now nearly four years since I have been with my children, but I am thankful for these years of opportunity in India, and we look to our gracious Father for the future. This work is His and we believe that He will crown it with success.

DAMOH.

J. G. McGavran.—The Damoh church has had a prosperous year. There have been ninety-one additions during the year; thirteen were by letter, and the remainder by baptism. Both Mrs. McGavran and I have devoted more time than ever before to visiting and meeting with the Christians. Mrs. McGavran has had regular meetings with the women weekly, and I have called the older brethren to meet with me on various occasions for conversation and counsel. I have also prepared and given a series of lectures bearing on their lives as men, husbands, and fathers. Two Hindi services on Sunday and the prayer meeting and Christian Endeavor meetings during the week have been the regular thing. I have had a good deal of help in the preaching, but have averaged about one sermon a week except when on tour. The C. E. has had the special care of Miss J. Franklin. The Sunday-schools have all done hopefully. David Rioch has general oversight of the Orphanage Sunday-school, and Miss Franklin and Dr. McGavran have those in the town. I have had two small open air schools which have been only moderately promising. The church and Sunday-school have suffered a great deal from lack of suitable meeting room, and we look for a great improvement when the new church is built. There have been about a dozen additions to the Christian community by birth. This may seem a trifling matter, but it is of more importance than many baptisms.

In the villages three regular evangelists have put in a greater or less part of the year. In addition to them, Alfred has done a lot of good work both as a deacon in the church and in village work. He gets no pay for this work. Further, a goodly number of the larger orphanage boys have done good work in the nearby villages. Some of the Christian school teachers, and those engaged in secular work, have also done a good deal of voluntary work. Samuel Biswas and Prem Das McNeil have been out a great deal.

Mrs. McGavran and I have spent rather less than the usual time in camp, but have been in perfect health and have been able to get more work done than usual. The old villages have all been revisited and a good many new ones reached. Some have been dropped. In several groups which seemed to be getting a grasp of the gospel we have preached much more persistently and thoroughly than ever before. Otherwise the work has been much as in past years. Mrs. McGavran has visited as many of the villages as she could, and from many other villages the women have come to her in camp. The amount of gospels and other Christian literature sold and given away has exceeded any year in the past. Most of it has been distributed by sale. There are a number of villages in the extreme corners of the District which have never yet been visited, but they are mostly small and scattered. We hope to gradually visit them as the way opens. We have far more villages regularly worked in now than we can thoroughly work, and it is idle to make the work more extensive at present.

The clerical work of the station has been pretty heavy on account of buildings and land acquisitions, and the renewal of old leases, etc. The mere matter of handling the change—and getting it to handle—is quite an item in Damoh. It is as though a firm at home should do a business of a thousand dollars a month almost wholly in quarters and coppers, among which a very large percentage of depreciated and counterfeit coin has to be detected. This work has been much reduced during the year and takes less and less time as the work falls more into routine.

I give one day a week to the preparation of the Hindi Sunday-school lessons, and some of my leisure to general Sunday-school work. During the year services have been held in English with a good deal of regularity, and have been conducted by the different missionaries in turn, under the oversight of C. E. Benlehr since his arrival. I expect to make the English service a part of the regular work of the church this year if the people of Damoh encourage it by their attendance. There will be a considerable increase in English population, owing to the coming of a number of railway people to Damoh.

I had charge of the Orphanage for two months, and have given a good deal of time to study.

David Rioch.—For the past year the Orphanage work has occupied my whole time, and I have made no attempt to do anything outside. I had thought this the best thing to do, and the results have proved my course was right.

The whole place has put on an established appearance. The building material that littered the grounds has all been removed. The whole institution has assumed a decided look of order and cleanliness that is good to see. Within the rooms every boy keeps his place in order. The rooms are inspected every day by the House Father, who makes a written report to me. The hospital assistant and myself also inspect the whole place to see that everything is kept in a sanitary condition. Besides this all the boys are required to give at the end of each week two hours to cleaning up. In this way the premises are open to inspection at all times.

In seeking to put the place in order we have not forgotten the boys. Everything has been done to help them to be better and stronger lads. A greater effort has been put forth in every department to lead the boys to be pure in thought and life. This side of the boys' education has been dwelt upon in lectures by J. G. McGavran and supported by Miss Franklin in school. In the evenings at prayer time I get many opportunities for purity talks with the boys. The spiritual side of their lives is not neglected. Each morning, the first thing, we all meet for prayer and praise. In school every day they begin with Scripture reading, song and prayer and each class is taught a Bible lesson. On Tuesday we have the regular church prayer meeting; on Friday the C. E., and Sunday-school and church services on Sunday. It has been our endeavor to lead the boys into more regular ways of living, to keep themselves and their surroundings tidy, and to be respectful in their bearing to all.

A good deal of time has been spent trying to help the boys to be more contented and hopeful. The marriage and settlement, at the close of last year, of twenty boys, and of five more this year, has had a great influence in letting the boys see that we were going to do something for them. In their work, better teachers have been secured and the boys are getting a more thorough training in their different branches of work, than ever before, and they are trying to profit by the opportunities they are receiving.

During the rainy and cold seasons it has been a great puzzle to know how to help the boys at nights after supper and before bedtime. To help them I have placed a number of indoor games in the large dining room, and these have proved a great success. The Civil Surgeon kindly lent me his phonograph and I was able to give the boys two evenings entertainment. They, of course, lost much of the pleasure as the records were all in English. It would be a kindness if some one would send us a machine and money to secure Hindi records so that the boys could enjoy the phonograph to the full. We very much need good wholesome entertainment for our boys. The Hindi people spend very much time in all kinds of shows, that are anything but good. The boys hearing the drums beat and knowing that a show is on, desire very much to see these things. I feel that we ought to give them something in their place. During the winter, Mr. McGavran gave the boys two lantern exhibitions, which were appreciated very much. I made two sets of slides, one of Simla and the Hills, and one of Damoh and our work in the Orphanage. These latter the boys enjoyed very much as they saw themselves at work, play, etc. At Christmas time the boys had several entertainments and a big dinner. Over a hundred of the smaller boys were given warm colored coats that had been sent from our brethren in Australia. The boys themselves, without any help, gave us an entertainment consisting of a representation of the Prodigal Son. It was very real, especially the scene where the young son was feeding the swine; they had real pigs that some of them had captured wild in the jungle. Another influence that helped the boys has been the opening of the Bible College in Jubbulpore. Only those boys whose characters were above all reproach were sent, and the other boys, seeing this, have been led into better things.

The health of the boys has been very good: during eleven months we had one death, but during the last month of the year two died, one of heart disease and one of dysentery. We have had some very serious cases of pneumonia, but by God's mercy and careful nursing these have been brought through. While Mrs. Rioch was ill, Dr. McGavran very kindly attended any serious cases that required special care. We feel more than grateful to her for her great help in several serious cases. One case, especially, that called for decision and pluck, Dr. McGavran brought through, much to our surprise and pleasure. Mahar Singh, one of our boys, complained of stoppage in his windpipe. In four days' time he was in pretty bad shape. On the fourth morning I had visited him and found him breathing some easier. When Dr. McGavran inquired at the office how he was, I reported him easier, and Doctor went to her own dispensary. In a few minutes I was informed that the boy was dying. I immediately sent for Dr. McGavran and the Civil Surgeon. Dr. McGavran arrived first, and without a moment's hesitation operated below the stoppage, and with the help of the Civil Surgeon, inserted a tracheotomy tube. The boy is still going around with the tube in his throat. He was unconscious and never felt the operation. He knows what it is to die and come to life again. If it had not been for Dr. McGavran's coolness and pluck our boy would have gone from us.

This past year has seen all our building work completed. The last to go up was our workshop, which is indeed a joy to us. It is a pleasure to see it full of boys learning their trades. The assistant who was in charge of the workshop continued to be so unsatisfactory that I had to remove him. I have now secured a first class carpenter to look after the work and teach the boys, while I attend to the business myself. I am able to do this as I have built an office onto the workshop, which brings it under my constant observation.

The carpenter department has done well and shows a balance on hand.

There are about fifty boys learning this trade. The shoe department received no help for teacher or material this past year, but has paid all expenses besides leaving a balance for the next year. The dairy was closed because it entailed an immense amount of work with little profit, and was of no practical use to the boys. The people to whom dairy products can be sold will not buy from a native who has no idea of cleanliness.

The farm work, under my assistant, Mr. Brown, has made good advancement. We broke very little new land, as we desired to get the old into a higher state of cultivation. We were among the few who had any rice crop this year, on account of the shortage in the rains. Our water tank saved part of our crop, while the rice sown in the upper fields, where we depend on the rain only, was almost entirely lost. Taken as a whole, this has been a very hard year on the farmers in this part of the country. We are already seeing the grain dealer holding up the grain in anticipation of a scarcity.

We have enlarged our water tank to double its former capacity, and hope soon to have it large enough to hold water for the whole year for farm, garden, etc. Through the past winter we had the severest frost that has ever been known in these parts. For many mornings we gathered ice one-half inch to five-eighths inch thick. This extreme cold killed everything in our garden, which was the most promising we have ever had.

In the month of May, at the very beginning of the past year's work, I got a touch of the sun, and after suffering very much for a week, the Civil Surgeon ordered me to the hills. Mrs. Rioch had just brought through two very bad cases of pneumonia and was also very much run down, and we left Damoh on May 24th. Because of our illness I was not able to return for two months. During my absence, Mr. McGavran very kindly looked after the boys and the building work. From the amount of work accomplished, it was easily seen that he had not spared himself. On my return, I found everything advanced and the boys in good control. It is always very difficult for any one to take over such a work as this for a short time. I feel most grateful for his kindness and interest in my work.

Taken as a whole the Orphanage has made very decided growth. God has blessed us the past year in a greater measure than ever before. Under the direction of Mr. McGavran and his evangelists, our boys have done more preaching in the villages than in former years. I have not been able to go out as my time is more than full here, but we have been pleased to see our assistants and boys go day by day to tell the story of Christ. The work done by these has had a most beneficent reflex influence on us all. The year has been one of peace and growth spiritually among us all, both native and missionary, and the Divine favor has been on all our efforts.

In the year three boys died, five were married, and thirty-seven were baptized.

Miss Josepha Franklin.—My work the past year has been along three lines, —schools, Sunday-school, and Christian Endeavor. The school, while an orphanage school, has three departments, English middle, Hindi middle, and Hindi primary. The English school, or rather class, was opened this year. It is composed of six boys who passed the sixth Hindi examination last December. They still continue the study of Hindi grammar and literature, that they may become thorough in their own language, as well as obtain a knowledge of English.

The total number enrolled last year was 219 in the day school, and 69 in the night school. Four caste children attend this school. Six boys in the Hindi middle school have taken the examination for a town teacher's certificate, but the result of the examination is not known yet. Three of these boys are now teaching in the mission school, and two are in the Bible College in Jubbulpore. Five boys who passed the sixth Hindi examination in December were also sent to the Bible College, and two went into the Press Office there.

The secular work of the school deserves no particular mention, being the usual work done in such schools. The school maintained its usual good standard during the year.

The Bible work for the year included the Gospel of John for the first and second classes, and the Book of Acts in the third, fourth, and fifth classes. In the higher classes, the Divided Kingdom of Israel was studied.

The boys have been encouraged to play such games as would give occupation to their minds and bodies, and keep their thoughts away from the immoral games and amusements frequently practiced about them. The King's birthday was made a special holiday, and trees were planted by the various classes. A special program had been prepared, and the gathering was attended by many of the officials and other outsiders who were in Damoh. Loyal speeches were made, and there were declamations and songs. We believe it is part of our duty to teach the boys loyalty to their country.

My Sunday work this year was mixed—Sunday-school and evangelistic work. In June, 1904, my sister and I opened a Sunday-school in a banya (shop-keepers) neighborhood. This school at first seemed most promising. We had in it four classes, one for educated men, one for illiterate men, one for school boys, and one for women. The average attendance of non-Christians until the end of October was over sixty. All at once the attendance fell off, and for three Sundays no one at all came. My sister was then transferred to Harda, and the house had to be given up. After that, in company with several helpers, I went from place to place seeking a location for a Sunday-school. Our average attendance for five months in various places was thirty.

Mention has been made of the teaching of the Sunday-school lesson in the school. In July, 1904, about one hundred boys, in four divisions, took the All-India Sunday-school examination, covering the lessons from January to June. Out of the hundred there were perhaps three or four failures. One-half passed second class, one-sixth first class, and one-sixth third class. No teacher failed. One boy got the highest grade in senior division for the Hindi speaking community. A boy in the second division ranked second.

I have been a member of the Christian Endeavor Society for this year only. I have assisted the members in their business meetings, socials, and special program meetings. The membership this year has been doubled, and a number of associate members have become Christians. The C. E. library has done much to raise the intelligence of the community. We also take the Hindi C. E. paper, as well as the one published by our own mission. Twenty-six boys have subscribed for the Hindi C. E. paper. Our own papers are now used in the C. E. and Sunday-school; both are very helpful. Two meetings of the C. E. Society deserve special mention. One was in September, on the topic, "Missionary Heroes of the Country." Several spirited orations were delivered by the boys upon the great missionary characters of India. The Social Committee had decorated the room with flowers and flags, and after the meeting a committee served refreshments. It was a very happy and profitable occasion. The second meeting was on Easter, when the Society gave a "Light Entertainment," suggested by the Hindi C. E. paper. Verses from the Bible on light, and parables relating to light were acted out. It was very beautiful, and gave the children an object lesson on the "Light of the Gospel," such as many sermons could not have done.

Dr. Mary McGavran.—The work of the station was begun on my return from furlough. Miss Clarke had done a great deal of work among the people during my absence, and endeared herself very much. The people seemed glad to see me, and more than one mother came to me and told me that the little one I had taken in my arms, or the one I had spoken to at a certain place, or given medicine to for some trivial disease, had fallen ill, and in a few days had gone away—not that he "had died," but "went away." And the tears would come when they remembered that the last time we met the baby was there. They were glad to see me, I know, those mothers, and it was my happiest home coming.

The work of the four months I have been back here has been much like my work before I went home. There is the regular daily dispensary work, the Sunday-school, visiting in the town, the medical care of the Christian community, and a number of cases coming up in the orphanage.

The dispensary work suffers most for the lack of a capable hospital assistant. During three months I have been away at least twenty days on account of cases at a distance which required my care. As soon as we have a building we shall secure a good woman who will be at the dispensary regularly, and so secure much better results. We have had in the dispensary 951 visits, 20 operations, and 5 in-patients. Regarding the last, I would say I have rented a house near by for a ward, and have one patient for it. I have had to turn several away on account of having no place for them. The people not only come from Damoh and nearby villages, but also from villages in the remote parts of the district,—some from outside the district. The gospel is preached to these people. They often speak of the visits of the missionary to their village, and can tell of the children. One of the Bible women, Anugrah, goes to the dispensary every day now. She takes her baby, and while he lies on the floor and plays, she sings to the groups of women as they come and go, and teaches them. She also helps in the work. She is quick in helping at dressing and the like, and was well trained by Dr. Longdon in the Deoghur Hospital, before she married a Damoh boy and came here to live. The women like her and listen to her lessons, while the baby is an object lesson, looking so sweet and clean. Our work is usually done on the second floor of the native mud hut we have rented for a dispensary, but latterly the heat has become dangerous, and we have been compelled to wear our topis. On this account we are moving down to the first floor. It will be safe, but hot, and will crowd us very much. We look forward with pleasure to the prospect of a new hospital with its clean airy rooms and safe roof.

A Sunday-school has been carried on in the dispensary building ever since work was begun in it. It is quite a feature of the work. At times we have thirty or forty women and children. Tabitha Bai, our first Christian mother and faithful helper, has been the leading spirit of this Sunday-school. She is always present, unless ill, and makes the people listen to her good news. She brings her little daughter and takes a kindly interest in the lives of the women. Almost every Sunday morning I have dressings to attend to, sometimes work for an hour or two, and this, together with the Sunday-school, takes up the whole morning.

In the homes of the people of the town and country, and among the native Christians, I have made 608 visits. Some were made at quite a distance from Damoh. In some cases I have been unable to help, and have felt so sorry. I have had the joy, too, of feeling that my efforts have been blessed abundantly.

Among the Christians we are trying to set up a higher standard. We are teaching the women how to care for themselves, and their babies. It is hard for them to overcome their old superstitions, especially those who have lately become Christians. The orphanage girls are a help in this, but even they find it sometimes difficult to judge correctly.

Mary L. Clarke.—It has been a great joy to come into contact with the poor, down-trodden women of India, and to tell them of a Savior sufficient for their needs. Their sad condition appeals to me more and more as the years go by, and my heart swells with thankfulness to Him for sending me to them. Zenana work does not proclaim itself with trumpets, but is more like the silent leaven. Nor can it be measured by statistics, or the number who join the church. Only the last day can reveal the result of this work. "Explain it to me," said a woman in regard to a hymn; "I am a donkey and do not understand at all." The husband, father, or brother, passing through while I am in the house with the women, will often say to them sneeringly, "Do you understand?" Now, while they are indeed stupid and ignorant, they have far more sense than their men folk give them credit for possessing. Thanks to the changing conditions, many men are anxious for their wives to learn to read and write. While at the Hills I received letters from three girls whom I had taught the year before to write Hindi, and they were very creditably written. More women have asked to be taught than I have had time to teach. This is a sign that women are waking up, and are crying out for liberation from their bondage. They are bound to their idols, and unless they turn from them to the Living God, liberation would be worse for them than bondage. The family life behind the "purdah" is so corrupt that it can not be written, and is possibly even worse than that of the common people. Such are the people among whom we labor, bound to idols, and sunk in moral corruption. A desperate condition, from which only the Gospel of Christ can uplift and save.

Damoh is built around the base of a hill about 200 feet high. I try, in the course of one week's rounds, to visit somewhere or other so as to encircle the whole town. My work is among all castes, from the highest to the lowest. So we sow the seed broadcast, in hope that it may find root and bring forth fruit to His glory and honor. For about eight months in the year I visit about fifty different homes in a week, and during the other months just as many as I possibly can.

Mr. and Mrs. Benlehr.—On September 23, 1904, Mrs. Benlehr, Robert, and I began our journey to India. G. L. Wharton was our pleasant and helpful companion from New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. Munroe, of the C. W. B. M., from Genoa, Italy. The pleasure of our ocean voyage was increased by meeting both new missionaries coming to India, and old ones returning for another term of service. Our stay in Bombay was brief, but we enjoyed the privilege of meeting M. D. Adams, who had come down from Blaspur. Our next journey was by rail to Harda, where we were met at the station by O. J. Grainger and Dr. Drummond, in whose homes we received a most hearty welcome. In Harda we saw our first mission station, and wondered then, and still continue to wonder, how a missionary manages to do the work he does. We saw the school, church, hospital, and leper work all in splendid condition and prospering.

From Harda, Mr. Wharton went to Jubbulpore, Mr. and Mrs. Munroe to Mahoba, and we to Damoh, where we were warmly welcomed by our missionaries. We found among them a helpful fellowship which we endeavored to add to and strengthen. From the time we reached Damoh until April 3rd, when we came to Landour to spend the summer in study, we worked on Hindi uninterruptedly. I also assisted in the English devotional service, which we held in Damoh each Sunday especially for our missionaries, but to which any one was always welcome. I endeavored to assist David Rioch a little with the orphanage, but could really accomplish little with my knowledge of the language. For this reason the study of the language has been our one work during our stay in India.

The year has been full of new experiences, new life, and a new language. The greatness of our work and its future prospects are most gratifying. Our hope and prayer is that we may be instruments of great good in building up the kingdom of God in India.

HARDA.

Dr. C. C. Drummond.—The past year, like the other seven we have spent in India, has been a busy one. We have treated at the dispensary people from near and far. One man came from Bhopal, a city 100 miles away. Another came forty miles in an ox-cart. One day I was called to see a man who had been brought to Harda for treatment from a village some miles away. He said he had heard of our work, and came, hoping to be cured. But he had waited too long; he was beyond human aid, and died in a few days.

One morning a man came to the dispensary with his hand tied up. He seemed to be in great agony. I asked him what had happened. He said that on the night previous he had been assisting with some fireworks, and a rocket had exploded in his hand. I found his hand injured so badly that I had to amputate it. He made a good recovery. Some time afterwards another man came with a similar story, but only his thumb had to be removed.

Occasional trips have been made to Tiamrni to oversee the work there. A few days were spent in Rahetgaon, doing medical work in that place and the nearby villages. While I was there a man came to have a tumor removed from his arm. It had been troubling him for twenty years. Our operating room was the shade of a tree. The tumor was removed, and the patient made a good recovery. He seemed grateful.

The attendance at the dispensaries has been good throughout the year. We have treated 14,120 cases and had 24,571 attendances at the dispensaries. In the hospital 77 cases have been treated, and 99 surgical operations performed. Fees to the amount of $304 have been realized.

The work at the leper asylum continues about the same as in former years. Twenty lepers have been present during the year, the majority of them Christians.

In July, in connection with my other duties, I took charge of the English work, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown having been transferred to Jubbulpore. We have an English preaching service every Sunday evening, a Sunday-school Sunday morning, and Christian Endeavor meeting during the week. Mrs. H. L. Jackson conducts the Sunday-school. These meetings are fairly well attended, but not so well as formerly, as a number of our members have been transferred to other stations. Our English W. C. T. U. has been carried on for some time, and has done a great deal of good. Drinking is very common in many English homes in India, and there is great need of temperance work.

Samson Powar, Hospital Assistant.—During the year the work at the hospital has been carried on as usual. There was great fear of plague here this year, and we thank God for sparing us. But we have had smallpox, which has been prevalent in these provinces. Several children died of it.

The Hindus have curious ideas about smallpox. They think smallpox a goddess who comes and goes of her own accord. In order to appease her they sacrifice goats, cocoanuts, and other things. Hence when one is taken ill they do not give medicines or food, thinking that the goddess may be provoked. They merely sprinkle cows' urine and leaves of the nim tree, and do not allow any one to come near, fearing that the goddess may be defiled by some unclean thing. This neglect is the reason why so many children die of smallpox. Were they to receive proper treatment, no doubt many lives could be saved.

In the morning dispensary work is done from 7 to 11 o'clock. People generally gather at the appointed time. We begin with a Hindustani song, and then read a passage from the Gospels and preach. Afterwards prayer is offered. The people listen without any dispute, often approving of what is said by nodding their heads and by such exclamations as "sach hai, sach hai"—"it is true, it is true." We have sold twenty Gospels during the year.

The in-patients are daily instructed in the Bible, and one of them has confessed Christ during the year.

We regret Dr. Drummond's departure on furlough, for he has endeared himself to people of all castes by his love and care for the sick. We pray for his safe return to continue in the Master's work.

O. J. Grainger.—During this year more people have been preached to, and preached to regularly, than in any other year since I have been in Harda. Together with the native evangelists, I have kept up a systematic visitation of certain villages. Each evangelist has a circuit of about thirty villages in which he preaches regularly. I go from one to the other, overseeing their work. In this way they reach about 150 villages. There are about 350 other villages in our district, but we can not reach them because of lack of time and workers. With several more consecrated native evangelists we could cover the whole district thoroughly. Let the churches in America, when praying that the Lord will raise up missionaries for foreign lands, pray also that he will raise up a consecrated, able, native ministry.

To the church there have been twelve added, but by death and dismissal we have lost ten. The church has made progress in spirituality, in spite of the troubles and difficulties to which new congregations, especially in heathen lands, are subject.

Sunday-schools are conducted in eleven different places. In these we get 550 children who hear the word of God and learn Christian songs. Three of these schools met together on Easter Sunday, and after a good program of songs and recitations, although they were Hindu and Musalman children, they took up an offering for foreign missions. We very often hear the children at work or play singing the Christian hymns instead of their own immoral songs.

G. W. Brown left Harda for Jubbalpore in July, 1904. It then fell to me to take charge of the day schools for boys. Later on Miss Stella Franklin came to Harda and took charge of two of these schools. She will report concerning them. The main boys' school is still in my charge. It consists of a primary school with a four years' course in the vernacular, a middle school with a four years' course partly in English and partly in the vernacular, and a high school with a three years' course in Sanskrit, Persian, and advanced English. Grammar, geography, mathematics, and other branches are taught. Each boy in the school gets from half to three-quarters of an hour of Bible instruction daily. Last year's enrollment for these departments was about 200. The new school year opened on the first of April, at which time there was a marked increase in the enrollment of the high and middle schools. We get hold of the sons of some of the leading men and best families, not only of Harda, but also of the surrounding villages. We could reach them in no other way.

In April of this year, Dr. Drummond returned to America on furlough. This necessitated my taking charge of our congregation of English people, and undertaking the direction of the leper asylum and two medical dispensaries. With so much to oversee there is little time left for preaching. We are praying for reinforcements. The year has had its disappointments and its joys. The work is hard, but the joy in the Lord makes it worth while.

Mrs. M. P. Grainger.—During the past year until in March I was in charge of the native girls' school in Harda. The school made steady progress in the quality of the work done, so that the little girls who barely knew their letters in May last year were passed into the second reader in March by the inspector who came examining the schools. The average attendance during the year has been about thirty, though during the rainy season it was much larger, and during the marriage season it was much smaller. Two of the girls were married. They must have been about nine and twelve years old. They did not go to live with their husbands at once, but it took them out of school. This is one of the great hindrances to school work among girls in India. Before they can get to reading in the third reader, they are married and have to leave school. They are taught cutting, sewing, and knitting, besides the regular school work. Many of the girls enjoy their school life very much indeed. More than half of the school is in the infant class. They have kindergarten work—making letters with seeds, counting with sticks and balls, singing little action songs, marching, and the like. They are a very happy lot of little brown children.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society has flourished, having from fourteen to eighteen members present at each meeting. The most of these are children of Christian parents. The coming of our baby Margaret gave me new home duties which kept me from doing further outside work.

We are happy in India, and love our work more than we can tell. We are looking for great things from our God.

M. J. Shah.—The year under report has been one of great success: not so much from the number of conversions as from the amount of work done, and the number of people preached to. The following statistics will give an idea of the work.

Evangelistic.—In the year under report, I preached eighty times in the bazar. I visited seventeen villages, excluding Harda and its suburbs, and preached 832 times. The approximate number of people who heard the gospel is 11,152. Two hundred and fifty-four Gospels and tracts were sold. Besides these, thousands of religious leaflets were distributed gratis. It is interesting to note that the villages that once showed direct opposition to us in our work are now getting to be friendly, and some of our strong opponents are getting to be good listeners. There are some inquirers also in the villages. If we can continue to carry on the work as systematically as at present, we hope for great things for the future.

Pastoral Work.—I regularly conducted the church services, but was assisted in this by others, especially by Mr. Grainger, who often took charge of the Divine services.

Sunday-school.—There is a Sunday-school in connection with the high school. I have had charge of this, but have been assisted by other teachers. The average attendance was seventy-six. During Christmas week a treat for all the Sunday-schools in the town was held here. A Children's Day service was also held on Easter Sunday. The total collection from the Sunday-schools amounted to nearly $5.

Y. P. S. C. E.—We have two C. E. Societies, one senior and one junior. This work is hopeful and the meetings are interesting. The collections amounted to about $7.50.

Prayer Meeting.—The servant classes were almost neglected, and it was thought best to start a prayer meeting among them. This has done good work. Most of them have now learned to pray. The Gospel of Matthew was studied this year: it has been about half completed. The poor people have been greatly benefited, and we pray to God that He may make them strong in the faith.

There were twelve additions to the church—six by baptism, five by letter, and one by reinstatement.

In conclusion, we ask for your prayers that there may be an outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our midst, and a thorough awakening of the non-Christians, that they may forsake their darkness and enter into the light of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Y. Masih (Rahetgaon).—"If ye love me keep my commandments." During the past year my preaching was carried on both in the hills and in the plains. Each month nearly thirty villages were visited. The gospel was preached to both high and low caste people. Mr. Grainger, in his visits to Rahetgaon, often accompanied me to the villages, and we would both preach. The people of the villages hear the gospel gladly, and also remember a great deal of what is said to them. During the year I preached to about 5,000 people. Two Hindu religious fairs were visited. I have had a great many religious discussions with individuals. Our Sunday-school has averaged forty-five. We have treated 970 patients for various complaints. Since last year we have had a regular meeting here on the Lord's Day and observed the Lord's Supper. The number of Christians here is five. I hope, by the blessing of God, to see a good church here some day. I am very thankful that a new house has been erected here for us.

Pray for my work that it may increase year by year, and that many souls may be saved.

Miss Mary Thompson.—While there have been changes in the zenana work in Harda, we have about the same number of houses as formerly. The husbands of some of the women visited have been transferred to other places, and we trust that the work done in such homes may be a help to others in the places to which they have gone. Sarubai and Bhaktibai have had quite a little sickness in their homes during the year, and have not been able to do as much as in former years. We have visited about 200 homes, some of them where we had pupils, quite frequently.

This year the number learning to read has been smaller than usual, only twenty-eight having had lessons. Others would like to learn to read, but are prevented by their relatives.

The attendance at the three Sunday-schools conducted by Bhaktibai and myself varies during the year, as the pupils have to go away with their parents at times, while they are harvesting or getting materials for making baskets and brooms.

A weekly meeting is carried on for the Christian women, meeting first in one home and then in another. This has been fairly well attended throughout the year.

Miss Stella Franklin.—In May, 1904, I began town work in Damoh, and gave it all my time until the end of the year. At first I found many things to discourage me. I had been away from the town work four years. The people seemed to have forgotten me, and at first but few invited me to their homes. But gradually I came across some old acquaintances, and also made new ones. I had three of the young Christian women, recently married, to train for Bible women. The people had remembered these women as famine children, and when they saw them going with me as teachers to all castes, they were much impressed. We had a few of the wealthier women whom we visited in their purdah-houses, but the larger audiences were among the working women and children. It is impossible to give the actual number of such audiences, but while I was giving the Bible lesson, one of the young women with me would count the people. Children old enough to read and understand a little were counted. The following numbers are the monthly totals thus counted: June, 51; July, 525; August, 640; September, 1,180; October, 1,224; November, 1,450; December, 1,644. The increase in numbers shows something of the growth of the work. I found that during the week we were able to give Bible lessons to between 400 and 500 women and children.

In January, 1905, I was invited to come to Harda and assist in the work there. My sister Mildred had gone home on furlough. Mr. and Mrs. Brown had taken up the new work in Jubbulpore. Dr. and Mrs. Drummond were soon to go on furlough. Feeling that I was more needed in Harda than in Damoh, I went gladly. My formal location occurred later. The File and Kheripura schools were immediately turned over to me. The former is in a settlement of native people who work on the railway. These men have come into contact with all classes of people. Many of them are drinking men and very wicked, but they have lost much of their caste prejudices. Work here reminds one much of work among the lower classes of foreigners in the larger American cities. While they may possibly be more wicked than the higher castes, they are less bigoted. The school children are very dirty. Hundreds of people are huddled up in a small place by the railway. The Kheripura school is amongst the lowest classes of people. In March, 1905, the Girls' School was also turned over to me. Mrs. Grainger has superintended this school for the past year.

Each of these schools is full of possibilities. We have Christian teachers, but they are untrained, and need much superintendence, but all are anxious to learn. At Mr. Brown's request, since February 26, 1905, I have prepared regularly the C. E. lessons for our Hindi paper, the Christian Sahayak.

HATTA.

F. E. Stubbin.—We entered our labors in Hatta on May 1, 1904. The first part of our work consisted in getting the bungalow and outhouses finished, so that we might live in them, instead of tenting through the hot season. Our principal work throughout the year has been evangelistic. From the beginning of October we have forsaken almost every other department of work and pushed ahead with village preaching. Since we started regular camping operations we have kept a register which shows that we have preached in over ninety villages to something over 12,000 people, and were well received in all but one village, which I think is a record in itself.

We have had what is commonly called "Tent Missions" in our village work. Many times during the cold windy wintry nights have we taken everything out of our tent and had the people crowd in to overflowing and listen attentively till 11 and 12 o'clock at night. In one of the largest villages in the district, after the night's preaching, one of the head men of the village, an English-speaking educated Brahmin, before many more Brahmins of his village, stood up and said, "I want to become a Christian, but how can I? My father, mother, wife, brothers, sisters, and friends will disown me." The next night that man's cousin made a similar statement as follows: "My heart's desire is to be a Christian, but I am situated the same as my cousin." These two men only need courage to face the opposition and persecution that would be hurled against them if they came out. They have over 100 relations in the district, besides being owners of several villages. All these people would be influenced to a greater or lesser degree, if they only had the courage to take the final step. We are doing all we can to teach these men more of the way of life.

In the very next village the family pandit of these very men came to our tent to pull to pieces the sahib's religion, but before we had finished he declared that all we said was true. On my asking him why did he not take hold of such truths, he replied, "I must teach my own religion to fill my stomach, if I become a Christian I go hungry." I pointed out to him the awful position he held, but still he refuses to step out. He is very friendly and always glad to listen to us.

In another village a Brahmin schoolmaster (in fact the whole village) was exceedingly friendly and helpful. The master sold something like seventy-five Gospels for us in his school, and we preached in that village for a fortnight to interested crowds.

These are some of the encouragements of our village work. During our touring we have helped many people with medicine, for which we have been thanked over and over again. So you see though not M. D.'s, we have been able to help many poor people from pain and suffering (who otherwise would have had to suffer), by making the best use of simple remedies. After preaching in a village we always offer the gospels for sale and in this way have sold several hundred.

Zenana work was irregular, owing to so much sickness, Mrs. Stubbin having been compelled to act as doctor and nurse combined. We hope to do more in the coming year.

School work I consider unnecessary as the Government has schools in every village of any importance and there are very few villages that are more than three miles from a school, and as the greatest agency in spreading the gospel is for a man to get out and preach we decided to leave school work alone and push the preaching.

In our district we have a population of 185,000 people, of whom 25,000 are Brahmins. What are we against so many? Yet we have faith that God will give us the victory through Jesus Christ our Lord.

This is a report of seven months work, but during seven months we might have done much more if we had not had so much sickness. I have had more sick days during my seven months in Hatta than I had during the rest of my seven years in India. The same with Mrs. Stubbin.

One week, I, Mrs. Stubbin, and our two children were all sick together, and what a sight we were trying to help each other. The one grieving because he was not able to help the other more. Still we are grateful to our Heavenly Father for bringing us through these dark days and giving us once more the great gift of good health that we might do a little more for Him. In this report I would like to mention and thank Miss Clarke, of Damoh, who so kindly came to the help of Mrs. Stubbin when I was so sick and helpless with fever. Also, later on, Dr. McGavran, of Damoh, who came to our assistance in the almost hopeless case of pneumonia of our evangelist's wife. We are glad and grateful to know that we still have friends who are friends in need and thus surely friends indeed.

We want our brothers and sisters in India and all over the world to pray for the work in Hatta, and especially for these men who know the Truth and desire to follow, but lack the courage. We close with the prayer that God will forgive our failures of the past, sanctify what we are, order what we shall be, and unto Him shall be the glory through Jesus Christ our Lord.

JUBBULPORE.

G. L. Wharton.—It is an unspeakable pleasure and joy to again be able to join the advancing army of the Lord in India. On November 6, 1904, by God's blessing, I landed in Bombay. By the 11st inst. I was in Jubbulpore ready to begin my third term of service in India.

It is meet and proper, as well as a delight, to acknowledge the Lord in all our ways. It is good to note how He leads us and helps us to find the plan He has for our lives. With much gratitude, therefore, do I record the leading of the Father of lights in opening up the way for the Christian Mission to bring the Bible College and Printing Press to Jubbulpore.

Twenty-three years ago, even before coming to this land of great need and opportunity, the Lord laid this blessing for India upon my heart. Now it is a great pleasure to see how He is bringing it to pass. My report is of what the Lord has done in permitting me to have a share, though small it may be, in this good work during the past few months.

It is now, as it has been in the past years, a thought and labor of love. With an eager body of students thirsting for the knowledge of God, the work is a perfect delight. With the daily meeting with these young men in prayer, and with the heart to heart class-work, teaching "The Life of Christ," "Church History," "Modern Missions," "Bible Geography," etc., the Heavenly Teacher has given us all a rich blessing.

As I look at these young men, I can not but exclaim, "Behold what the Lord hath wrought!" For these students, all of them with only two or three exceptions, have come from heathen parents and surroundings. Only a few years ago they were under the power of idolatry. Many were ignorant, starving orphans from the famine districts. They are all the fruit of the faith, teaching and training of our missionaries. Let there be much praise and prayer to the Lord for His saving grace.

One very interesting and useful part of the college work is our Bazaar preaching. At first we all went into the heart of the city together, making a large preaching band. Afterwards we divided the students into groups of six each. By this means we sometimes had preaching going on in three places at a time. We find the fountain in the center of the city a fine place for this kind of preaching. You can think of us meeting here often, "holding forth the word of Life" to thousands of Hindus and Mohammedans. Pray that "the word of the Lord may run and be glorified."

G. W. Brown.—Up to July 21st of last year, Mrs. Brown and I were stationed in Harda. On that date, according to our instructions at the last convention, approved by the Executive Committee in Cincinnati, we left Harda for Jubbulpore. Upon leaving the station, the work of the English church was made over to Dr. Drummond, and that of the schools to Mr. Grainger. We had been in Harda a little less than four years, and the English work had been under our care for the entire period. Though this work has its encouraging features, and its results are manifest in the lives of the church members, it is a difficult work on account of the constant changes and transfers taking place.

The boys' schools were under my supervision for nearly three years. During this period there was a constant growth, and although they had suffered much from plague during the preceding year, still, when they were turned over to Mr. Grainger, they seemed to have recovered all the ground they had lost. The most marked progress was in the high school, which had been established by Mr. Coffman the year before I took charge of the schools.

This is the third year that I have had charge of Bible Training School, now known as the Christian Bible College. It is the work I enjoy above all other work in India, and the one in which I believe one's influence may be felt most widely.

Immediately after our arrival in Jubbulpore, the Bible School students were assembled here, and the work of teaching them begun. On the first of August six students gathered. They were all lodged in houses on the compound, and the recitations were held in a small room in the bungalow which was set apart as a study. A short time after this work was begun, plague broke out in Jubbulpore. We had previously begun a Sunday-school about a mile from our bungalow, but after carrying it on a few weeks it had to be closed. In October several other students were ready to enter the Bible School, but owing to the presence of plague and the fact that we had no more room on our compound, they could not come to Jubbulpore until the first of current year. Since that date there have been eighteen students in attendance. Three years ago, when this work was begun, it was difficult to find any students at all ready to take it up. There was no course of study, and very little in the way of text-books. Much has been done to better things in all these particulars. In order to accommodate the new students, and also furnish room for the press, it was found necessary to rent another bungalow. Since the arrival of G. L. Wharton my work has been lightened, but I have still taught four classes daily. This task, the training of young men for evangelistic work, is one of the most important things the Mission has before it.

In March, 1904, it was determined that the Mission should begin the publication of a weekly Christian paper for our growing Christian community. As chairman of the committee appointed to carry on this work, I was called upon to make arrangements for this publication. Upon our removal to Jubbulpore, it was at first thought that we might be able to get our printing done by contract at one of the presses in the city. But it was found impossible to have this done satisfactorily. Consequently, a small press was hired, some type purchased, and the issue of the paper begun in December. At the same time we began to publish Sunday-school lesson leaflets. Most of the matter for the paper and leaflet is furnished by the other members of the committee, but I have had to contribute regularly, as well as to act as editor and manager. This work has taken considerable time, but now seems to be fairly well established. At present we are issuing about 300 copies of the paper, the "Christian Sahayak," weekly, and about 1,200 copies of lesson leaflet. In connection with the press, two boys have been brought from Damoh, and are now learning printing.

Considerable time was also spent in visiting the several stations, and auditing their accounts, this being a part of the duties of the Secretary of the Advisory Committee. Efforts to secure land or buildings for our work have also taken time. As yet we are not permanently located.

As we stay longer in this city, the impression grows upon us that our coming here was a wise move, and the outlook for the future is good.

Mrs. G. W. Brown.—So far I have done very little since coming to Jubbulpore. I have endeavored to have the single students keep their rooms clean, and to look after the health of the wives and children of the married ones. I visit the Native Woman's Hospital and also the General Hospital. Two of our servants, a man and wife, were baptized by Mr. Brown. March 24th, in Elgin Hospital, a little son was born to Benji and Sukwari. Benji is from the Damoh Orphanage, Sukwari from Bilaspur Orphanage. He is now a student in the Bible College and she a true helpmate. We can not speak too highly of the sweet spirit which has been shown in this home. I am sure they are destined to do much good in this land for the Master. This is our first Jubbulpore baby and we see in him one more for Christ's service.

MUNGELI.

E. M. Gordon.—The past year has not been marked by any very special incidents. It is true there has been one very striking conversion. A young Hindu teacher came forward and confessed Christ in the face of great opposition, and he has stood steadfast. But on the whole, things have followed their usual course. We are confident that a good year's work has been accomplished. The people have been blessed with an abundant harvest. The Christian community has undoubtedly prospered greatly in the things which are seen and temporal. We trust that it has also prospered in the things which are unseen and eternal.

Church Work.—Excepting for the interruption on account of the plague, the Sunday-schools and services have been regularly held and well attended. It is encouraging to see some Christian tradesman when he has done well in his trade come forward and make a special offering to the church by way of a thank-offering. Such has been the case several times this year. Slowly, but surely, the idea of their own responsibility to the church is growing on the people. There are still many who think that the mission is the "father-mother," the provider of all needs, both temporal and spiritual. But this idea, at one time very strong, is gradually dying down, and we hope the time will come when it will entirely disappear. The development of the idea of self-support in a growing native church is one of the most important problems which face the missionary. What we are endeavoring to avoid is an ephemeral self-support, a self-support of mushroom growth, which may look encouraging in an annual report, but has no existence in the hearts of the people. What we are striving for and gradually attaining to is a self-support which comes with the teaching of many years, a self-support which is rooted in the convictions of the people, which, like the banian trees around us, will be deep-rooted and self-propagating. For a real substantial self-support we have worked for many years and will have to work for many years to come.

The Day Schools.—The four schools we have had for sometime past have continued as usual. The plague interfered with this work also. One of the schools was allowed $500 by our Society for a new building. This is now completed and will soon be occupied. It is an immense improvement on the old mud hut we used formerly. The Government grants-in-aid of this work have been continued and have been augmented by a special grant for libraries.

The Leper Asylum.—The number of inmates in our two asylums has risen to eighty-nine. These asylums are one as regards funds and management, but they are situated in two places, nine miles apart, in order that the men may be apart from the women. The Government of the country encourages this work with a liberal grant, and the remaining funds are supplied by the Mission to Lepers, with headquarters in Edinburgh. Our Society is responsible for the management alone. In connection with the leper work, we are often asked this question: "Can you really do anything to help the lepers? Is not theirs an incurable disease?" We reply, "Though we have not yet known a leper to be healed, we have immensely alleviated their sufferings." During the past year some have come to us with "putrifying sores" in the fullest sense of the term. In two or three months the sores have been completely healed. The disease has been stayed, but not cured. Lives have been prolonged, closing hours, which would otherwise have been full of suffering, have been made bearable. There is also a negative side to this work for the lepers. By every leper we shelter we are saving two or three more would-be lepers in time to come. Recently I admitted to the asylum three brothers, all of whom are lepers. They had an uncle who had the disease. He used to visit their home. Now all three nephews are lepers in a bad way. Besides the physical side of the work, there is, of course, the spiritual side also. Many have come to know Christ as their Savior. They have the comfort which comes from the knowledge of sins forgiven. They receive grace to drink with patience and resignation the bitter cup which has been given them.

Our Out-Station.—Pendridih, our out-station, has continued to grow and increase. There is now a considerable Christian community at this place. In fact the child bids fair to outgrow the parent, for in some respects the work at the out-station is more encouraging than that at Mungeli. The church attendance is large and regular. There is a brotherly feeling amongst all the residents there.

It is impossible to tabulate the work of the past year in figures or dollars and cents. There has been a work of character building both individual and collective, both as regards the people and as regards the missionaries. Much patience has been required. Many difficulties have been overcome. Things which years ago seemed impossible are now an accomplished fact. Faith is being exercised to accomplish still greater things in the future. At all times Christ has been with us. We have endeavored to do His will.

Dr. Anna Gordon.—Statistics for the past year: In-patients, 464; out-patients; new cases, 10,023; operations, 290; total, 10,777; fees, rupees, 186. This past year's work has been full of interest. Notwithstanding an epidemic of plague which broke out in Mungeli town during the latter part of the year there has been a decided increase in every department of the hospital

As soon as plague broke out the people took the advice of the authorities and left their houses, dispersing to the surrounding villages. For a time the town was practically empty, and the attendance at the outdoor dispensary fell off considerably. The spread of the disease was stayed by the people getting away in good time. The treatment for plague was far from satisfactory. The most experienced doctors in India are unanimous in their opinion that up to the present no specific remedy for this disease has been discovered. The treatment of this sickness is rendered more difficult by the patients themselves neglecting strict injunctions given to them by the physician. I treated a high caste woman for this disease and the case seemed most hopeful. To my surprise, when I called one morning, I was told that the woman, in her delirium, had jumped out of an open window thirty feet from the ground. The result, of course, was fatal and was largely due to the neglect of the relatives. During the epidemic there was great fear that the dire disease would spread amongst the Christians. But sanitary precautions were taken and a prayer meeting was held. We are thankful to report that not one Christian was attacked by plague.

A preaching service has been held for the out-patients every morning at the dispensary. No direct conversion can be attributed to this means, though there has certainly been a breaking down of ignorance and old standing prejudices and superstitions.

The instruction given to the in-patients and their friends has been more hopeful and has borne fruit. One young man with advanced tuberculosis accepted Christ as his Savior. He sent for me late one night while in great distress and we prayed with him. This brought much comfort to his soul. He did not live to have the test of accepting Christ openly in baptism, but I believe that he is counted with the redeemed in glory. Another young man who was saved from an acute attack of pneumonia by treatment at the hospital is very grateful and exhibits a keen interest in our teaching, and will, I hope, soon be baptized with his wife.

Shamkuar, the orphan leper girl from Bilaspur, was treated with leprolin obtained from Captain Rost, of Rangoon, Burmah. The result has been an undoubted improvement, though she is not cured. I regret that for the present the Government of India has stopped the supply of leprolin and further treatment in this case can not be continued, consequently the results are indefinite.

In closing this medical report, I wish to mention two special needs. The one is a small dispensary building in the town proper for the treatment of women and children only. The other need is an operating room at the hospital which will help us to take in more surgical cases. In addition to my medical work, I have continued two classes for Christian women. One is a Bible class in the Sunday-school, and the other is a Dorcas class, held every Wednesday afternoon. Both classes are helpful and the women delect in attending them. For health and strength granted and for continued opportunities for work, I thank God to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Miss Marston.—During the past year I have continued the daily Bible lessons to the two senior classes in the Mungeli school. The older boys and girls seem to take a real interest in the lessons, and are attentive and answer intelligently as a rule. The girls' sewing class continues. The girls seem to prefer knitting comforters, etc., to doing plain needlework. But they are learning to do both. The Sunday-school class of the older boys and the one among the leper women in the asylum give me great joy. It is so very little that one can do for the lepers, and one longs to bring some light and gladness into their darkened lives and to make them acquainted personally with the Light of the World. Like other phases of mission work, this, too, needs patience and prayer and the presence and power of the Holy Spirit.

AKITA.

E. S. Stevens.—The past year has been one full of encouragement. Our evangelists Kudo and Suto were very successful. Akita City was without an evangelist during half the year. However, I trained some of the members into active service, and with my preaching and their zeal we have made some progress. In May, Mr. S. Takagi took up the duties of pastor. The Akita and Yokote members contribute somewhat toward his support. We have added more new members than at any time during ten years, and the zeal of both new and old members is gratifying. The war has had the effect of committing the people more than ever to Christianity, and the Christians, now more than at any time in our recollection, want to do something on their own initiative; at the same time their co-operation is all that could be desired. We have increased preaching places by five new points. The railroad is completed and all along that line we can keep meetings weekly, where before the work was desultory. Mr. and Mrs. Erskine have been with us since October and they are already indispensable to our station. The new church at Shonai is a great blessing. The attendance has been increased and young men are looking forward to becoming evangelists. Mr. Suto is there and is the right man in the right place. Ten years ago there was not a Christian teacher in any of the schools of this prefecture, but to-day there are about twenty, and at least five times as many more are so favorable that the people think they are Christians.

Dr. Nina A. Stevens.—This has been a year of much joy and work. I can not write all that has been accomplished, but my women's meetings have been better attended and the ladies are interested in Bible study and in the moral culture of children. I started a kindergarten, and it has been my daily joy to teach and train these little minds. It is the best means I have found of reaching the homes of the Akita people. Our room is too small and we have only twenty-one at present. We have a bright lovely young woman in a training school for kindergarten work. At present Misses Kawamura and Sato are my assistants. We have two other young women in training schools for evangelists among women. Miss Terada, who returned from America on account of poor health, has improved so as to be able to teach somewhat. Henry has been my daily pupil with only two interruptions, once when I was called professionally to Hirosaki, and once to Sapporo, in Hokaido. I have written a few tracts for mothers' meetings.

Jessie J. Asbury.—The work of the past year has been carried on much the same as the year before. The four schools have undergone some changes, all working out for better results, I believe. One of our Sunday-school girls has been baptized and several more are about ready. The boys who formerly caused us so much trouble, and really broke up one school, have become quite good boys, not only attending the Sunday-school, but the preaching service also. I pray that some among them may become obedient this year. I have had for my helper this year, Miss Kawamura, the second daughter of our faithful evangelist of Akozu. We have gone together nearly every day to homes of the Christians or those whom we were trying to lead. They think more good is done in house to house work than in regular meetings, especially among the women. Daily visiting has been my special work this year. I have made three trips into the country, finding many ready to listen to the new teaching. The railroad is finished to Yokote, and we have regular meetings there every month, both a women's meeting and the preaching for men. The Red Cross nurses are very earnest here. During the past year nine nurses were baptized in Akita, nearly all members of the Red Cross Society. More doors are not only open, but more people are saying, "Please come to my house," than we can possibly go to visit. This has been a very happy year of work. May God bless the seed that has been sown and grant us strength for greater work during the coming year, is my prayer.

W. H. and Mrs. Erskine.—On reaching Akita, October 21st, we began the study of the language, upon which we have put our best strength during the entire year. K. Nakagami, a young man of Miss Johnson's church, was chosen as my teacher. We were most fortunate in securing such a man, for he not only did the work of language teacher, but also preached at least once every Lord's Day, beside giving his afternoons to teaching the Bible. During May, Mr. Nakagami and I took a trip to Honjo. Three evening and two afternoon meetings were held with good attendance and attention. My part was to sing, distribute tracts and study the people. Every Lord's Day evening I had charge of one of the preaching places, and preached through an interpreter very often during the year. Mrs. Erskine taught English twice a week. One of her English students was baptized just before we left for the mountains. I taught two English Bible classes and was at home to English students every Saturday afternoon. As many as seven came at a time. Mrs. Erskine's language teacher, Miss Sato, a young Christian, as well as a young woman of Sendai, is developing into a Bible woman. She has had charge of two Bible schools in Akita and has helped in the women's meetings, and Mrs. Stevens' kindergarten, has made calls, and in many ways interested young girls in Christianity. She enters our Girls' School this fall. Mrs. Erskine attended Mrs. Stevens' women's meetings.

The Lord has been gracious unto us in giving us both the best of health. The fellowship with the Stevens' household has been helpful and inspiring. In all things, the year has been indeed a happy one and the lines have fallen unto us in pleasant places. We submit this report with thanksgiving for His blessings in the past year, with prayer for the continuance of these blessings, and with daily remembrance of the loved ones in the home land.

OSAKA.

C. S. Weaver.—During this period our station has suffered a loss of workers through the removal of R. L. Pruett and family to Tokyo. Another new mission home has been built, thus giving us two foreign residences in the city. At present the Pruett home is not occupied by any of our workers. A family should be sent to fill this vacancy. Land has been purchased for a church and the coming year will witness the building of a house of worship. There have been seventeen baptisms during the period. In common with all other stations, our work has suffered loss because of our members being called to the war. Some of these will return later, and some will never meet with us on earth. Like many other missionaries, we have worked in the military hospitals giving comfort to the wounded soldiers. The real membership of our church in Osaka is probably not increased any over last year, there having been as many changes and removals as baptisms. This is one of the most discouraging features of the work. It is the aim of every missionary to some day see self-support a reality among the Japanese Christians. The constant changes make this quite difficult of realization. We have plenty of strength and energy, but its conservation is most difficult. During the period included in this report two preaching places have been maintained. About twenty miles out of Osaka we have opened a station, but at present can report nothing except a few meetings which have been conducted. One of our young men has entered Drake College in Tokyo to prepare for the ministry. This is a hopeful sign. Reports from Dean Guy say that the young man is doing quite well. The national spirit among the Japanese makes it imperative that we shall have an educated native ministry. The missionaries have their part to fulfill and their work will not be done yet for many years, but a strong Japanese church is impossible without the co-operation in heart and mind of the Japanese brothers and sisters. For whatever success has been achieved in the work, to God be the praise and glory now and forever. Amen.

Mrs. Gustine Courson Weaver.—Five years of missionary life is ended and things seem no longer strange or new. One of the sweetest joys to a missionary has been ours this year—that of building for one's self a home, although a trial of patience and grace through the long waiting months—yet, a joy. The first of October we moved into our new house. Miss Bertha Clawson has shared our work and home with us during the year. We have had the joy of having several members of our mission visit and encourage us in our work during the winter months. This has been a needed blessing, because we three have been alone since October, when R. L. Pruett and family moved to Tokyo.

We have had most interesting meetings with women since the Christmas holidays. A class of twenty-five women, many of them members of Mrs. Pruett's cooking class, have been meeting with us regularly each week for cooking lessons. Besides the regular cooking lesson, we always have a Scripture lesson, prayers, and songs, and during the winter we have made twenty scrap books and two hundred and fifty red cross caps for the wounded soldiers. We have also had a class of Red Cross nurses who have come to our house for meetings. From a small class of girls who came twice a month for sewing school, two girls have become Christians. The Sunday-school always seems most hopeful work—over one hundred Japanese children celebrated Christmas with us this year, in our two native preaching places. This year the war has brought us great opportunities to give Christian comfort and cheer, as well as direct seed sowing in the distribution of Bibles among the soldiers. We made it a rule to devote at least one afternoon a week to the soldiers' work. Many times we have rejoiced at the success of our efforts. We usually have carried our "Baby Organ" along with us into the hospitals, and distributed song sheets to the soldiers who gathered about us. Thus the gospel was sung to many hundreds who had never heard of it before. Our little native church, with the aid of the missionaries, contributed forty-five "comfort bags" to the outgoing soldiers, each containing a Bible. During the year I have had one music pupil and a small class of girls for English study. With the comforts of our splendid home and the prospect of a new church building during the coming year, we feel that we have great reason to rejoice. May our small efforts be blessed by Him who giveth the increase.

Bertha Clawson.—In November of last year I returned to Japan after a year of rest at home. This has been a year of wonderful opportunities for work in our great city of Osaka. Just before the Christmas holidays there were in the hospitals of Osaka alone, 15,000 sick and wounded soldiers at one time. The missionaries and Christian workers were allowed to visit them freely to minister both to their physical and spiritual wants. As there were congregated in these hospitals soldiers from every nook and corner of the empire, it has been a wonderful opportunity for preaching the gospel even unto "the uttermost parts" of Japan. It has been my privilege to assist in this work of trying to bring comfort and cheer to these brave men. In Mrs. Weaver's home we have had a large class of Japanese Red Cross hospital nurses who are working in the Osaka military hospitals. Out of the nineteen of these women who came to us, only three had ever heard of the significance of the cross which is the badge of their order. It was a great joy to be able to point them to Him who died upon the cross for them.

For the few months that I was in Osaka I assisted in the work as best I could in the chapels, the home, and the general work among the women and children. Some little time was spent in planning for our Girls' School, which begins in October of this year in Tsukiji, Tokyo. I removed from Osaka in June, and after October 1st, my address will be No. 14 A, Tsukiji, Tokyo, the temporary building in which our Japan Christian Girls' School will be born. We most heartily thank the givers who have made possible our school this year, and we ask your prayers upon the work of training the girls that shall be placed under our care, and upon us as teachers. In another year we hope to have our new buildings completed so that we may begin all the various departments of the work. On account of the lack of room and proper equipment, for the first part of the year we shall begin only the Bible training department. The wonderful possibilities of the work in which we are about to engage, thrill all our hearts more and more as the days come and go.

Our thoughts and prayers are constantly with our loved ones at home who stand behind the work and upon them and the interest that they have in it, will depend to a great degree the success of this, our newest missionary enterprise in Japan.

SENDAI AND SENDAI DISTRICT.

M. B. Madden.—What a year of war this has been! What multitudes of able-bodied men have been sent forth from our midst! What numbers of sick and wounded have come back! How many have been laid low never to rise again! How sad that the twentieth century sees such cruelty, such barbarity! We are for peace, and our work is for the bringing in of the era of peace.

Twenty-seven of our boys are at the front, and at the last report not one had been killed or wounded. Several of our members are in the garrisons and have not gone to the front yet, but may be sent forth at any moment. Among these is one of our ministerial students.

Sendai.—After a year's work, Mr. Okuno entered the Bible School to better prepare himself for his life's work. Mrs. Okuno becomes a teacher in Miss Rioch's school, also doing the work of a Bible woman. For two months I did the preaching and church work. Then Mr. K. Takagi, who has been working at Akita for several years, came to Sendai. The best feature of the work since his coming is the remarkably regular attendance of the resident members at the Sunday morning services.

The main event of the year in our Sendai work was the dedication of our new church building. We have a nice building with a seating capacity of over two hundred, in a splendid location. At the dedication service we were favored with the presence of the mayor, who spoke words of praise and encouragement. Brothers Hagin, Guy, and Ishikawa, from Tokyo, were present, and rendered able service and helped to make the day a glad and successful one. All the evangelists from the district were with us, and they returned to their different places of work much encouraged. This is the first time that the five main points in the district are supplied with resident workers and the first time that they have met together. We are now well equipped for greater work.

Akazu.—This is the oldest out-station in the district. For fourteen years Mr. Kawamura, "John the Baptist," has patiently worked. Their cup of joy was full on the occasion of the dedication of their new building in September of last year. That they raised one-half the money themselves gave them joy and increased their self-respect and taught them a lesson as to what they could do if they tried. Two of Kawamura San's daughters are now efficient workers in Sendai and Akita.

Fukushima.—The evangelist, Mr. Hasegawa, has been sick a great deal this year. But despite this fact, good progress has been made. Several school teachers have been baptized. The Sunday-school has been especially well conducted as there are several qualified teachers. The Christians are making a great effort to raise money to enable them to receive the grant of money for a church building made by the F. C. M. S. I think they will succeed, and that next year we will be able to report the dedication. They are to secure the land and raise 300 yen, and then the grant of 700 yen will be theirs. We should have a resident missionary at Fukushima. We long to go back to Fukushima.

Haranomachi.—Mr. Tatebi, who from an engine cleaner became an evangelist and did such good work here for several years, entered the Bible School and took charge of the work in a town near the school. Mr. S. Egawa, from Tokyo, took up the work. He is a young man and this is his first experience, but he is doing good work. One day he wrote to me that he wanted to give up the work of the ministry and wanted me to come and preach the next Sunday. I went and found him very much discouraged. I preached in the evening to a good audience, but a great part of my sermon was to the Elijah. It did good. He would try again. In two weeks he wrote me a happy letter that four persons had been baptized, the first fruits of his ministry. Now he is happy in his work. The Christians here are also trying to raise money for a building. Their best members are in the war, but they hope to succeed.

Sanuma.—This town is an important one and we have been working under the disadvantage of having no resident worker. Mr. Sawaki, one of our Sendai boys in the Bible School, had to stop school on account of ill health. He came to Sanuma and began Sunday-school work. Soon over 100 children were coming, not once only on Sunday morning, but three and four times a week. It is one of the best Sunday-schools I have seen in Japan. Mr. Sawaki was a school teacher and has special tact and skill with children. His Bible class and other departments of work are good, too. We need a building costing about $500 here.

Izuno.—Mr. Nikaido, the leader of the Christians here, gave up his position as an official in the county office and entered the Bible School. He was much missed and the work had to be done by outside help. Progress, however, has been made.

Kori.—On account of the illness of Mr. Hasegawa, this station has not made much progress. P. A. Davey and I held a large meeting in the theater and sold many copies of the New Testament. We have fruit from this meeting.

General.—I have not traveled as much this year as last, on account of building in Sendai. Mr. Davey and I made a two weeks' trip, preaching in two new towns and visiting all the stations. Mr. Hagin also accompanied me on a visit to nearly all the regular stations. Mr. Guy and Ishikawa San help us greatly. Our work prospers because of the help of these brethren.

We have eight students in preparation for the ministry. The Bible School is already helping out our lack of Japanese workers. Five girls are also in school, two self-supporting, two half-self-supporting, and one supported by us. We have several candidates for our Girls' School, as soon as it is opened, most of them either entirely or partially self-supporting.

Special.—I have continued as Chairman of the Union Evangelistic work of Sendai. Two good campaigns were held in the tent and hundreds heard the gospel. I have also served as Chairman of the Committee on Hospital Visitation, but have done but little hospital work myself. I have arranged with the officials for others. In this way I have met the chief of staff, heads of the hospitals, and other officials. All have been kind and courteous and ready to welcome all of our efforts for the sick and wounded. I am a member of the committee for the fund raised in America for the sick and wounded soldiers' families. Thirty homes of soldiers were visited and relief given where needed. This work will grow as the war continues.

Particularly Important.—Comparing the report of last year with this, there is a gain of 325 per cent in the amount of money raised in the field. This record, made in war times, ought to increase our appreciation of our Japanese brethren and be a cause of thanksgiving.

The accessions to the churches are just 50 per cent greater than last year. The two records mentioned above will be hard to excel next year, but for the sake of the King and His Kingdom, we shall strive to do so.

Our greetings to our brethren everywhere. Pray for us. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with his disciples in all the world.

Maude W. Madden.—A primary school was taught mornings for missionaries' boys. Bible classes were held as follows: Monday evenings for artisans' wives, Tuesday afternoons for professional men's wives and school teachers, followed by lessons in cooking; Friday afternoons for high school girls. This class became a C. E. Society, the Christian girls leading a half hour's service before the regular Bible lesson by the Bible woman. They also made picture scrap books for the soldiers in the hospitals, and sometimes sang for them. By request a Bible class was held twice a month, Thursday afternoons, for women whose husbands are officers and guards in the State penitentiary. These people live in a compound of nearly a hundred families beyond the city. Two baptisms have resulted so far.

The two Sendai Sunday-schools and the five others in the district are in fine condition. We are just now finding teachers from among the older pupils who have become Christians. The new church was partly furnished by the women of the different classes.

Miss Kawamura, Bible woman, made monthly trips to Haranomachi to teach the women. She went twice to Akozu district, the last time speaking to over 500 people in three towns. I went once to each of these places. I took my own laddies three days to the seashore near Sendai in April, so they could see the sweet wild flowers growing. I have done a little house to house visiting; Miss Kawamura has done a great deal. We both went occasionally to the hospitals. The five girls in the Baptist school will be transferred to our own school when it opens in Tokyo. They hope to become Bible women.

One earnest Christian girl died in January. Her family being wealthy Buddhists, we were not allowed to give her Christian burial. She had brought several of her schoolmates to Christ. Toshi Wada, partly supported by C. E. Societies at home, died in April. Her class graduated the same month. Toshi had been church organist in Hongo and active in other church work before she died. Both these girls died of consumption just when their lives were beginning to count for Christ.

Women baptized as follows: Sendai, 12; Fukushima, 7; Haranomachi, 7; Akozu, 3; Sanuma, 1; and one from the Baptists, makes a total of 31. One woman from Fukushima has been in our Sunday-school there from its beginning. She will enter our school to become a Bible woman.

Last July I was asked by the W. C. T. U. to organize a department of mercy for Japan, an arduous but necessary work. Japanese are often cruel to living beasts, though they may worship them dead. Literature teaching kindness versus cruelty had to be obtained, translated into Japanese, printed, and distributed. I translated five leaflets, one of which was a story for children; 1,000 copies of each were printed. I also made translations monthly for one page of Shonin Shimpō (Youth's Herald), a Sunday-school paper. Golden Chopsticks, a little book of Japanese children's songs, with their music, was translated into English and printed, hoping to interest American children more deeply in the "Wee Ones of Japan."

When United States Minister and Mrs. Griscom visited Sendai, it was my privilege to supply the bread, rolls; and pudding for the dinner of forty plates given them by the Sendai missionaries. Pardon me for saying the things received special praise. Later one of my receipts was requested by one of the legation secretaries at a picnic given in his honor. This is reported because the first examination question asked me by the F. C. M. S. was, "Can you make good bread?"

By the blessing of God our family has been kept in good health during the year. It has been a blessed year, but the work accomplished seems as nothing to the overwhelming amount Miss Kawamura and I, because of the limitations of the flesh, were compelled to leave undone.

While the older boys were at lessons, wee Garfield stood almost daily at the gate distributing Sunday-school papers, tracts, and New Testament portions to passing soldiers. This was a self-appointed task, more fascinating to him than any play. He would only leave his post, if a soldier was in sight, when his supply of papers was exhausted.

TOKYO.

R. L. and Mrs. Pruett.—This, the tenth annual report of our work in Japan, represents the most auspicious year in the history of missions in the Far East. Never before have such privileges been granted to missionaries; never have so many calls been made for Christian literature. There is a widespread interest in the teaching of the Man of Galilee. The people love to hear the gospel story when told in the language of sincerity. There is no limit to the amount of work one may do.

During the year we were compelled to leave Osaka on account of the health of Lowell, our little boy. On the recommendation of the physician in charge, and the mission in Japan, we went to Tokyo. We are happy to report that Lowell has recovered and that since coming to Tokyo he has been entirely free from asthma.

Our work in Osaka was prospered of the Lord. The gospel was preached and many hearing, believed and were baptized. Mrs. Pruett organized and taught one of the best cooking classes in Osaka. She also taught the Sunday-school children how to sing and knit. Her work was much appreciated by the Japanese ladies of Tennoji district. This work was left in the hands of Mrs. Weaver.

On our removal to Tokyo, the mission put us in charge of the Hongo work, and Shizuoka and Otamachi out-stations. I have preached regularly at Hongo to good audiences. Some have heeded the gospel call. The best way to preach the gospel in Japan is to preach it. We can not depend on others to do it for us. When God wanted the world saved he came himself in the person of Jesus Christ to do that work. We must evangelize Japan.

Mrs. Pruett's work in Hongo is in a healthy, growing condition. The Sunday-school is one of the best and largest in the city. The women's meeting is well attended. Deep interest is manifested in all departments of the work. A number of our most faithful boys have been taken and sent to the seat of war. They correspond with us until they are killed or return wounded. Five have died during the year. Our numbers have thus been cut down, but we are doing the best we can.

The out-stations have been visited. The Japanese evangelists are doing the best they can. Their temptations are many, but they do well. In their noble work we have little to criticise, but much to commend.

The greatest need of Japan is not more money, but more men and women. Experience has taught us that men can not be hired to preach the gospel. Let the churches in America send more consecrated men and women over here, that they may live the gospel into the hearts and consciences of the people. The gospel of the Son of God will not find entrance into Japan in any other way. We pray the Lord of the harvest to send more laborers into this vineyard.

Mary Riach.—Until within one month at the close of the year, when the Koisikawa Chapel work was handed over to Mr. Hagin, my work had been practically the same this year as during the past five years, with the exception of an additional class or two, and the oversight of Miss Oldham's little day school during her absence on furlough.

In Koishikawa district, with Mr. Hasegawa, our evangelist, and the members' help, the chapel work has been carried on as rigorously as ever. The faithful members never failed to be present at the prayer meeting on Wednesday evening for mutual help in the spiritual life. My Bible class before the preaching services on Sunday night grew till it nearly filled the chapel. The Bible class of the Y. M. C. A. of the Formosan University also kept up in interest and numbers throughout the year. The Sunday-school had the same faithful teachers as last year until the superintendent was called to the war and his main assistant took seriously ill. Others, however, came forward and carried on the work acceptably. The war caused many of the older pupils in my day school on Matsugae cho to leave in order to help support the family. At the opening of the new term this year, the younger brothers and sisters, having reached the school age, came in full force, compelling us to order new desks and seats. We have now 118 pupils, the utmost capacity of the school. The three teachers, two of whom hold Government certificates, are not only faithful and efficient teachers, but are fine trusty Bible women as well. Calling on the mothers in their homes and on the sick and poor in the neighborhood, and holding women's meetings have taken up all their spare time from school duties. Of the girls under our care, one has been called to her reward; the remainder have been kept in health and all have received praise from the school teachers for faithful work and good standing in class.

Miss Oldham's day school, with its Sunday-school and women's meetings in connection, has been looked after. This work has a splendid leavening influence in the squalid neighborhood in which it is situated.

In common with others, most of my spare time has been given to working and getting others to work for the soldiers at the front; in making socks, cholera bands, comfort bags, etc., and in bringing the gospel and little comforts to the wounded soldiers in the hospital not far from our home. The closing year of my second term of service has been rich in blessed experiences in many ways, and more and more do I thank our Heavenly Father for the gracious privilege of being a co-laborer in this part of His vineyard.

Fred E. Hagin.—Five years have passed in Japan, and the last one has been the busiest. It has presented the most open doors, the most varied experiences, and given the largest joy in service. I continued in charge of the Hongo church till February, when this work was turned over to R. L. Pruett, when I took charge of the church in Suido cho. This work is near our home and its convenience makes the work very satisfactory. The church has a new organ donated in part by friends at Ansley, Neb. A lot will soon be bought for this work. Mrs. Hagin's Bible class (started by Miss Rioch) has an average attendance of seventy-five. The church raised $35 for self-support, and has had twelve additions. We have a small Bible store near the church on a busy corner.

Owing to the furlough of P. A. Davey, his work in Takehaya cho has fallen to my care. There were seven additions and $25 raised for self-support. The members are zealous and hoping for a church building. Work has been carried on at Dairokuten, a preaching place among the poor, by myself and helpers. The Sunday-school is flourishing. I have visited the out-station of Toride regularly through the year. Mr. Maeda, a student of Sei Gakuin, has started a good Sunday-school there. The mission has permitted me to open work at Kofu, an important city of 40,000 on the railroad west of Tokyo.

In company with P. A. Davey, I visited Shizuoka, and with M. B. Madden made a profitable journey through the Sendai district. I have also been in Osaka and Nagoya during the year. My work on committees has been quite extended. I was a member of the Executive Committee which distributed the $22 sent for war sufferers from New York City, and have served as chairman of the Student Volunteer League of Japan.

Last fall we were visited by a number of missionaries en route to China, and recently we had the pleasure of seeing the Drummoids on their return from India. Nothing has given me more delight than the baptism of my language teacher. Language study has taken most of my time.

TAKINOGAWA, TOKIO.

Report of the Sei Gakuin (Drake College).

H. H. Guy.—It gives me great pleasure to hand in the second annual report of the Sei Gakuin. In spite of the fact that the war has thinned our numbers to a considerable extent, we have been able to do good work during the year. The students have all proven the wisdom of their selection. The work both in and outside the class room has been done to the satisfaction of the faculty. In addition to the regular work, members of the faculty have given special lectures to the students on the general subject of Our Piea. The lectures given by Professor Ishikawa will be printed and distributed among the churches. Work in the Life of Christ, New Testament, Exegesis, Greek, the Counter Reformation, in the second year, has been satisfactorily carried out. In the first year the work has been the same as last year. We are pleased with the fact that the student body represents every place where we have churches in Japan.

The work of the students outside the class room has been very encouraging indeed. The work in the two Sunday-schools carried on by them has been of the very best character. In the Sunday-school at the Sei Gakuin there has been an average attendance of about 150 with an enrollment of 224. They have also worked in the Hongo church, Takehaya Kogisho and the Kogisho at Oji.

The English school has been well attended. In this school, besides the teachers in the Bible school, we have employed three other men. Several of the students of this school have become Christians, and many of them have become enquirers.

The Takinogawa church, really a part of the work done by the Sei Gakuin, has made itself known in this part of the city during the year. While we are just outside the city limits proper, yet we have drawn hearers from the nearer parts of the city. The preaching by Mr. Ishikawa, Mr. McCoy, Mr. Miyazaki, and others, has been a very strong drawing card. We have added to this church Mr. S. Takagi and Mr. M. Hirano during the year. Mr. Takagi has become the pastor at Akita, and Mr. Hirano is teacher in the English school and secretary to the Dean. Among the additions many have come from among the young men, some of whom have already proven good workers in the church.

Work among the women has been carried on by Mrs. Guy. She has held women's meetings at our home and at Oji. These have been attended by the better class of women. She has also held some special classes for young girls from the homes near our place. Mrs. Guy has also had charge of the Sunday-schools and that work speaks for itself.

Such, in brief, is the work done by those connected with the Sei Gakuin. May the good Father forgive the failings and add his blessing.

R. D. and Mrs. McCoy.—We arrived at Tokyo and at our Takinogawa Mission Station, which is just outside the city proper, on October 8, 1904. Our chief work during the year has been that usually assigned to new missionaries—language study. This we have pursued both with the aid of private teachers in our home, and a Japanese Language School for Foreigners, which I have attended during the last three months. Besides studying the language, I have spent six hours each week during the year teaching English in Drake College night school. For a part of the year I conducted a class in English Bible. I preached a few times through an interpreter. Mrs. McCoy taught instrumental music to some of the Bible school students, and conducted vocal classes in the Drake College night school during the spring term. The first year's work seems void of results, as results are usually counted in mission work. It is a time of foundation building; the superstructure has not yet appeared. We have both been blessed with health during the year, and have greatly enjoyed our work. We trust the Lord for continued blessing during the coming year.

SENDAGI, HONGO, TOKIO.

Miss Kate V. Johnson.—The year just closing has been the most successful one for mission work in the history of Japan. It has been a time of seed sowing. Soldiers leaving for the war, soldiers sick and wounded in the hospitals, and soldiers at the front have had the gospel preached to them. Many have heard and believed.

Regular meetings have been kept up at Sendagi, preaching twice every Lord's Day, a Sunday-school with an average attendance of sixty children, a Christian Endeavor Society with twenty members, a cooking class once a week, and besides one woman's meeting a week, a great many woman's and children's meetings.

The Sunday-school gave ten dollars to relieve widows and orphans at Christmas. Our Endeavor Society raised ten dollars for the support of a child in Africa. I have taught our Christians faithfully of mission work in Africa, Tibet, India, China, and Korea, and they pray daily for the conversion of those countries.

During the winter we filled a great many comfort bags and sent to the soldiers. They did not contain cigarettes, and we sent them with the bags sent by the W. C. T. U. of Japan.

We succeeded also in getting permission to teach scientific temperance to the primary school children of Hongo, the first district in the city to grant the privilege. The first meeting was held in June and was attended by five hundred school children and seventy school teachers. Much enthusiasm was manifested and one of the school rose and thanked us for our kindness and invited us to hold another such meeting in September.

Several times I was invited to give an address to the young ladies of Japanese high schools, and it always gave me great pleasure to do so, for I always told them of the Truth that can make them free indeed. I have been asked to write regularly for the most successful woman's magazine in Japan. It has forty-five thousand subscribers.

In May, through the kindness of friends, a trip to China was made possible for me. I attended the China Educational Association meetings, visited our work and workers, and met many who have spent many years in the work in China.

It was my privilege to speak to the boys in Nankin Christian College, the girls in Miss Lyon's school, address the women at Miss Kelly's meeting for women, and give an address at Kuling at the Sunday-school. The last mentioned was in English to the children and missionaries who were in Kuling for the summer. In Nankin it was necessary to have my remarks interpreted, or course.

Through the kindness of W. R. Hunt, I enjoyed a delightful visit with Dr. Griffith John. Dr. John spoke of Japan's progress and said, "I pray daily that God will bless Japan and convert her people; and then Japan will help China as no other nation on earth can, for China is more willing to learn from Japan than from Western nations."

We have had ten baptisms in Sendagi during the year. My Bible women took care of my girls and held my meetings during my absence.

One of my best helpers was married in June, and a Christian home has been founded in Hoki, and they write that they have begun a Christian Sunday-school in their new home.

I was unable to find land in Hongo for my residence, that could meet the approval of the Shadan, so I have been obliged to live in a Japanese house. This month I removed to Yotsuya and am living in the house occupied by Miss Alice Miller. It is six miles from my work and my loved ones in Hongo, but I must not spend another winter in a Japanese house. I have been very happy. I never enjoyed my work more. I praise God for the privilege of serving him here.

AFRICAN MISSION.

STATION AND MISSIONARIES.

Bolengi.—Dr. R. J. Dye, Mrs. R. J. Dye, R. Ray Eldred, Mrs. R. Ray Eldred, A. F. Hensey.

Dr. Royal J. Dye.—The responsibility of the guidance of the native church came to me as the older missionary resident, and a pleasant duty it has been, though in all the meetings R. R. Eldred was associated with me and took an equal share in all the regular Lord's day services.

The report this year displays several advances, though it is for two months less than last year. The mere figures and cash statements mean but little, it is the inner life of the church that has undergone the greatest change. Moral standards and ideals are constantly being raised to a higher level, as is natural in any healthy church the world over. The tobacco habit, which was a growing, obnoxious habit in the young church, has almost entirely disappeared. There remains but one user of the "weed" in the church. A sad case of temptation and fall occurred in what we thought to be one of the strongest of our Christian families. A young adopted daughter was bought (!) and was subsequently converted and baptized. She grew and developed, and while on a visit to their home in Lolo-land, the husband took her for his wife, thus living in polygamy. The wife herself fell into sin in consequence, and the result is the loss to the church of all three. But a much needed lesson was speedily and forcibly enforced and the danger to the whole church pointed out. The consequences are that female slavery, quite a general institution, is practically abolished, and voluntarily. The change made a decrease in the number of those seeking teaching and baptism. For slavery is the larger part of the wealth of the country, and women slaves with the heathen simply meant so many more concubines. But we are glad to say that the native church has faced and solved this social problem with so little defection. And the report of thirty-two baptisms in ten months, as against twenty-two in the twelve months reported last year, does not show a marked decrease in interest. The membership of the church is not so great as it would be if we had not transferred eight baptized members to other Missions.

A large and prosperous work had grown up in the Mobangi, and as we had no literature as yet in Lunkundu, it seemed preposterous to continue a work in another language, especially as a well-equipped mission of the English Baptists had a large force and well developed literature, etc., in the Bobangi dialect. We all felt that it would not only be a gracious thing to do, but also a step in the line of mission comity to hand this young work over to them. We transferred an out-station and five baptized converts to their Mission at Lukolela. This work did the church at Bolengi an immense amount of good and taught them more about Christian union and fellowship than years of sermons alone. It was a part of their foreign Mission effort.

Another work among still another race of people, the Eleko tribes up the Ikelemba River, was transferred, an out-station and three baptized converts (others have since been baptized by them). This work naturally fell to the Congo Balolo Mission of Lulanga, but as naturally demanded of us our effort at the start. Here again was the opportunity for the display of our plea. Christian unity and our native church was happy in the privilege of being the pioneers of this promising work.

The transfer of these out-stations left us evangelists free to start a work among our own needy Lunkundu-speaking peoples in the hinter-land of Bolengi. They penetrated eighty miles up the Bosira River, a southern tributary of the Congo. It empties into the main river seven miles above Bolengi, and drains all the country back of us.

The people were a little chary of the evangelists at first. They hardly knew what to make of such disinterestedness and consecration, that men would leave their homes and travel four days by canoe on purpose to tell them of the God of Love, and not come for trade or to buy wives or slaves. Their mystification became greater, when upon the stealing of the evangelists' entire supply of salt, the currency they had to buy food with, they saw the spirit in which the theft was taken. In a few days two others came up from the next out-station below to share with their fellows their small supply of salt. It proved such a remarkable thing, this display of the love they had been talking about, that the people gathered in crowds to the services. The interest became intense, and when the evangelists came to return home for the supplies and teaching for another trip, the chiefs and all joined in begging them to return soon and teach them more fully of this wonderful God and His Son "Yesu," who gave Himself a ransom for all. Four young men came with the evangelists to see if it were really true that there were white men who had not come to trade or to compel the people to pay taxes of rubber and ivory, etc., but solely to teach this message of salvation. They did not believe that people would truly give up slavery (their sole wealth), leave off the practice of polygamy, and live lives of honesty and chastity with love to their fellows. It was a Utopia they had never dreamed of, and when they went back they were convinced of the reality and power of the gospel of Christ. The evangelists have returned for another two months' trip, and we have already received most encouraging reports from them. We would give this quotation from their letter: "Hasten and come soon and claim a station for our work, lest the 'traitors' get in ahead of us." (Note—These traitors are the Catholics.) For of a truth, if they get a station up there, we can never get a concession from the Government.

Brethren of the home churches, your brethren, the native church in Central Africa, expects, nay, demands, that you not only send reinforcements to Bolengi, but others also to take and hold this large and populous section for Christ. The traders have been up there for years bleeding the resources and very life blood of the whole section; their equipment is unlimited and of men they do not seem to lack. It is a shame to the Church of Christ if she will let men excel her activity for souls in their mad race for ivory, rubber, and gum-copal. Thousands of dollars and many lives are wantonly thrown away yearly. But one trip has been made by white missionaries. This, with the reports of the evangelists sent to spy out the country, bring to us the responsibility of evangelizing these people. The millions of this large section of Lunkundu-speaking peoples are dying without a knowledge of God and their blood is at our door, if we hesitate or delay the sending of messengers to proclaim this gospel of truth and freedom and life eternal in Jesus' name.

The native church of to-day was but a few months since heathen. That heathenism meant polygamy in all its degradation; slavery in all its debasement, the sale of an own sister and daughter; cannibalism, the very practice of men and women now living here in Bolengi in times past; adultery a common sin, so common that it was rare to find a man or woman who was free from the taint of it; thieving, why they are famous as thieves (forty-two of our sheep and goats were stolen in one year's time); drunkards, in frequent debauches; smoked tobacco until they would fall into the very fire from which they had lighted their smoking horns; unnatural children and parents inhuman to the point of casting out to starve and die their own relatives and former friends in days of prosperity and health. This Church of Christ to-day numbers ninety-two active, earnest Christians, who support eleven of their own number as home and foreign missionaries among distant towns and villages, as far as four days' journey and among foreign languages as well. Thirty-two have been baptized, six have died, and eight have been transferred to other Missions, while five have left the fold, for they are stubborn in their backsliding and are living in sin. They are not numbered with us. This church built a hospital themselves for the segregation of their own sick cases of sleeping-sickness. They have performed numerous acts of mercy and charity, which only the great day will reveal. They have buried stranger dead who were cast out at our doors; they have given a tenth of their meager incomes for all these works of love. They raised for these purposes 29,700 brass rods. One man supported his own "Living Link." Brethren, what impression do these succinct statements make on you? We would that they would so burn themselves into your hearts that bright, earnest, consecrated young men and women shall say, "Here am I, Lord, send me," even to "Darkest Africa," that I may be used there to the salvation of souls and the raising of a race from the darkness of ignorance and hopelessness to the light of knowledge and hope in the gospel and grace of God. The native church is doing all it can do. They are praying for you to come soon. They believe that more teachers will come soon. And we all unite in praying you to not delay. A few who will consecrate themselves to Africa now will be worth a score a year from now. The crisis is imminent. The work exceeds our powers. Some must come soon or God Himself will hold you responsible.

In the medical department we report the usual number of cases, both medical and surgical; amputations and minor operations, and outside cases of native maternity calls; difficult cases, beyond the layman's skill, sent from other Missions. They have repaid us in drugs. A greater number of cases from distant towns. A continued confidence of our own town in the medical work. We have fought sleeping-sickness with many drugs, and have finally found that in practically poisoning with arsenic gives temporary relief, whether permanent or not we can not say yet. We have been privileged to treat and help several missionaries of other societies as usual, and in return we enjoy many courtesies from them in the line of travel and transport on their steamers. The new Cotner Hospital has been finished this year; 11,210 treatments have been given, and 3,021 brass rods have been collected from the natives for fees, besides a considerable supply of drugs from other missions to repay for drugs used in the treatment of special cases sent by them to us here. We have had 21 in-patients in Cotner Memorial, and treated as well 113 out-patients.

Cotner Memorial Hospital and Dispensary has been of inestimable value to the work, and the moving of it from a back position to a fine site on a line with the other buildings of the Mission, and the addition of a large veranda, has added much to its usefulness, and is a great credit to Mr. Eldred. It is greatly appreciated by visiting missionaries of other societies. The erection of a native in-patient hospital, as projected by the same generous school, will be a great help and encouragement to the work here. We are hoping some day to welcome their "Living-Link" missionary to "Darkest Africa."

Education must be the foundation stone to the work here, as they must be taught from the "a, b, c," up, and a literature made for them as well, so send us some who can help in the schools. Indeed, do not "refuse any volunteer," for whatever a man's profession is it will be useful out here. Single women are found to be as necessary to the work here as in other countries. But if sent should come two together. Do not be afraid to duplicate any of the present force, for with the new work opening before us up the Bosira, there is room for two and more of any profession. Let a man bring his wife, for he is but "half the man" when alone. The family life is the living model of what is taught against polygamy.

Concerning the necessity for a boat; only last week I was compelled to take a trip in one of our small canoes, and returning was caught in one of the sudden and fierce storms common here on the Congo. Though I was near the shore, as I always travel, our frail dug-out was capsized, and it was only the providence of God and the presence of mind of my crew that saved my life, for we were in the rapids just above Bolengi. Five hundreds dollars looks like a big sum, but it is the only boat we could all recommend as being the most practical one to be had and the best boat for the money. It costs just one-half what a similar boat of inferior style and make in England would cost.

Brethren of the home churches, we wish you to take as a closing note to this report, the daily repeated prayer of the native church, "Let other workers come soon, lest they come too late to find those here who are here now."

Mrs. R. J. Dye.—The school has flourished and good progress has been made. It has been in session until April 13th, save for a three weeks' vacation last September, and will be necessarily discontinued now until the chapel building is finished. About 136 have been enrolled, with an average attendance of eighty, mostly village children. An encouraging feature is that there has been a larger percentage of girls than ever before. Intelligent wives and mothers are needed here. For some reason the school at Bolengi has acquired a popularity up and down the river wholly unsought for. It can not be what it should be when so many other things demand attention.

We have had eight little boys, orphans and waifs, under our charge during the year. Two have died of sleeping sickness, and one is nearly gone. Several of these are rescued children who have no support and are fed from scraps left over and food grown in station garden. Sometimes it is no small task to furnish food for these hungry little tots, and clothes as well.

There have been six girls and three women with us during the year, two being now married and in Christian homes. The sewing and gardening done by these has gone far toward their own support. This has been a work we have longed for, but has been closed until now. To help support this work and to give the village women opportunity to earn suitable clothing for themselves, a large garden was cleared, worked, and planted by about twenty women, who received dresses in return for the work and were taught to make them. All the station girls work there two afternoons each week, a relief from school and sewing. Thus, now, we have a fine garden of several acres, growing corn, sugar-cane, sweet potatoes, peanuts, native manioc, plantains, and bananas. This has made considerable outlay, but we have already realized over $20 in return, which has been turned into the general station support.

The women's work has increased encouragingly. Sunday morning early service grows in interest and attendance; 106 were present this Lord's Day morning. The Christian women's service has been a blessing to all. By their gifts of five rods monthly, they have helped thirteen sick and helpless women and children. Seventeen women and girls have become Christians this year past and two have gone before to receive their reward.

One other duty devolving upon us is perhaps not worthy of mention, but requires often much care and energy. It is the ministry of hospitality to missionaries of other societies who come here for advice, treatment, or rest. In the course of the year this comes to be a very real work, their stay often necessarily being prolonged from days and weeks to months. We believe even this may be used for the furtherance of the gospel, if it be done without grudging. Altogether the outlook could not be more encouraging, and as soon as news reaches us of reinforcements our spirits will reach the overflowing point.

R. Ray and Mrs. Eldred.—"Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith Jehovah of hosts." Surely it has not been any superior knowledge or skill on our part, but only the Spirit of the Father above which has been working in and above all, that has enabled us to see such rich fruitage of the gospel here in Bolengi during the last year. And we greatly rejoice that we have been counted worthy to partake in this the most glorious of all work.

On June 22, 1904, our hearts were made happy by the coming of our little boy. Although Mrs. Eldred's health was somewhat under the average for some months, she is now better than at any time during the year, while my health and that of the little boy have been all that we could wish. Thanks to Dr. Dye for his medical care and counsel.

Since the middle of July last I have had four of the church services each alternate week with Dr. Dye, and find in this, as in other forms of mission work, great joy in being able to show the love of Christ to those among whom we live.

In the Line of Repairs.—I have reroofed and repaired Dr. Dye's chicken house, reroofed the girls' house, reroofed the goat house (this latter included the replacing of all the rafters), tore down the building formerly used for the orphan boys and built a small house in an isolated place for the sleep-sickness patients; removed the large cupola from the roof of the house in which we now live (formerly Mr. Faris'), and instead put in a small modern ventilator, which prevents the house from being littered with dirt and rain in time of storm and yet gives ample ventilation, also painted the interior of the house and put on a new roof, made a fence around the large station garden, also a new fence around the station grounds. This together making about three-quarters of a mile of fencing. I made new steps to the front and back of Dr. Dye's house, also new steps to their cook house, and new steps to the front and back of our house.

In the Line of New Work.—I made a capstan for moving buildings, moved the hospital building from the back of the station to the front near Dr. Dye's house, built a large veranda on two and part of the third side, and built a brick foundation of twenty-one pillars under the building. The veranda makes the building both cooler and also more convenient for Dr. Dye in his medical work. I made 10,000 more brick, got from the forest upwards of twenty solid cords of wood for burning brick, burned 20,000 brick; built a new chicken house for ourselves, made a bedstead for Dr. Dye, built a new and permanent carpenter shop twenty-eight by forty-two feet with strong upper story for the drying of lumber, place for saw-pit and ample room for bench work, etc. The State tax is paid per square feet of ground covered by the building, thus by adding this upper story we have ample room for the drying of many thousands of feet of lumber without increasing the tax on the building. I made 300 feet of large rope for moving the church. Moved the church to the back of the station, thus making it nearer to the native town and more convenient in other ways.

Since we are not able to get more ground on which to build here in Bolengi, it was necessary to make a change in the location of the church so that a third dwelling house might be built on the river front like the other houses here. The moving of buildings here in Congo is a new thing, a surprise to our English missionary neighbors and a cause of great astonishment to the natives. Besides the above mentioned work I have had for the last nine months eight sawyers in the forest all of the time with the exception of three weeks. During this time I have been to the forest many times, often daily, and have since last report gotten out a little over 8,500 feet of lumber. None of this has been cut in less than a mile of the station, and some as far away as two miles; in every case it has all been carried to the station by the workmen, and much of the way this was impossible till a path had been cut through the jungle. During the year I have discovered four more kinds of wood which are suitable for lumber here. The work in this department is more promising than at any time since I have known it.

Although Mrs. Eldred's health was not good for some months, she has had charge of five of the station orphans during the year, one boy and four girls, and has had a class in sewing on an average of four afternoons a week.

My only vacation for the year was a three days' trip to Lolanga Mission station. I went to learn what I could about burning brick. I went up river by mission steamer one day, spent one day at Lolanga, and came down river the next day, sixty miles, in a small dugout canoe. Imagine the pleasure of this canoe ride. However, I was not lonely with my five native paddlers, the birds overhead and the monkeys in the tree tops, seven of which I shot and brought home as choice viands for the station children.

Dr. Dye is writing about the native church and the glorious work being done in and through it, but I may add that the outlook is very bright indeed, yet we must not stop here nor must we relax our efforts. We need more of your prayers, more of your gold and more workers that this vast field of the Lord's ripe harvest may be gathered ere its harvest time, for many, be forever past.

TIBET MISSION.

STATION AND MISSIONARIES.

Ta Chien lu.—Dr. A. L. Shelton, Mrs. A. L. Shelton, Dr. Susie C. Rijnhart.

INTRODUCTORY.

Realizing the difficulty of a clear conception of a work at this distance we shall be as full and explicit as possible, and in so far as we are able, lend you our eyes, that you may see our mistakes, failures, and successes of the past and our hopes and aspirations for the future. What we have done in a business line, as a mission, will be given first. Arriving one year ago on the 15th of March, we at once set about finding premises for residence and work. This was much more difficult than had been anticipated, and were very difficult to procure. However, we at length secured a building for a residence and also a shop in the heart of the city for work, which we fitted up as a little chapel, dispensary, and small school room. For the residence we had to pay rent for two and one-half years in advance at the rate of about $60 per year. For the shop we had to pay about $30 per year, and had also to advance $37, which is to be paid back when we give up the shop. During the fall and winter the little chapel has been entirely inadequate for our evening meetings, as it has a seating capacity of forty, and there have been sixty-six crowded into it, with others outside who could not get in. It also had this disadvantage, that there was no separate place for the women, and as they are very reluctant about coming unless they can sit apart from the men, we thought, for the best interests of the work, it was necessary to rent the shop next door and join the two, thus giving us more room and also permitting the chapel to be divided for men and women. Therefore, we have rented it, paying $40 per year, and also $75 down, to be paid back when the shop is given up. Dr. Rijnhart is also to live there. On the men's side there will also be two or three small rooms for patients, which we have needed very badly. This shop is now in process of repair. It has also been found necessary in order to retain Mr. Yang, our evangelist, to advance his wages $2 per month, beginning with March. This is because of the high price of food and that he expects to have his family come up this year and make this his permanent work for some years to come. This is a just advance, brethren, for living is very expensive here, as compared with down river, all the rice having to be brought from below. Mr. Yang can get nearly twice as much money as we are paying him any time he is willing to quit preaching the gospel and accept either a government or a private position. In the matter of getting our money we have experienced considerable difficulty, and we have to thank Mr. Broomhall, of the China Inland Mission, at Chungking, for undertaking to forward silver to us. All our silver has to be carried some 600 miles on men's backs.

Church Work.—Up to January 1st this has been carried on entirely by Dr. Rijnhart and Mr. Yang, Dr. Shelton being unable to help in any way from lack of knowledge of the language. There have been meetings almost every night during the year. There are now fourteen men who have their names down as inquirers, and nine women. There have been many more who have come for motives of their own—wishing help in lawsuits and the influence of the foreigner in private quarrels. This is because the Catholics make a business of attending to lawsuits for their adherents. Some have come wanting to be inquirers, and when it is explained to them that we will be glad to have them as inquirers, but that we are here solely to preach the gospel and not to attend to lawsuits and take side in quarrels, they have gone away. Many, however, are getting a good idea of the gospel and what it means. Especially may this be said of some of the school boys, of whom we now have ten in regular attendance. They are under the instruction of an excellent Chinese scholar, a B. A., and are taught portions of the Bible every day. There are others who have asked if they might send their boys and who will probably send them soon. Brethren, this is probably as important a piece of work as we can do, even though it is in only a small way, and we want to emphasize it. We feel that the fruits of our labors will be much more sure and abiding with the young than with those who have grown old in idolatry. The boys are at the right time of life when the teaching imparted will follow them all their days, and they have regular instruction, which is also necessary to a correct knowledge of the way of life and which we can not give those who do not regularly attend the meetings.

Dispensary.—This has been our greatest help in winning our way with the people, and has been open now by Dr. Rijnhart almost a year. Dr. Shelton did not begin his medical work until January 1st. There has been a constant increase in the number and importance of the cases treated. An account of the work done by each, and the use made of it, will be found in the personal reports of each. We enclose a list of articles and drugs which we need very badly for this branch of the work. The list is approximated for two years' work as we find it will be impracticable to order yearly on account of the difficulties of transportation.

TA CHIEN LU, WEST CHINA.

Dr. A. L. Shelton.—One year and fifteen days ago we arrived in Ta Chien Lu—the place we expect to be our dwelling place the rest of our lives—after having been traveling for five and one-half months. It was good to be at the end of so long a journey and to see the faces of those who were to become our friends and whom we hoped to help to a knowledge of the way of life. My teacher arrived a few days later and I at once began study in earnest, studying from five to six hours a day with him. With constant study and practice I could soon make myself understood in a small way and could understand others much better than I was understood by them. My entire time was given to study till January 1st, when I began my dispensary work and took charge of the men's work in the meetings. This does not take nearly half my time, however, nor do I intend to let it, for I remember Brother Rains' parting injunction almost every day, "Get the language. Get the language. You'll never be worth your salt unless you get a thorough knowledge of the language." So my work this last year has been study. My work this year will be study. Since January 1st I have taken the Sunday-school, thus gaining in my ability to express myself. I have also preached some ten or twelve times during March, going over the ground beforehand with my teacher. In September I also began the study of Tibetan, and since then have equally divided my time between the two languages. Since we are here for Tibetan work, however, I shall in the future give more time to that language and attempt during the coming years to master it as thoroughly as I am capable of doing.

In my medical work with the men since January 1st (three months) I have treated in the dispensary, 145; return treatments, 137; visits, 32; total, 314. Since coming to Ta Chien Lu I have had opium cases (attempted suicides), 15; cases requiring an anesthetic, 10; amputations (foot, fingers, toes, and leg), 5; herniotomy, 1. It is pitiful the condition the people are in for want of proper medical attention. I hope in the future to be able to train some Tibetan boys as doctors.

The amount of work to be done in different lines is appalling, because for the Tibetans nothing has been done and the temptation will be to spread one's energies and try to do many different things with a consequent reduction in efficiency in all. We need another man very much, brethren. I sometimes feel like being discouraged, but I remember that work in Christ's cause can never fail though it may appear to. And I also remember another parting word from Brother Rains, "Don't get discouraged. Remember the Lord is n't dead yet." It is not discouragement because the prospects for work are not good. No, not that, but because they are so good, so many different ways of doing good that I wish I were ten men instead of one. They would all be here and spread out over the vast territory here that is awaiting the coming of some one with the gospel. The Lord has been very gracious to us and I can not understand why he has been so good to me as to let me be a worker here where workers are so badly needed. With thanks to God for all his goodness and mercy and a prayer that He will use me to the very utmost of my abilities for advancing His kingdom, and wishing you, brethren, great joy and a full measure of success in the great work you are doing for the Master, here is my whole heart for His cause.

Dr. Susie C. Rijnhart.—Dispensary treatments, 1,213; opium suicides treated, 7; opium habit broken, 2; gave anesthetic to 7. A large part of my time this year has been given to studying both Chinese and Tibetan, but I have had the dispensary open five days weekly, and have paid many visits to different homes in connection with my medical work and for other reasons, dropping the gospel message whenever opportunity offered. In the boys' school I taught English afternoons for several months. One of my pupils is one of my most faithful inquirers.

But my women's meetings have been the most enjoyable part of my work. Until September I had them twice a week; after that time once, except at Christmas time, when they came every day. Then throughout the entire year guests came very often and impromptu meetings, none the less enjoyable and profitable, were held. From time to time I had the magic lantern for the women, and in this way many heard the gospel story for the first time.

After I moved over the shop, we attended the evening meetings, thereby encouraging the women to come. My Chinese girl has played the organ at these meetings and on Lord's Day since January 1st, when Dr. Shelton began his regular work. The meetings are well attended, but I can not say I think the fruits will be as great as from personal work among individuals. And that word "fruits," who can tell what they have been from my year's work, and yet not mine, but His through me? Some of the women say they want to be baptized this spring, and I think two of them may be ready. My Chinese girl has been with me much and I have taught her carefully. She is fifteen, an earnest Christian, zealous in the Master's work. She seems to grow in knowledge every day.

The work of our Tibet Mission will be slow. Work among Tibetans is new, feared, and unwelcome. We need the prayers of the brotherhood for this virgin field.

F. C. Yang.—I have been in Ta Chien Lu one year. I like to tell what I have done here, though I have not done any important thing. My great purpose when I came here was to scatter the seed of the gospel among the Tibetans. The business every day for me is to preach the gospel in the chapel which we rented after we arrived in this city. I dare to say now to all the people, Chinese and Tibetans, in this city know that this is a Christian mission for preaching the gospel of Jesus. There are no converted people now, but there are some inquirers. We always make friends with the Tibetans, though we can not speak their language yet. There were two Tibetans came to inquire the doctrine last year. The one is a soldier in the city now. I think the gospel will gradually win its way further among the Tibetans in God's care. Now is the time to build the foundation of the church. I always pray that this foundation will be a good, strong, stable, foundation. I expect others to do the same.

Last year I helped Mrs. Rijnhart open a school in the back room of the chapel. I have taught them Chinese, Bible, arithmetic, etc. I thought this was a good way to train these boys to be Christians. Because this is the same way I was trained to be a Christian in the Christian College of Nanking. They got on with their lessons all right for a few months. Afterward there was one boy going to trade, another going home with his uncle, and another going home with his father. Because the homes of these boys are in other cities. The reason they come here is to follow their fathers' trade here. The boys in this city usually do not study. Because a great part of them are Tibetans, they do not know the value of study.

This year I help Dr. Shelton's work in the dispensary and attend the patients every day. There are many patients to be cured and a few men to be operated on and cured now. I think to doctor is a good work in a place where there is no gospel. Though the people do not like to hear the preaching of the gospel, they do like to have their diseases healed. Then the gospel will be promulgated. Therefore, I wish to learn the medicine from Dr. Shelton, and he also likes to teach me. If I can get an opportunity of going into Tibet, this art will help me very much in preaching the gospel. I do believe the gospel will be promulgated to all places just as Jesus said to his disciples when he went up to heaven.

TURKEY.

TOCAT.

Garabed Kevorkian.—The Lord spared me another year to labor in the gospel. It has been my blessed privilege to preach for years in Turkey in the midst of difficulties, dangers, and oppositions. By the help of God, I did my utmost to make known the mission of the F. C. M. S. in this country. Our voice went from one end of the land to the other, and now the people do not ask one another who and what the Disciples are, as they used to do. We became known both to the people and the government, and our opponents are gradually becoming friendly. In the work of all these years I labored not only to win men and women for Christ, but labored also to establish them in the truth, feeling that it is one of the most essential means of future success of the work in Turkey.

Brethren, from the first day that I entered in the service of the mission to this day I have had occasions to be disappointed, but I never was discouraged about the work, seeing that the hand of God was in it, and that Christ our Lord helped me to have the joy of baptizing more than 400 men and women, both in the fields of my labor and in those under the supervision of Brother Shishmanian, where I went to preach. After years of toiling, experience, and knowledge of the work, I can say this, that if we had sufficient men and means for the mission, then, instead of counting the members of our churches in Turkey by hundreds, we would now be able to count them by thousands. Let the friends of the Turkish mission never doubt this and never entertain any fear for greater success in the future, if our brethren continue the work they begun.

During the year I had the privilege of visiting some of our churches. Our meetings and the Sunday-schools are generally well attended and the three day schools are doing as well as it is possible.

Brethren, I spent the best years of my life for the best work in the world, for which you counted me worthy twenty-two years ago, and now I ask your prayers that in the remaining of my days I may live still closer to our Lord and be true to him to the end.

NORWAY MISSION.

STATIONS AND MISSIONARIES.

Bergen.—E. W. Pease, Mrs. E. W. Pease.

Christiania.—R. P. Anderson, Mrs. R. P. Anderson.

BERGEN.

E. W. Pease.—On November 1, 1904, I and my family arrived in Bergen to begin a new work on the west coast. Our work for the winter months may be classified thus: Preaching services with an attendance of eighty to fifty; Sunday-school of about thirty members; a week night Bible class of about twenty; and a prayer meeting with an attendance of forty to eighty. The summer months caused a great decline, but our audiences have been even better than people thought they would be. One has been baptized, and two others have asked for baptism as soon as the State church gives them permission.

Mr. Kleppe was employed for three months in the neighboring district. John Borglin visited the west coast in February, and we were both well received in Trine and Stavanger among the baptized brethren whom we hope to win.

We have difficulties here of a peculiar nature. A people that love and contend for freedom, which is poisoned by vainglorying. This spirit is extremely prominent among the "floating element" that floats everywhere, where there is anything new or attractive. As this element falls away others come in that show more signs of stability and desire to know the truth. As yet we have no organized church, but we reckon our membership to be nine, since this number meet regularly at the Lord's table.

There are two reasons why we should give especial attention to Bergen and Stavanger.

1. Because of the present unsettled condition in religious matters that would be helped wonderfully by "heaven" of the right sort.
2. Because these two cities are large centers on the west coast, and chief centers for seamen and English tourists; hence we ought to develop so as to command their attention and respect and win their co-operation in mission work.

CHRISTIANIA.

R. P. Anderson.—The past year has brought various changes for Norway. Immediately after F. M. Rains' visit last summer, which did so much good here, R. P. Anderson arrived from Denmark and took up his abode in Christiania. This was in September, 1904. A short time later E. W. Pease and family removed to Bergen, the largest city on the west coast, and began to work there among the small group that had accepted the New Testament teaching. The field has thus practically been divided into two parts; the west coast, where Mr. Pease labors, two and a half days' journey from the capital; and the south, where Mr. Anderson is stationed. This division should strengthen our position and enable us perhaps by and by to carry the message of life right to the North Cape.

Considering the conditions, it must be said that we have had a prosperous year. The roll of membership for co-operating churches shows a net increase of 118 members over last year, and besides these, we have fellowship with five other churches that are working for primitive Christianity, and that have a joint membership of over 300 members.

In the southern part of the field, R. P. Anderson has edited a small paper, eight pages, "The Old Paths," which is issued twice a month. This has proved an excellent means of communication between the churches, and will largely assist in unifying the work. Five tracts dealing with our special plea have been issued. There is an urgent call for more literature. We want a small brochure on the baptism of infants, and another on our position and plea. Brother Anderson has further given some instruction to one young brother, with a view to fitting him for the work of an evangelist.

The Society has employed four native evangelists who have spent their time as follows: Brother Johnsen has labored in Frederikstad all the time, and since autumn has had forty-six additions to the church, chiefly by baptism. Besides this he visited Frederikshald once a week, and in the course of the winter baptized over twenty there. E. Westlund has labored principally in Tonsberg; J. P. Danielsen and U. H. Borglin have traveled among the churches.

A religious awakening swept over the land during the spring of this year and reached some of our churches. We are planning for larger things the coming winter. We can only report good things of our churches in this part of the country. A great desire for Christian Union has sprung up among other small groups that are very near us. We are trying to encourage this desire in the loving spirit of the Master.

The present political crisis is not hindering our work. On the contrary, the prospect of war has awakened a feeling of deep seriousness among all classes, and will surely tend, whatever the issue be, to deepen religious life. Our prayers are burdened with great requests, and our hearts are full of a great hope for Norway. The whole country is open to us now, as it never has been before. Everywhere we hear the Macedonian cry: "Come and help us." Our opportunity has come to us now. The hearts of the people are hungering after God. Someone will go in and possess this great land. The sects here are weakened through internal strife, but mostly through a small party spirit,—proselytism and plunder; and people are sick of it. Hence the divine plea for tolerance, for kindness, and for brotherly love, wins the hearts of all. Our hour is come. At present we can not utilize our opportunities. We have not the money, nor the men! Brethren, pray for Norway. The fields are groaning under the weight of the harvest. Pray the Harvest Lord that he drive laborers out into his harvest.

DENMARK AND SWEDEN.

Copenhagen.—Dr. A. Holck, Julius Cramer, Mrs. Julius Cramer.

Dr. A. Holck.—We are glad to say that the Lord has been with us and blessed us, and that the church has grown in spiritual enrichment. We are working, praying, and hoping for great things the coming winter.

We have had union meetings (prayer meetings) with the free churches and one of the pastors from the state church, praying for the Lord to send a revival over Copenhagen and Denmark. Among those that are added to the church by baptism are three faithful young men and the daughter of Brother Cramer.

In Sweden we are able to report that the brethren are keeping together in good spirit and are working and holding meetings every week in the places in Malmo and Linhamn. Four have been baptized. They need a good preacher to take up the work and live among them. Brother Cramer has visited Malmo and Linhamn several times, and he will pay them another visit when his time permits.

ENGLISH MISSION.

Introductory Remarks by Leslie W. Morgan, General Secretary.

The past year has in no respect been our worst, and in some ways it has been one of our best. On the whole, it has been an average year. There is a marked increase in the report of additions to the churches, especially by confession and baptism, it being the best year in this respect that we have had since 1902. There have been 257 baptisms during the year and 78 have been added otherwise, making a total of 335. After the usual necessary revision of various church rolls, we are left with a small net increase. The present membership stands at 2,371, with a Sunday-school enrollment of 2,533, showing an increase over last year of 153.

The financial exhibit is better than it has been in any recent year, although times have been harder than for many years past. The amounts raised for building or mortgage debts are especially gratifying, a number of churches being engaged in strenuous efforts to clear their property of mortgage, while others are making heroic efforts to get together enough money to warrant them in erecting more commodious premises. The grand total of money raised during the year aggregates $23,567.16; of this amount, $3,479.78 was for missions, $1.47 per member.

A new work has been started in Southfields, London, S. W., by the personal effort of W. R. Green, a rising young business man, and one of our efficient recording secretaries. Brother Green has given up a room in his own house to this work. Southfields is a new and growing suburb, and as yet there is no other free church in the neighborhood. A good site has been secured for a church building and a small sum is already in hand.

The literature propaganda, so auspiciously begun last year, has been continued with excellent results. A number of tracts have been issued and circulated by the thousands, which come more nearly meeting the needs of the English field than any that have heretofore been issued. The usual American tract is of but little value in this country without careful revision and pruning. This the literature committee has undertaken to do, as well as to produce entirely new tracts. A series of gospel posters and gospel hand bills have also been issued and used with good effect. During the autumn and winter months a "Monthly Leaflet" was issued by the committee, localized by the churches and circulated to the extent of six or seven thousand each month.

The Building Loan Society has been advanced a stage and will be fully launched soon. It is necessary to move with some caution in a country where the laws are interpreted as meaning what they say. The experience of the Scottish churches is our warrant for caution.

We have met with unusually heavy pulpit losses during the year, R. H. Newton, T. H. Bates, B. N. Mitchell, and E. M. Todd having, in turn, departed for America. Each of these brethren did good work, but it is not invidious to mention especially the work of Brother Todd, who for more than twelve years has been the guiding spirit of the English work. For more than eight years he served as honorable secretary of our association, a work which was highly appreciated, and perhaps even more so now that he has gone. His place in the general councils of our work will not be easily filled.

We have just held the twenty-fifth anniversary conference of our church, which was well attended and enthusiastic. We again gratefully acknowledge the generous support of the F. C. M. S.

The reports from the ministers in charge at the various places are as follows:

BIRKENHEAD.

R. D. Moss.—During the past year not only have our hopes been realized, but by the help of our Heavenly Father, have been surpassed. The present condition of the congregation and the general affairs of the church are most healthy. However, we are not yet satisfied; there is much to be done. While the membership generally is active, and working for the extension of Christ's kingdom, there are yet some who do not realize the necessity of being "up and doing." All departments of the church are working earnestly and faithfully. We are still working for the payment of the debt on the church property. Since our last report one of our young men, John Delf, has gone to Eureka College to fit himself for the ministry. Miss Ada Foster has gone to Hiram to equip herself for the foreign mission field, and John Pollock will soon sail to enter the same college in order to fit himself for the ministry. The "Open Air" work is especially vigorous this year, as many as thirty-three young people going out after the evening services into one of the slum streets to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to testify as to his saving power. We are looking to the future cheerfully, hoping by the grace of God to accomplish mighty things for him.

CHELTENHAM.

J. H. Versey.—During the past year this church has made some progress, for which we are thankful to God. One year ago we had ninety-three members, ten have been added during the year, and we have lost three, leaving our present membership just one hundred. For general expenses we have raised $672.22, and for missions $47.58. The Sunday-school has increased, and all other branches of the church have done good work. On account of depression in trade and much sickness among the people, we have experienced a hard time financially, but our congregations have been fairly good. The prospects of the church are brighter and we hope the coming year will be one of much success.

CHESTER.

This church has been without a pastor since last March, when R. H. Newton returned to America after an eighteen months' pastorate. Various brethren have supplied the pulpit during the interval, and it is hoped that the pulpit will be permanently occupied soon.—L. W. M.

CHORLEY.

M. H. Kennedy.—From what we have felt and seen during the past year, we are sure that God has been with us, and his saving power has been manifest in the conversion of sinners and in the deepening of the spiritual life of believers. We have received nineteen new members during the year, thirteen by baptism and six from other churches, but we have lost four by removals. From the first year we have done a large export trade, a considerable number of our people having gone to America. However, there is much cause for gratitude for what has been done, and we are becoming more optimistic every year in regard to the future. During the winter we held a number of cottage meetings in different parts of the town, and during the summer we have taken part in the outdoor meetings. We have also conducted a number of services in the Model Lodging House. There is an average attendance of 100 men. It is our intention to resume the cottage meetings in the autumn, and we contemplate doing some aggressive work during the winter months. There seems to be an intense longing amongst our people for the extension of the kingdom of God and the conversion of sinners. We are praying and working for a revival.

GLOUCESTER.

E. H. Spring.—We have had no opportunity of holding any special series of meetings this past year, but a fair number have joined the church, the majority of whom, we believe, will be a source of strength to us. The attendance at the young people's class on Sunday afternoons and the papers read by the members, are exceptionally gratifying. Our temperance work is most satisfactory. The church altogether is in good working order and steadily progressing, but we have suffered from commercial depression. The prospects are bright.

INGLETON.

This church is at present without a pastor, but it is hoped that it may soon be linked with Lancaster, and the two churches put in charge of one man. Ingleton is our only village church in this country.—L. W. M.

LANCASTER.

V. H. Cross, Deacon.—At present we are without a pastor, but the members are holding together well and there is a better feeling in the church than for months past. The church has been recently painted and renovated, and the bill has been paid; and on a recent Sunday our collections amounted to nearly $20, it being the occasion of our Sunday-school anniversary. We are looking forward to brighter days and we believe there is a grand future for us.

LIVERPOOL.

Ben. N. Mitchell closed his work with this church June 15th, and since that time they have been without a pastor. Daniel Hughes, late Baptist minister of Chester, has now been called to the pastorate, and will begin his work soon. Brother Hughes seems thoroughly in love with our position, and gives every promise of becoming a useful man to our cause. The church is making a strong effort to complete the raising of their entire building debt of $4,684.80, by the end of this year, according to a scheme set on foot by Ben. Mitchell before his departure.—L. W. M.

FULHAM, LONDON.

Eli Brearley.—It is with thankfulness to God that we are able to report steady and substantial progress. Our financial condition in one way is satisfactory, but not all that we desire. On every account we have a balance on the right side, but we are not even yet half way to self-support. We have had seventeen accessions and twelve losses. The Lord's Day services are well and regularly attended. Our Sunday-school still flourishes: for the better accommodation and comfort of both children and teachers we have re-seated the building with chairs at a cost of about $150. The cry is still for more room. The C. E. did a good work again during the winter among the poor, hungry children. Three or four times a week during the colder months, over 300 children at a time had a hot breakfast provided free. The Junior C. E., Band of Hope, Temperance Society, Women's Guild, Choir, Samaritan League, and Sunday-school sewing class are all rendering very helpful service. The members of the C. W. B. M. have raised $20 more than ever before. The young men's Bible class is still progressing and filling an urgent need in the district. During the year we have added a Good Templar Lodge and a Slate Club to our list of auxiliaries.

HORNSEY, LONDON.

Leslie W. Morgan.—As I have been in this field only a week at the present writing (September 4th), I can not say much from personal experience. E. M. Todd closed his brief pastorate with the church in May, leaving the church united, and withal, hopeful, except the natural discouragement that was felt at losing such an efficient pastor. The great need of the present and the absolute necessity for the future is a substantial and permanent building. To this end the church has been devoting considerable energy during the past eighteen months, and has gotten together nearly $500. An excellent site is possessed by the church and the neighborhood is one in which a splendid work ought to be possible.

SOUTHFIELDS, LONDON.

W. R. Green.—Work commenced here during the past year in a small room of a private house, no hall being available. The numerical progress has been very slow, but we have a regular audience, averaging fifteen on Sundays. We are doing solid personal work, and hope to reap the harvest very soon. We have secured a plot of land, toward which we have in hand more than $200, and shall hope to build next year. Southfields is a most promising district, as during the past three years accommodation has been provided for a population of over 10,000, and no chapels have yet been built. To God be the glory for inspiring us to spread the glad news.

WEST LONDON TABERNACLE.

Mark Wayne Williams.—West London Tabernacle is indeed an "open door," with an inconstant ebb and flow of people, which makes stability a little speculative. Figures do not tabulate our actual work, strength, or need. The difficulties of our neighborhood are tremendous, but not insuperable. We have this year witnessed a spiritual revival. Most fervent prayer meetings after Christmas resulted in over fifty confessions at regular services during five weeks, twenty-six on one night. A union meeting with Dr. J. Q. A. Henry produced 170 confessions. The great majority of those reached in this way move away from the neighborhood within a few weeks; many attend but do not obey Christ in baptism. Total baptisms for the year, 44; additions otherwise, 16; losses, 27; net gain, 33. Our finances are as hard to solve as ever, perhaps harder by the stressful times through which London is passing. Thousands are unemployed and the evil becomes dangerous. Yet by heroic efforts, last year the brethren raised $634.40 for roof repairs, and paid nearly $500 off the mortgage. It was nobly done. Every department is stronger, if not larger. Audiences keep up well, and the spirit of the people is shown by good prayer meetings and splendid open air services. There is every reason to expect a fruitful year in conversions and baptisms.

MARGATE.

F. Foster.—Although we have had several additions during the past year, losses by death, removal, etc., have left us with a very slight increase. The Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor, and other auxiliaries are in good condition. This is a seaside place, with a somewhat shifting population, and the field is consequently a difficult one, but we are united and determined to press on in faith and hope.

SALTNEY.

R. Dobson.—Our position is much the same as last year. We have carefully revised the church roll, with the result that after accounting for seven transferred and removed to other towns, and sixteen taken off the roll for other causes, we have a solid membership of ninety, two less than last year. A most encouraging revival began in February, the result being that eighteen were added to the church. We have raised for all purposes, $579.34. We had hoped to substantially reduce our debt, but the continued depression in trade has interfered with this. God has prospered us in many ways. Still our progress is not by any means what we expected or desired.

SOUTHAMPTON.

Leslie W. Morgan, late minister.—I closed my nearly six years' pastorate with the church at Southampton on August 20th, in order to accept a call to the church at Hornsey, London. The past year was, in many respects, a hard one; it was our first year of self-support, and besides this we undertook to clear the church property of a $3,000 mortgage; about $1,000 of the amount was raised. A very successful revival, under the leadership of Ben N. Mitchell, then of Liverpool, was experienced in the church in April, when there were about forty decisions, some excellent young people being among the number. Steps are being taken to secure a pastor immediately, and if the right man can be obtained, there is a bright future for the work.

SOUTHPORT.

George Fowler.—Our work in Southport continues about as usual. Every department seems vital with spiritual life. A good, healthful, harmonious spirit pervades all. During the past year we have been encouraged by the addition of some substantial members, and the future is hopeful. Our field, though a difficult one, is not by any means a hopeless one. It takes some study of English institutions, and some time for an American to bring himself into sympathetic touch with, and a fair understanding of, the English people. This is as important a factor in the work here as in the foreign field. "Grace, grit, and gumption" will win here, as in America, but it will take all three.

HYGEIA STREET MISSION, LIVERPOOL.

There were eight baptisms at this point during the year and one added otherwise, making the present membership thirty-eight. The total money raised during the year was $234.72. Thos. Carr is the superintendent.—L. W. M.

BIBLE STUDY DEPARTMENT.

W. Durban.—The little Correspondence Bible School which I commenced with the kindest smile and encouragement from our Board, has done more good than can be explained. It has created several enthusiasts in Bible study. Several of the best of these are now studying in colleges in other lands. One, a bright young sister, has just gone to America to prepare for a missionary life. Beautiful letters, expressive of gratitude for benefits gained for life, have cheered and gladdened my soul. The subjects gone through in the past year have been Christian Evidence and Church History. If only a few take up study, it is well worth while for their sake to continue. Like all our work in this country, this is only a feeble attempt, but it is the germ of great possibilities, and might well be conserved.

During the year I have preached at various times as called on in emergencies for our London churches. The work of editing the magazine has also fallen to me and has been a congenial task. I have cordially to thank the friends who have been able to send in literary contributions. It has been my aim to make it our own magazine, and in this respect it would have been more successful if there had been a larger response to my appeals.

STATIONS AND MISSIONARIES.

HAVANA.

L. C. McPherson.—What would Abraham think of Havana? A lasting impression for righteousness can not be made on this city by anything less than the positive gospel of Christ. Negations and doubtful disputations of the power of God to save a ruined world may work a few months on foundations which faith and prayer and gospel preaching have made, but stopping at æsthetics in Havana would not have a ghost of a chance. A Unitarian professor came down here from Boston. He took some snap shots and fixed up some statistics in his nice little leather-backed book, looked wise, and returned to Boston. Soon after I saw an article in the Boston Transcript from the professor. Candidly, brethren, he who doubts Christ's divinity or causes others to doubt it by his equivocal attitude and explanations, has no honest place in the Christian ministry. It is a terrible responsibility to play fast and loose with this all essential doctrine. Less explanation and more intense faith and activity in love are indispensable.

We have four mission points in Havana. We conduct two services weekly in each of three and four in the other, where we live. That is more than 500 a year. That is not enough. The Cuban brethren urge starting a fifth mission, and promise to support it. We have three Sunday-schools self-supporting. Attendance at worship is generally better.

We have had forty-two accessions in the year and some are yet to be baptized. Our Methodist brethren have had twenty-one accessions. They are the aggressive Protestant body here, with fifteen missionaries in Havana, and they have in this city two of the largest mission schools in Cuba.

We opened McLean College September 18th. We have prayed and wrought and determined for this for four years. Professor Mark Peckham, graduate of Hiram College, a cultured, consecrated young man with high missionary ideals, is the principal of this school. He has had experience as teacher and preacher, and ably shows it. Miss Williamina Meldrum, the Living-Link of our beloved Jefferson Street Church, of Buffalo, New York, is a skillful and devoted teacher. Last year she taught our three children at home, an inestimable blessing to them without regular instruction for five years. She helped efficiently in the mission work and made unusually rapid progress in her knowledge of the Spanish language. Angel Godinez, our Cuban evangelist, a superior teacher and preacher, has been chosen unanimously by the missionaries here to teach also in McLean College.

We could not ascertain until in July whether we could have Mr. Peckham and open the school. Hence we were delayed, and we can not expect the attendance this year which we otherwise would have had. But God foresaw the opening better than we and knew the travail of our souls in behalf of a school and blessed us with prospects surpassing our expectations.

We have not a church member in Havana who was a member more than three years ago, when Cuban interest really began. Then we received our first Cuban accession after nearly three years of service here. During nearly six years in Havana we have done as much English preaching as is done in our large city churches of the United States, besides our Spanish work. When Professor Peckham begins speaking Spanish, which he will do sooner than most missionaries, we wish to go to some country towns where the people have no place to go but to the missions. In such places they stand on the corners ready to hear the gospel. Preaching with wisdom and love and industry among these rural people will yield apparent results more quickly than in Havana, a city almost paralyzed by iniquity. The presidential campaign is on. The greatest political gatherings, parades, and excitement are about our mission Sundays, diverting the attention of the hearers. Havana is the center of the political struggle. Sundays are the special days chosen for driving, concerts, theater-going, dancing, racing, and gambling at jai alai. Many Sunday mornings at two o'clock we are kept awake by music and dancing begun Saturday evenings in one of the most popular club houses of Cuba. And now an American company is planning another Coney Island resort on the beach near Havana, which is announced for Sundays especially. One could not describe the brazen immorality of Havana. And what a blight! No wonder Paul pressed toward the work! No wonder he beat down his carnal nature lest he should be a cast-away! O, the depths of iniquity he saw and the infinite condescension and mercy of God.

In the past year we organized a Christian Endeavor Society. In it the members show a remarkable growth. But for the Spanish language used one would think of being transported, for the time, to one of our American Societies. We also organized our third Sunday-school, which promises to be our largest. I keep in contact with all this work, superintending one Sunday-school, with Brother Godinez over another, and Brother Martinez with one. Brother Martinez graduated in Belen College here, a Jesuit school of fame in all Spanish-speaking countries. He is also a graduate of Havana University. He also has the degree of LL. D. from Drake University, of Des Moines, conferred on him in June, after a visit here by Brother White, one of the first trustees of Drake. Brother Martinez is one of the cleanest officials of Cuba, and is a talented, noble Christian character. We can not express our gratitude to the three churches affording Havana Living-Links, namely, Jefferson Street Church, of Buffalo; Cedar Rapids Church, Iowa; and Hiram College students. The Cedar Rapids brethren who visit here have become enthusiastic friends of the Havana mission and are proud of the Cedar Rapids Living-Link, Angel Godinez. Brethren, pray for us. The grace of our Lord be with you.

Miss Williamina Meldrum.—This year has been spent in teaching, studying the Spanish language, and assisting wherever needed in the services conducted at the various mission points in Havana.

The necessity of a school in connection with our church seemed the most striking feature to me. There is great need for such work, and we shall gain much through the school we expect to open this fall.

There is every reason for encouragement in the progress which has been made and the influence which has been established in the city of Havana.

Buildings in which we could permanently locate our work are greatly needed. They would aid both the work and the workers.

The Christian Endeavor work begun this year promises to be one of our strongest influences. It will reach the young people in a way that will count for much in helping them in the Christian life.

It seems to me that in a few years we shall be able to have a church of our own, with a fine school and for both of these suitable buildings in which to meet.

MATANZAS.

Melvin Menges.—Stations and out-stations, 4; members at the beginning of the year, 21; baptized during the year, 33; present membership, 54. Sunday-schools, 3; pupils, 120; average attendance, 62.

A year ago, through the blessing of God, we were able to report progress in the work of His kingdom in this city. This year we are happy to say to those at home who are co-laborers with us, that we are again larger in numbers and in those things that make for perfection in Christian character.

To begin the year, the missionaries and the old members were all encouraged by the coming of Mr. and Mrs. Hill to be associated with us. Their presence and such work as they could do the first year have been of great value, and we are profoundly thankful for their coming.

The regular services of the year have been continued with growing interest and results. Thirty-three have been baptized and others are near the point of obedience. The Sunday-schools have contributed a number of the converts and are among our most effective instruments. We must reach the children if Cuba is to be won for our Lord.

The work at Cidra has passed the experimental stage and settled down on a good solid basis. A number have been baptized and some of the best and most influential people of the village are supporting the work. We need a chapel there.

For about three months I have been visiting every alternate Tuesday the town of Union de Reyes, a good place of some 5,000 population about twenty miles out from Matanzas. A number of people are interested and prospects seem to be favorable for building up a congregation at that point.

Our most pressing need in Matanzas just now is a building suitable for chapel and school. We trust that this will soon be supplied.

We have many needs and likewise many good things for which to be thankful. Health and strength for our work, delightful relations with our fellow workers of the various churches, the love and prayers of the friends at home, the satisfaction over the victories won, the affection and confidence of the converts, the busy life, the goodness and mercies of our Heavenly Father, all contribute to make the lot of the missionary one of the most fortunate vouchsafed to mortals.

R. R. Hill.—With the close of the missionary year we have been in Cuba for ten months. These have been very pleasant months in our experience, although we have had all the newness of first year workers to go through with. The process of getting acclimated has been passed through very nicely, and we have had time to get accustomed to the manners and customs of the people, which are, of course, so different from the standards which we have been used to. Although all the Cubans tell us that the Spanish is an easy language to learn, yet the process of acquiring a foreign language is hard enough at the best, and we have been especially handicapped because of the inability to secure a good teacher; they all lack the art of imparting their knowledge in a manner such that the pupil may advance in learning.

This being our first year, the amount of work done has been necessarily small. To judge of its results at this time is impossible. We have tried to study the people and their surroundings and thus learn their needs, so as to be in a position to give much more efficient service in the future.

Early in the current year I was able to take up the work of teaching a Sunday-school class in Spanish. This gave me great pleasure, as I then could really feel that I was doing something for the people here. Before this time I had spent a part of my time in teaching English to two bright young men, who have since gone to the States. I also had charge of the instruction of Melvin Menges' son, Paul, a bright little fellow, who made good progress in his year's work.

During the closing days of the year I was left in charge of the work here, along with Mrs. Menges, while Mr. Menges took his vacation in the States.

All through the year I have been planning for the school. We hope to have it open in September. Our prayers are that it may be successful, and we feel that it will be so, as the prospects seem bright. The need of a good school here, with Christian influences, is very apparent. It is through the schools that the Catholics are still gaining a great hold on the children. They (the Catholics) are not going to lay down their arms peacefully and leave us a free field, and so we must use all our strength and all our wits to make every stroke count for the most.

For the blessings that have been ours in the past we thank God. For the prosperity and advancement of our work in the future we ask the prayers of the Convention and of all the brethren of the home land. May the grace of God dwell in us all to the accomplishment of a higher work for the Master.

LAOAG.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hanna.—August 3d brought to a close our fourth year in these islands. In these years, the Heavenly Father has been good to us and no serious sickness has befallen us. This year the birth of a son has gladdened our hearts. The work of the Lord has prospered in our hands. To Him we give praise and great glory.

No small amount of time has been devoted to concluding the revision of the New Testament and to translating Genesis and Exodus,—works pursued in connection with my teacher. Several important tracts have been prepared for publication. About three hundred testaments and over fifteen hundred Scripture portions have been sold. Calendars and tracts almost without number, have been sold or distributed gratis. The mails have been used to get tracts into the hands of the priests.

I have made three extended visits to the churches near Bangui, and each time my heart has rejoiced at the signs of growth in grace and knowledge. These churches, by the help of God, developed more in independence and efficiency than the congregation in Laoag. The numerical growth of the latter has been fourfold. The brethren have developed in the truth and several speak quite acceptably. The system of weekly offerings has been inaugurated. It is confidently expected that by December, the Laoag Chapel will have been erected, and by the divine aid, we shall make it a center of influence and power.

I have preached in almost fifty towns and villages. There are baptized converts in only five places. Eight of the above towns are counted as out-stations and I aim to visit them weekly. The field is wide and I have no helpers who devote all their time to the work. This is our weakness and difficulty. Disinclination to study, pursuit of more remunerative work, care of houses, lands and families, ambition for governmental positions, militate against our securing helpers for full time. Several brethren from Laoag accompany me on excursions for the day or half day, but we lack the influence that results from constant daily preaching in numerous open towns. Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth laborers into this ripe field to labor day by day.

Graft is quite common among the native officials, and, in some cases, I have been able to protect the poor from being fleeced by unscrupulous sons of the pope.

During school vacation I conducted a class in English in the study of Genesis. The attendance ran between nine and fifteen. In many cases the students of English take on smart Aleck ways and it is difficult to do them any good.

Our work confines itself as yet to the common people. Some rich and well-educated think well of the truth, but they lack that love of the truth that will lead them to identify themselves with an unpopular cause. Our power is growing. Priests are beginning to apologize for, or to modify, their doctrines. Fewer images are being sold. People are beginning to read and think on what they read. Expressions of dissatisfaction with the priests and their lives and failure to teach are multiplying. God is moving on the hearts of the people. Our faith in Him is strong. He will surely bring forth his people here out of ignorance and superstition into the light and liberty of the sons of God.

Dr. C. L. Pickett.—Our medical work, we believe, has shown a constant and permanent growth during the past twelve months. Our records show the actual number of patients treated to be 2,357. Of these 1,001 have been new patients. The total number of treatments were 4,174. During the year we treated 16 cases of leprosy and 75 of syphilis. The latter is oftentimes more repulsive than the former, though it yields quite readily to treatment, and many cases of fifteen and twenty years' standing have been remarkably benefited.

We have received as medical fees and from the sale of medicines, $1,507.57. Our clinic and dispensary being in our own home, we find it difficult to confine the work to definite hours; yet we are seldom overwhelmed as we probably would be with such an arrangement in some other countries. We have many calls to see out-patients every day and have practically answered all of them, though no exact record has been kept of the number. As yet we have not seen our way clear to open a hospital. This is partly due to the absolutely untrustworthiness of native helpers when it comes to carrying out instructions for the care of the sick, and partly to the fact that the natives prefer to keep the sick and care for them in their own homes. I doubt if a hospital can be conducted very successfully without a trained nurse, or, at least, some good motherly American matron, who can be in constant charge of all patients, and at the same time keep a watchful eye over the culinary department. When a Filipino child wants a certain thing to eat he gets it whether it is good for him or not; and when he does not want to take his medicine, he does not take it, so far as his parents are concerned. A bath when one is sick is a thing absolutely unpermissible, according to their ethics, no matter if the sickness is nothing more than a headache or a sore finger. Our prayer is that someone who reads these lines may hear a "call" in this direction and "come over and help us."

During the year we have had twelve major operations requiring complete anesthesia, and about thirty-five minor. Practically all patients have received either Scripture portions or religious tracts in their own tongue. Three have been baptized and we believe the hearts of many more have been made receptive to the truth through our ministry. Our knowledge of the native language is yet very faulty. We have employed a young man as an assistant who is proving himself a most excellent help in the clinic and dispensary, but whose English is too meager to admit of his being a very efficient teacher or interpreter in preaching, as we had hoped. Not a month has passed but that we have answered one or more calls from the sick in outside towns. On such missions we have frequently visited Paoay, Batac, San Magnel, Dingras, Piddig, Vintar, and Bacarra. On one occasion we were called to an adjoining province. We embrace the opportunity on these trips for the distribution of hundreds of religious leaflets and tracts, trusting that not all seed will fall by the wayside.

The town of San Nicholas lies just across the river south of Laoag, some two miles distant. I have always attended to the calls from the sick there the same as in Laoag. But recently the work has seemed to justify the establishment of a regular clinic. Consequently, in company with W. H. Hanna, every Wednesday afternoon is spent ministering to the spiritual and physical necessities of the people of this city. I think the work promises to be of permanent value to the mission.

On one occasion, in company with a native evangelist, Brother Hanna and I visited a village of the Tinguianes, a mountain tribe living in the eastern part of our province. We spent a night with them and were apparently given a hearty welcome. They listened attentively to the preaching and seemed abundantly willing to receive medicines for their ills, as almost every hut had one or more persons who were suffering from some sort of malady.

In accordance with instructions from our missionary convention, the last of May and first of June was spent on a trip of investigation up the Cagayan Valley. In company with a native evangelist and an interpreter, practically all the towns along the Cagayan River from Aparri to Tuguegarao were visited. Everywhere we found the people ready to listen to the gospel. And while all were not ready to obey, certainly it can be said that the door of opportunity is wide open and as yet no one is entering. The Province of Cagayan, together with that of Isabella to the south, has a population of 211,000. No Protestant work has been undertaken in either province yet; only occasional visits of the agents of the Bible Societies have been made to the territory. Nevertheless in almost every village we were met with the question, "Why don't you begin work here?" We took with us about 100 Gospels, but could have disposed of ten times as many more had we had them. In Aparri we were able to purchase a hundred more copies than an agent of the Bible Society had left on a passing visit, but these, too, were disposed of in a few hours. Everywhere the people said, "We want to know what the Bible says, but we have no teacher."

It was in Aparri that we found a man who had been the owner of a Bible for two years. He had studied it well and believed its teaching, though he had never heard a Protestant sermon. He had been a teacher in Spanish times. At one time he had begun studying for the priesthood in the Independent Church. At the close of our first preaching he asked for baptism. This was granted the next day. We, therefore, have a beginning in this important field. I have no hesitancy in recommending to the Society that this region be entered at the earliest possible date. There is ample room and abundant need for both an evangelist and a medical worker, and no field in the world is riper for an immediate harvest. As Ilocano is the language most in use and the one most generally understood in the northern part of the valley, no change in our literature will be necessary. No better time could be hoped for. No more responsive field could be desired. May the churches rise to the full measure of their opportunity and send us workers for this harvest.

As regards the health of your missionaries in the Philippines, we are most grateful for the privilege of reporting that there has been no serious or continued sickness during the past year. Children have come to brighten the home and enlarge the family circle of both the Hannas and the Picketts. In each case the mother soon regained her strength and both babies are strong and healthy. On account of these little ones, however, no vacation was taken during the hot season. As a result, all feel a lassitude and indisposition, which was not experienced last year. Both Brother Williams' little girl and our own have had malaria, and at present writing all are having touches of indigestion or dysentery. It is our opinion that hereafter some arrangements should be made for a change of atmosphere and surroundings at least for a few weeks during the hottest part of the year. It will be wise economy from every standpoint.

VIGAN.

H. P. Williams.—The first three months constituted a vacation to China, enforced by the malaria. Returning to Manila, some six weeks were spent among the Tagalo churches, a Bible Institute held in Manila, a chapel dedicated, and protracted meeting held for the church at Liliw.

Arriving at last in Laoag, we effected our change of station to Vigan; and for seven months the work has given most encouraging results. Forty-eight have been baptized, and churches constituted in Vigan, Banggued, Sinait, and Magsinggal. Besides this, the gospel has been preached in Badok, Kabugaw, Lapo, Santo Domingo, Santa Catalina, San Vicente, Bantay, San Quentin, Penarubia, Pilar, San Jose, Bukay, Dolores, San Juan, Lagayan, La Paz, San Gregorio, and other points. Some of these places have been visited five and six times, being towns of importance, and some have groups of Bible students organized. Two itineraries have been outlined, one of fifty miles, and one of 120 miles, which, it is hoped, can be traveled monthly.

We have opened our home to young Filipinos who are going to school and want to study the Bible. We teach them mornings and evenings and Saturdays; and call this the "College of the Bible;" and we expect to train preachers to help meet the tremendous demand. We have six young men living in the house; of these, three actually preach and have helped materially in making converts. Some from outside attend the classes. Mrs. Williams teaches three evening classes weekly, and takes over my work during my absence on itineraries.

In evangelizing, the work of Bible and tract distribution has been made prominent. Fifteen dollars per month is received from the American Bible Society for pay as colporteur. Where my helpers failed me, the money has been used to buy Gospels for free distribution. Five thousand Scriptures have thus been disposed of in the last six months. Besides this, I estimate that upwards of five thousand tracts have been distributed.

Literary work has been carried on to a more limited extent. Some minor translations have been made, and tracts prepared. An attempt has been made to keep in touch with the Tagalo brethren by correspondence. A second visit was made to the Tagalo churches in March. We hope to have our printing press at work here in a few weeks.

This is a busy field. May God increase his laborers.

HAWAIIAN MISSION.

P. M. Snodgrass, superintendent of the Lathrop Cooley Mission in Honolulu, writes as follows: During the year we have labored at three mission points—Cooley Chapel, Sloan Chapel, and the Japanese Mission. While the work rises and falls like the tides, yet it has withstood the storms of trial and disappointment, and we have reasons to be thankful, for the Lord has richly blessed our labors. We have a good Sunday-school at Sloan Chapel in which we have the assistance of John Hills and Sisters Goodin and Myers. The Japanese work has received a good part of my time and attention, as I give it three evenings out of each week teaching in the English and Bible classes, and on Sunday evening speaking to them through an interpreter. The growth and success of the Cooley Mission has been due to the faithful and untiring work of Mr. and Mrs. Taggard. The Sunday-school has grown from an enrollment of thirty-five to one of seventy-five. It has grown from a school held in a private home to a mission having its own home. In addition to giving these matters my oversight, I have helped conduct services aboard ships, at the prisons, and in the Y. M. C. A. We have received nine into the church by confession. All these took membership with the Central Church. With the aid of the brethren, I have solicited and collected funds for our new chapel, and have, with the help of J. N. Templeton and others, built the chapel. It is worth about $1,200. This work was done without any great cost on account of labor. We feel that the Lord has better things in store for us this coming year than he has given us in the past. The field is great and the work is difficult and the laborers are few. We need a Japanese helper very much. All the other churches have their Japanese pastors, and one who has made the Japanese Mission a study can readily see how hard and fruitless must be our efforts if we can not keep pace with those about us. As long as we had a Japanese teacher our work grew and was very promising, but the first of the year, Ota San, our Japanese preacher, was called to his heavenly reward. A few months ago Ogi San, one of my students, upon whom the mantle of Ota San had somewhat fallen, went away to Seattle, leaving me without an interpreter. Since then the work has gone down some. If we could make arrangements for a Japanese to be permanently located in this field I am sure it would be a paying investment. God will richly bless such effort.

BEQUESTS.

In thirty years the Foreign Christian Missionary Society has received from bequests the sum of $125,048.70. Some of the larger societies receive that much every year. Bequests amounting to a million or more have been made. One amounted to five millions. More people possessed of money or property should be arranging to give a part or all to the Lord's work. They may need their means now in their business or to support themselves. On this account they may not be able to give now as generously as they desire. But they should take such steps as are necessary that their estates may go on doing good for all time to come. Mr. Tubman bequeathed $30,000 to the Foreign Society; Albert Allen, $10,000; Dr. Gerould, $9,000; Timothy Coop, $5,000; others have given smaller amounts. These bequests have been of untold value to the Society in its work.

Christian people often leave their property to those who have an abundance of their own. God can hardly look with favor on such a bestowment, with the present great need of the world. Many invest in earthly monuments. The best and most lasting monument is not of granite or marble, but of perpetuated good deeds. Some people make no provision whatever for their property before death, thus leaving a great power for good unused and undirected by themselves.

A thousand millions of people are yet without the Gospel. God has intrusted to us the evangelization of the world. As Jesus Christ becomes a blessing to us, we must pass the blessing on. What is necessary for one man is necessary for a world of men. Money is the medium for carrying the message. Money will do more now for the spread of the Gospel in heathen lands than ever before. Never before has the opportunity been so great, or the responsibility so heavy. Why not execute your will so that the money will go on preaching the Gospel through the future years? How shall Christ's stewards, to whom much has been given, render a good account of their stewardship? How shall they make their memory precious and fragrant long after they have passed from earth? Monuments of wood and stone crumble into dust; but the kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, into which we build, shall endure to the glory and honor of His name, when time shall be no more.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I also give and bequeath to the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Ohio, the sum of $..... for the purposes of the Society, as specified in the Act of Incorporation. And I hereby direct my executor (or executors) to pay said sum to the Treasurer of said Society, taking his receipt therefor, within months after my decease.

I also give, bequeath, and devise to the Foreign Christian Missionary Society one certain lot of land with the building thereon standing (here describe the premises with exactness and particularity) to be held and possessed by the said Society, their successors and assigns forever, for the purposes specified in the Act of Incorporation.

All the rest and residue of my estate, of whatever form or character, I give, devise, and bequeath to.....

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this.....day of....190..

Signed.....

(Here sign your name in the presence of three witnesses. None of the witnesses should be interested in the will.)

Everything for Missionaries

Weekly shipments to all mission fields. Parcels from friends in America will be accepted to be included in shipments going abroad. We make no charge for the service beyond the actual freight expense. Mark parcels for "Foreign Shipping Clerk," giving details by letter.

Not only do we ship every product of the world's factory, loom and shop that is demanded in the various missionary fields, but we also possess unequalled export shipping facilities and special low through freight rates not enjoyed by any other house engaged in supplying American goods to American residents abroad.

For example, while the regular tariff, Chicago to San Francisco, is $3.00 per 100 lbs., we obtain for our customers on any and all kinds of goods, regardless of measurement or bulk, a fixed rate of $1.75 per 100 lbs. Chicago to Shanghai, Hongkong, Kobe, Yokohama and Manila, via fast freight and Pacific liners. No other firm can do this. We get this rate by shipping solid cargoes to the Orient. We are the only firm in America enjoying an export business large enough to secure the special $1.75 rate.

We prepay all freight, ship on through bill of lading, and guarantee safe arrival at foreign ports.

In 30 days we can land your orders at Oriental and Australasian ports.

We ship more goods direct to missionaries all over the world than do all other houses in America combined. Thousands of missionaries, and other residents of foreign countries, get practically all their supplies from us—everything from steam engines and saw mills to infant's outfits.

We know how to pack for the small boats and coolies of China, Korea and Siam, the carriers of the Kongo and Niger, the caravans of Persia, and the heat and perils of India.

We have built up our business by saving our customers' money.

New missionaries under appointment to any field are invited to visit our store, familiarize themselves with the kind and class of goods other workers in the same field are ordering, and thus learn how to buy their outfits intelligently.

Personal effects of missionaries forwarded under our low exclusive freight rates, if new goods are purchased of us.

Send for a copy of our New, Large Catalogue and Buyers' Guide, No. 74, for the season of 1905-6, just from the press. It is nearly 1200 pages, 40,000 illustrations, and quotes lowest prices on more than 126,000 articles—everything you use, eat and wear. It is free and postpaid for the asking.

Art. III. This Society shall be composed of Life Directors, Life Members, Annual Members, and Representatives of Churches, Sunday-schools, Sunday-school Classes, and Missionary Associations.

Art. IV. Its officers shall be a President, seven Vice-Presidents, a Recorder, two Secretaries, and a Treasurer, who shall be elected annually.

Art. V. The officers of this Society shall constitute an Executive Committee, who shall have all the powers vested in the Board of Managers during the intervals of the Board meetings. A majority shall be competent to transact business.

Any member of the Church of Christ may become a Life Director by the payment of $500, which may be paid in five annual installments; or a Life Member, by the payment of $100, in five annual installments; or an Annual Member by the payment of $10; or any Church of Christ, or Sunday-school, or Sunday-school Class, or Missionary Association, may be represented in the directorship or the membership for fifteen years by paying, respectfully, $500, or $100, in five annual installments; provided the representative is a member of the Church of Christ.

Art. VII. The officers of the Society and the Life Directors shall constitute a Board of Managers, who shall meet at least once a year for the transaction of business.

Art. VIII. The Board of Managers shall have power to appoint its own meetings; elect its own Chairman and Secretary; enact its own by-laws and rules of order—provided always that they be not inconsistent with the Constitution of this Society; fill all vacancies which may occur in its own body during the year; and, if deemed necessary by two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting, convene special meetings of the Society. It shall establish such agencies as the interests of the Society may require, appoint missionaries, fix their compensation, direct their labors, make all appropriations to be paid out of the treasury, and present to the Society at each annual meeting a report of the proceedings during the past year. The action of the Board of Managers is subject to revision by the Society.

Art. IX. The Treasurer shall give bond in such amount as the Board of Managers may think proper.

Art. X. The annual meetings of this Society shall be held at the same time and place as those of the American Christian Missionary Society (unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Managers), and its proceedings may be published as a part of the proceedings of that Society.

Art. XI. This Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting of the Society, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; provided such amendment shall have first been recommended by the Board, or a year's notice shall have been given.
